MESSAGE FROM THE PAROCHIAL VICAR

The Lord be with you!

In the Gospels, Jesus teaches many great lessons about life and about prayer. One that sometimes escapes our attention is the need for rest. Not vacation per se, but what's more properly called a retreat. Jesus taught this lesson by example: he took breaks from his busy ministry – withdrawing to a quiet place in order to pray, be refreshed, and discern what he should be doing next. Jesus' disciples did this, too – always with Jesus: for example, boating across the Sea of Galilee (not easy, but very rewarding), hiking in Caesarea Philippi (especially memorable for St. Peter), walking from Jerusalem to Emmaus (started out sad, but became the best road trip ever), and sharing breakfast on a beach (Jesus gets the day started right). Today, all Christians are encouraged to partake in a spiritual retreat with the Lord once in a while. Fr. Steve and I are actually required to do this annually, for our own good and for the benefit of our ministry. As I write this (on October 25), Fr. Steve is beginning a five-day spiritual retreat at a Franciscan monastery. Three weeks ago, I went away for my own five-day retreat, directed by two Jesuit priests.

Over the years, I've experienced many different ways of taking a retreat. It can be done close to home or far away, alone or with others who are like-minded, at a house of worship or in a more secular setting such as a park, campground, or beach. It might include games, music, and conversation – or be enjoyed in complete silence. It can be as simple as making time for prayer, spiritual reading, and rest. Whatever form it takes, a Christian retreat is time spent with Jesus – an opportunity to relax, dialogue with the Lord in prayer, and maybe enjoy the company of fellow disciples. It should permit some withdrawal from our daily responsibilities and our usual environment with all its distractions. The goal is usually to return to our regular lives with renewed energy and perspective.

Does this sound a bit like a vacation? While vacations can take the form of a retreat, their focus is usually on external experiences that we enjoy only for a short time. Retreats might include such things but are more focused on developing our relationship with God, being led by Him, and paying attention to what's happening within our minds and hearts. They also don't have a well-defined beginning and ending. Consider the extreme example of a foreign pilgrimage such as to Lourdes or the Holy Land or the Camino de Santiago (depicted beautifully in the movie "The Way" with Martin Sheen). There's much to be gained by simply visiting such places and experiencing the culture there. However, the real and far better aim is to grow in holiness, wholeness, and Christian joy. It takes time to prepare for this – and God, wanting to be in charge, will often start that preparation earlier than we expect, in ways we don't realize until later on. Similarly, the best fruits of any retreat are often experienced afterward, because we have learned to let the Lord guide us, teach us, and love us through all of our day-to-day experiences.

Yours in His fellowship and service,

Fr. Gregory

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

"Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength." (Dt 6:5)

Psalm:

I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)

Second Reading:

But Jesus, because he remains forever, has a priesthood that does not pass away. Therefore, he is always able to save those who approach God through him. (Heb 7:24-25)

Gospel:

And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." (Mk 12:34)

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Moses taught the Israelites the importance of passing on the faith to their children and grandchildren. What are some faith traditions you practice in your family?

Second Reading:

Hebrews speaks of Jesus as the heavenly and eternal high priest who intercedes to God on our behalf. How often do you offer prayers of intercession to the Lord?

Gospel:

Jesus and the scribe agree on the two greatest commandments: to love God and to one's neighbor. Which of these two commandments do you find most challenging?

Masses of Remembrance 2021

Each year during November, St. Edward Parish and St. Jude Parish celebrate the Mass of Remembrance at one of our regularly scheduled Masses, remembering all those who have died from our parishes. At these Masses we will recall the names of all those who passed away from our parishes during the past year. This is a special way for each of our parishes and the families and friends of loved ones who have passed to come together to remember, celebrate and to heal.

St. Jude Mass of Remembrance is on November 7, 2021 this will be a part of the 10:30am Sunday Mass.
St. Edward Mass of Remembrance is on November 7, 2021 this will be a part of the 12pm Sunday Mass.
Both Masses will be streamed on Facebook Live.
There will be a reception at each parish immediately following the Mass of Remembrance. Family members and friends of the deceased are most welcome to attend this gathering.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Have you ever thought about becoming Catholic? Would you like to know more about God and the Church? Or, are you already baptized but still lack the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation?

If so, RCIA is for you! RCIA is a process of learning about and experiencing the Catholic faith with others in a friendly, small-group setting. It can lead to full membership in the Church through the Sacraments, but is also an open-ended process of asking questions and exploring.

Come, discover what you've been missing!
If you are interested or know someone who might be, please contact Fr. Gregory directly or call our parish offices.

SAVE THE DATES

St. Edward Grades 1-5 Families

Box of Joy

Every year, thousands of parents are too poor to provide anything but the basic necessities for a child in the developing world.

Box of Joy is an opportunity for us to share our blessings and give joy.

Last year, St. Edward and St. Jude collected over 400 Boxes of Joy!

Let us continue this wonderful tradition.

1. Get a Box: in the Narthex or outside the Faith Formation office.
2. Choose and Shop: choose gender and age range between 2-14 years old, then label your box. Go shopping: small toys, hygiene items, school supplies, hard candy (please NO liquids, food or combat toys). See website for more details.
3. Donate: Please include $9 in the envelop that goes with the box. This covers shipping and handling and supports Catholic ministries serving the child's community.
4. Drop Off: All boxes due by Nov. 14 at St. Edward. Please do not seal boxes, a set of rosary beads and a prayer book will be included, just secure with a rubber band.

Those of us who went to Guatemala on a mission trip, met this priest, Fr. Raoul, and we saw many of these boxes in the villages! There is a real need and it is a true gift!

SCRIPTURE STUDY

Exploring the Sunday Readings
Every Wednesday morning at 11:00am via Zoom, a group meets informally to explore the upcoming Sunday scripture readings. No preparation needed. All are welcome-

Please join us and share your faith!

For information or to get the link, contact Beth at bbudny@ejcatholic.org.

Many parents struggle with how best to love their adult children. When our children become adults, we can't hold them in our lap and protect them as we used to but we can lift them up in prayer and place them in God's heart. God's love is unleashed on our children and us, replacing our worries with hope. Each chapter of this book offers questions for reflection and a practical prayer skill for parents desiring the best for their children.

Zoom Dates: 7:00pm Thursday, November 18

If you are interested or have questions, please contact Jude Crossen (intersese@aol.com) or Joanne Sano (emsano@verizon.net)

Road to Hope

"Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back." (Luke 6:38)

You are invited to contact Beth Budny at 774-277-5191 or bbudny@ejcatholic.org with questions or to connect with an I THIRSTY Spiritual Companion.

Cafe Justo Coffee FOR SALE:
It's MORE than fair trade!

Cafe Justo is a coffee collaborative of farmers. They are paid approximately $2.25 per pound of coffee, higher than even fair trade standards, and roughly three times the 35-50 cents that growers are typically paid by commercial operations.

Cafe Justo is about strong futures. All growers and employees of Cafe Justo and its member cooperatives receive medical benefits and a pension plan, which is far better than most Fair Trade models.

Support Cafe Justo and support their farmers and their just model. Please visit ejcatholic.org and click the Cafe Justo: Click to order coffee tab on the home page. Coffee can either be delivered in Medfield or waiting for you at Mass. Please email cafejusto@ejcatholic.org with questions.

Gilly's House is a 501c3 nonprofit 12 step recovery men's sober home located in Wrentham, MA. We are so blessed to be able to continue to do God's work with the support of the community.

the William James Interface Referral Service maintains a mental health and wellness referral helpline Monday - Friday, 9 am-5 pm, at 888-244-6843 (toll free).

Prayer for Racial Healing***

God of Justice, God of Mercy, God of Wisdom

Triune God, in your Love you create all people in your image, without exception.

Through your goodness,

† Open our eyes to see the dignity, beauty, and worth of every human being.

† Open our minds to understand that all your children are brothers and sisters in the same human family.

† Open our hearts to repent of racist attitudes, behaviors, and speech which demean others.

† Open our ears to hear the cries of those wounded by racial discrimination, and their passionate appeals for change.

Strengthen our resolve

† to make amends for past injustices and

† to right the wrongs of history.

Fill us with courage that

† we might seek to heal wounds,

† we might build bridges,

† we might forgive, and,

† we might accept forgiveness,

and that

† we might establish peace and equality for all in our communities.

We ask all this in Jesus' name.

Amen.
