MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Extended Family Members,

Praised be Jesus Christ, our Newborn Savior!

Now that we have begun the new year, we are able to take a look back as well as ahead towards the future.

As I look back, I wish to thank all who expressed your Christmas and New Year wishes to me in the manners in which you have. Please know how much I appreciate the time and generosity you spent to express yourselves to me in such a way.

Because of the advanced deadlines, this is the first “real time” bulletin letter I have written in a while. I find it funny how people ask me if I “survived Christmas.” It was quite the experience for me in both parishes. Fr. Gregory and I agreed that it was the correct choice to have both Park and Pray Masses as well as broadcasted indoor Masses without the congregation. We celebrated with approximately 900 attendees in person through Park and Pray. The broadcasts overall went well. These Masses gave each of us hope since they showed just how much the faith still means to those we seek to serve.

Now that the new year is in full swing, I am happy to inform you that Fr. Gregory and myself completed celebrating the First Confession with each parish’s Faith Formation second graders just before Christmas. It was a joyful experience for the both of us to bring our Savior’s loving mercy and compassion to so many of our collaborative’s children then and during the other four First Confession services conducted earlier. The children were attentive and engaged as well as prepared. They are now one step closer to First Communion. Thank you to Elaine Morisi and Melissa Ross for coordinating these ceremonies and to their parents for preparing them so well. May we follow the example of these children and embrace Jesus’ love, mercy, and compassion!

You may have noticed that yours truly participated in Medfield Lights as one of the Three Kings in the Living Manger Scene there on Saturday evening, December 19. It was wonderful to see so many of you that evening. I was happy to see how such a simple idea gave so many families an activity to do together. The reaction of the children (and many adults!) was priceless when they realized living goats and sheep were present. I made a new friend in Trouble the Goat!!

In closing, I wish to convey how grateful I am for all the support and encouragement you have offered me as we transitioned as a collaborative to the mode we are presently in during this past year. Thank you as well for your spiritual and financial support of the parishes. As I continue to do my best to meet the demands of being your pastor, your patience, kindness, and feedback are always appreciated.

Gratefully yours in the Newly Baptized Christ,
Fr. Steve

January 10, 2021

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

Seek the LORD while he may be found,
call him while he is near.

Let the scoundrel forsake his way,
and the wicked man his thoughts;

Let him turn to the LORD for mercy;
to our God, who is generous in forgiving (Is 55:6-7)

Psalm:

You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation.
(Is 12:3)

Second Reading:

This is the one who came through water and blood,
Jesus Christ,
not by water alone, but by water and blood. (1 Jn 5:6)

Gospel:

And a voice came from the heavens,
"You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."
(Mk 1:11)

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Isaiah was called to be a prophet to bring justice and freedom to those suffering, to be a "light for the nations." How do you see yourself serving others in need in your life?

Second Reading:

John teaches his community that God Himself has "testified on behalf of His Son." In what way does this divine assurance help strengthen your faith?

Gospel Question:

The preaching of John the Baptist and the baptism of Jesus is the opening scene in the Gospel of Mark. In Jesus' baptism, the Father, Son, and Spirit were fully present. As a baptized Christian, can you think of a time when you experienced God's presence?

Roman Catholic Bishops Statement on Abortion Expansion

The unborn child is a human life that must be protected. That precious child has no voice to protect itself from the evils of abortion. The Catholic Church recognizes that it has a primary moral responsibility to speak for the most vulnerable among us - the unborn. That responsibility is at the center of the Catholic moral vision. Because of its centrality, the Church must oppose the directly intended taking of human life through abortion at any stage of pregnancy. It is a serious moral wrong and directly undercuts our unyielding goal to promote the common good throughout a civil society.

We are deeply disappointed by the failure of the Massachusetts legislature to uphold Governor Baker's veto of legislation which further expands access to abortion in the Commonwealth beyond 24 weeks of pregnancy. The new legislation also reduces from 18 to 16 years old the requirement for a teenager to have the benefit of adult counsel (parental or judicial) prior to seeking an abortion.

With the issue of abortion at the forefront of our ministries, we recommit ourselves to defend life from conception to natural death. Our commitment to human dignity also includes strongly opposing capital punishment and physician assisted suicide, but it does not end there. We will also continue to defend life by protecting immigrants and refugees seeking our assistance, by serving the poor in our communities and by a constant appeal to others in our society to see the fragile ties which hold us together as a civil community.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive
You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Confirmation Capstone Project: Cradles to Crayons Collection during the month of January

Our names are Thomas Boland, Kyle Levangie, Jacob DeCoste, and Patrick Brennan. For our community service-based Capstone Project, we have decided to partner with the charitable organization Cradles to Crayons. They provide supplies and clothing for children in need. The collection box will be placed inside St. Edward church.

We ask that you follow COVID-19 safety measures when procuring and delivering the items, and we want to let you know that these donations are very much appreciated.

Here is the list of most needed items, as well as those that are also accepted:

MOST NEEDED:

- Re-usable face masks ("big kid"/small adult size)
- Everyday shoes/sneakers
- Shirts
- Sweaters/sweatshirts

- New batteries

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Have you ever thought about becoming Catholic? Would you like to know more about God and the Church? Or, are you already baptized but still lack the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation? If so, RCIA is for you! RCIA is a process of learning about and experiencing the Catholic faith with others in a friendly, small-group setting. It can lead to full membership in the Church through the Sacraments, but is also an open-ended process of asking questions and exploring. Come, discover what you've been missing! If you are interested or know someone who might be, please contact Fr. Gregory directly or call our parish offices.

The collaborative book group is reading "Gus Busbi" for our next book.

The discussion will be on Thursday, February 4 at 7pm on zoom. Participants who rsvp will receive discussion questions and a zoom invite about a week prior to the meeting.

Please rsvp to Jude Crossen at interese@aol.com.

Goodreads description is below:

Gus Busbi

What can a black teen from the gang-controlled South End projects of Boston and a seventy-year-old curmudgeonly Italian man, who has given up on life, have in common? Jamiel Russell and Gus Busbi live in the same house, but they've never met. They both would have just assumed it stayed that way, but life often has more in store for us than we plan for. This timely novel is the second story in the neighborhood of St. Francis Parish and shows the power of relationships, love, and forgiveness.

The book is available on Amazon.

Please keep in your prayers Matthew Murby (Coast Guard), Lucas D. LeBleu (Air Force), Scott H. Grealish (Marine Corps), John Sharkey (Army), Jake Munger (Marine Corps), Timothy Irwin (Marine Corps), Alex Burrell (Navy), John Donald Tamulionis (Army), Peter Barrette, (Navy), Mark FitzPatrick, (Army), Scott Woodward, (Army) who are courageously serving our country.

Also, please Remember in your prayers Everyone Deployed.

Prayers for Our Service Men and Women

We would like to offer our prayers for the service men and women in our community. If there is someone in our church community or someone you would like to honor who is serving our country, please email Louise Caussade, stjudeadmin@ejcatholic.org or Eileen Trinity, stadmin@ejcatholic.org

Prayer for Racial Healing***

God of Justice, God of Mercy, God of Wisdom

Triune God, in your Love you create all people in your image, without exception.

Through your goodness,

- † Open our eyes to see the dignity, beauty, and worth of every human being.
- † Open our minds to understand that all your children are brothers and sisters in the same human family.
- † Open our hearts to repent of racist attitudes, behaviors, and speech which demean others.
- † Open our ears to hear the cries of those wounded by racial discrimination, and their passionate appeals for change.

Strengthen our resolve

- † to make amends for past injustices and
- † to right the wrongs of history.

Fill us with courage that

- † we might seek to heal wounds,
  - † we might build bridges,
  - † we might forgive, and,
  - † we might accept forgiveness,
- and that

- † we might establish peace and equality for all in our communities.

We ask all this in Jesus' name.

Amen.

Cafe Justo Coffee FOR SALE:
 It's MORE than fair trade!

Cafe Justo is a coffee collaborative of farmers. They are paid approximately $2.25 per pound of coffee, higher than even fair trade standards, and roughly three times the 35-50 cents that growers are typically paid by commercial operations.

Cafe Justo is about strong futures. All growers and employees of Cafe Justo and its member cooperatives receive medical benefits and a pension plan, which is far better than most Fair Trade models. Support Cafe Justo and support their farmers and their just model.

Please visit ejcatholic.org and click the Cafe Justo: Click to order coffee tab on the home page. Coffee can either be delivered in Medfield or waiting for you at Mass. Please email cafejusto@ejcatholic.org with questions.
