MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Extended Family Members,

Praised be Jesus Christ! Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

I would like to invite you once again to please read and participate in this exercise suggested by Father James Martin, SJ. While I realize that many are trying to forget 2020, I think it is more productive to own the experience and build on it rather than forget it. In this spirit:

Looking back over the year, with God.

If you have time today, why not do an annual "examen"? St. Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, encouraged us to do a daily "examen," or "examination of conscience," where we look back over the day to see where God has been active. It's a way to help us notice, be grateful and experience the desire for change. Give yourself some time, maybe 30 minutes or so. Or longer if it's been an eventful year.

- 1.) Remember that you're in God's presence. That's essential for any prayer. It's not just you running through a list or talking to yourself. You're doing it with God. Ignatius used to recommend to imagine God looking at you. It helps you to remember God is with you. Or you could simply invite God to be with you. God's always with us, but it's good to remind ourselves of that, especially when we pray.
- 2.) Call to mind what you're grateful for. Think of all the wonderful things that happened to you this year. Savor them, like you'd savor a good meal. And give thanks to God for them. Even if you've had a bad year, call to mind what you're grateful for. You may be surprised by how many wonderful events you've forgotten about. Know that these are God's gifts to you.
- 3.) Review the year. Of course, you can't do this day by day, but perhaps go month by month. Or just do it by topic--family, friends, work, and so on. Cast your mind back over the year. Notice where God was present, where you said yes to God's invitation to greater love. Where God loved you. Notice.
- 4.) Express your sorrow. Surely in the space of 365 days you've done some things you regret. Tell God you're sorry. If you've really harmed someone, the last day of the year is a good time to seek forgiveness. Think about going to confession if you're Catholic and conscious of grave sin. But don't wallow in your sins: remember you're human and we all make mistakes.
- 5.) Ask God for the grace to live 2021 as a good person. All of us have things that we'll need God's grace to face: health problems, financial problems, family problems, work problems. So, ask God for help. Be specific about what you need. St. Ignatius often encouraged people to pray for what they want and need. Finally, ask for the grace to see God's presence in the new year. And throw in a prayer for me too. I need help too.

Gratefully yours in the Newborn Savior,
Fr. Steve

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive
You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally, come at least
spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite
myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. (Is 60:1)

Psalm:

Lord, every nation on earth will adore you. (Ps 72)

Second Reading:

It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (Eph 2:5-6)

Gospel:

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. (Mt 2:10-11)

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

In late 6th century BC, the prophet Isaiah proclaimed an unimaginable future of glory for Israel in the wake of their return from seventy years of captivity in Babylon. What message of hope does our nation need today?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of God's "revelation" to include Gentiles as "coheirs" and "copartners" with Jews in the divine promise fulfilled in Christ Jesus. How welcoming are you to those you consider outsiders?

Gospel:

The magi's visit to discover the "newborn king of the Jews" caused great anxiety for the religious leaders of Jerusalem, including King Herod. Why do you think some people are not open to the good news of Jesus Christ?

A Coronavirus Prayer for this Weary Winter

Jesus Christ, Light of the World,
You understand what it is like to feel alone in the midst of great suffering.

Remain with us as we continue to endure the coronavirus pandemic.

Awaken our hearts as we bear witness to the sickness,
the sacrifice, even death.

In these dark months we cry, "How long, O Lord?"

Help us to watch and pray for signs of your hope.

When we long for a world returned to normal, inspire us to work toward a world transformed.

When we feel forgotten and lonely, help us to find solidarity through your love.

When we cannot see your face, help us to see you in others, especially the essential workers, first responders and medical professionals who labor tirelessly.

When we feel only sorrow in our souls, help us to know that the joy of the Gospel remains as true now as ever.

When we feel only grief in our hearts, help us to find consolation in knowing that those who are sick or have died are held in your loving embrace.

As we walk through this time of darkness, give us faith that we are headed toward brighter days.

Give light to our eyes. Let us show that light to one another.

Even in winter, when the ground appears barren, it is warmed by the light of your creation; seeds are nourished and green shoots are pushing up toward the sun.

Jesus Christ, be our light.

Prayer for Racial Healing***

God of Justice, God of Mercy, God of Wisdom

Triune God, in your Love you create all people in your image, without exception.

Through your goodness,

- † Open our eyes to see the dignity, beauty, and worth of every human being.
- † Open our minds to understand that all your children are brothers and sisters in the same human family.
- † Open our hearts to repent of racist attitudes, behaviors, and speech which demean others.
- † Open our ears to hear the cries of those wounded by racial discrimination, and their passionate appeals for change.

Strengthen our resolve

- † to make amends for past injustices and
- † to right the wrongs of history.

Fill us with courage that

- † we might seek to heal wounds,
  - † we might build bridges,
  - † we might forgive, and,
  - † we might accept forgiveness,
- and that

- † we might establish peace and equality for all in our communities.

We ask all this in Jesus' name.

Amen.
