MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Extended Family Members,

Praised be Jesus Christ!

As we enter into our last full week of the Season of Advent, I have been enlivened by the spirit of giving in each parish encouraged by the Santa Foundation at St. Jude's and the Jesse Tree at St. Edward's. This was also the case at St. Jude's the weekend before Thanksgiving with the providing, packing, and the sending of Thanksgiving meals to Hillcrest. Your care for your neighbor, close and not-so-close by, is indeed commendable, especially given the circumstances of giving this year. Many thanks to the volunteers associated with these activities!

As we approach the end of the calendar year, I would like to mention that I am grateful to those who have given your offering to the Grand Annual. If you have not contributed to the present Grand Annual Appeal, I ask that you please consider doing so. The vibrancy of a parish is measured by the contribution of its parishioners' time, talent, and, yes, treasure. Parishioners giving to this collection allow us to meet our budget and, therefore, continue our ministries. While I deeply appreciate your giving to the weekly offertory, that collection alone is not sufficient to support all we do in either parish. Please consider supporting our Grand Annual Appeal if you have not done so already.

The name which gives us great comfort and hope during this season of preparation is Emmanuel. The name means "God with us." When we consider how God the Father asked his only Son to give up all in heaven in order to become one of us in order to teach, give us the example of how to live, then undergo his Passion and death in order to open the Gates of Heaven so we can live with God forever in heaven, we cannot help but come to a better understanding just how much God loves us and, therefore, want him to be among us. This basic understanding of our faith is as important as ever. Let us make sure we keep it not only in our heads, but also in our hearts.

In closing, let us join Pope Francis in praying Psalm 122, verse 6: "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem. May those who love you be secure." Bethlehem is just east of Jerusalem. Please include "a peace based on justice for the Holy Land" in your prayers.

Gratefully yours in the Expectant Christ,
Fr. Steve

from This Week in Church Signs: "Santa's elves are a bunch of subordinate clauses."
(I guess we don't have to be English language majors to get it!)

Due to an early publication deadline, offertory numbers will be published next week.

Over the coming months, Catholics from around the world will be participating in the Synod on Synodality.

What does that mean?

Here in Boston it means that we will be gathering, as parishes and as a diocese to pray together and to invite the Holy Spirit to help us to listen deeply to one another, and we will talk together about how best to do that.

So, for instance, a parish council may get together and ask "How can we as a parish council do a better job of letting the voices of all our parishioners be heard, even those who are not a part of an inner circle or who might be marginalized for whatever reason?"

The archdiocese and the church around the world will be engaging in the same sort of conversation. We pray that the Lord will open our hearts to Him and to all of our people.

Fourth Sunday of Advent
SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

You, Bethlehem-Ephrathah
 too small to be among the clans of Judah,
 from you shall come forth for me
 one who is to be ruler in Israel. (Mi 5:1)

Psalm:

Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved. (Ps 80)

Second Reading:

"Then I said, 'As is written of me in the scroll, behold, I come to do your will, O God.'" (Heb 10:7)

Gospel:

"Blessed are you among women,
 and blessed is the fruit of your womb.
 And how does this happen to me,
 that the mother of my Lord should come to me?"
 Lk 1:42-43)

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Micah prophesied a Messiah ("ruler") would come through the line of David ("Bethlehem-Ephrathah") and bring peace and harmony. In what ways does the upcoming birth of Christ bring you comfort?

Second Reading:

As the season of Advent draws to a close, the author of Hebrews reminds us that as disciples of Christ, we must strive to do God's will above all else. How do you stay focused on such an important task?

Gospel:

Luke is the only Evangelist to record the story of Mary visiting Elizabeth and only a portion of their conversation was preserved. What else do you imagine they talked about?

©LPI

Are you looking for a morning Advent faith-sharing experience? Have you ever wondered why the Sacraments, sacramentals, and private prayers and devotions are such important aspects of our faith? Would you like to enrich your experience of Holy Mass or structured prayers such as the Rosary?

Beginning Monday, December 13, we will host a three-part Advent mission "From Ritual to Relationship" at St. Edward following morning Mass. This series explores the question: "How do the rituals that Catholics participate in help us to grow in our relationship with God?" Or, perhaps, vice versa! The schedule for each of the three days is as follows: 9-9:50 AM - our regular weekday Mass and talk segment; 9:55-11 AM - a video presentation by Sr. Helena Burns, FSP followed by a group discussion.

READINGS

First Reading:

All the ends of the earth will behold the salvation of our God.
 (Is 52:10)

Psalm:

All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God.
 (Ps 98)

Second Reading:

In times past, God spoke in partial and various ways
 to our ancestors through the prophets;
 in these last days, he has spoken to us through the Son.
 (Heb 1:1-2)

Gospel:

And the Word became flesh
 and made his dwelling among us,
 and we saw his glory,
 the glory as of the Father's only Son,
 full of grace and truth. (Jn 1:14)

New Mask Mandate for Parishes as of December 18, 2021

In light of spiking numbers of new COVID cases and the likely increase in those numbers in the upcoming holiday season, Cardinal Seán is mandating that throughout the archdiocese all people attending public Masses, including weddings and funerals, wear masks. This mandate takes effect the weekend of December 18/19, 2021, and expires on January 17, 2022.

Children under the age of five are not required to wear masks. Children under the age of two should not wear masks.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Have you ever thought about becoming Catholic? Would you like to know more about God and the Church? Or, are you already baptized but still lack the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation?

If so, RCIA is for you! RCIA is a process of learning about and experiencing the Catholic faith with others in a friendly, small-group setting. It can lead to full membership in the Church through the Sacraments, but is also an open-ended process of asking questions and exploring.

Come, discover what you've been missing!

If you are interested or know someone who might be, please contact Fr. Gregory directly or call our parish offices.

We are most grateful for those who have contributed to the Christmas Flower Offering. The names of all those to be remembered will be placed near the altar and in our prayers from Christmas Day through the Epiphany of the Lord on Sunday, January 2nd, 2022.

Road to Hope

"As a result of the Twelve Steps, I'm not able to hold on to old ways of deceiving myself."

We all rationalize. Sometimes we know we are rationalizing, admit we are rationalizing, yet continue to behave according to our rationalizations! Recovery can become very painful when we decide that, for one reason or another, the simple principles of the program don't apply to us.

With the help of our sponsor and others in NA, we can begin to look at the excuses we use for our behavior. Do we find that some principles just don't apply to us? Do we believe that we know more than everyone else in Narcotics Anonymous, even those who have been clean for many years? What makes us think that we're so special?

There is no doubt, we can successfully rationalize our way through part of our recovery. But, eventually, we must squarely face the truth and start acting accordingly. The principles in the Twelve Steps guide us to a new life in recovery. There is little room for rationalization there.

Just for Today: I cannot work the steps and also continue deceiving myself. I will examine my thinking for rationalizations, reveal them to my sponsor, and be rid of them.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive
You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite
myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Prayer for Racial Healing*

God of Justice, God of Mercy, God of Wisdom

Triune God, in your Love you create all people in your image, without exception.

Through your goodness,

† Open our eyes to see the dignity, beauty, and worth of every human being.

† Open our minds to understand that all your children are brothers and sisters in the same human family.

† Open our hearts to repent of racist attitudes, behaviors, and speech which demean others.

† Open our ears to hear the cries of those wounded by racial discrimination, and their passionate appeals for change.

Strengthen our resolve

† to make amends for past injustices and
† to right the wrongs of history.

Fill us with courage that

† we might seek to heal wounds,

† we might build bridges,

† we might forgive, and,

† we might accept forgiveness,

and that

† we might establish peace and equality for all in our communities.

We ask all this in Jesus' name.

Amen.

Per Town of Norfolk: No open packages, no expired dates, no packages without expiration dates appearing can be accepted.

Cafe Justo Coffee FOR SALE:

It's MORE than fair trade!

Cafe Justo is a coffee collaborative of farmers. They are paid approximately $2.25 per pound of coffee, higher than even fair trade standards, and roughly three times the 35-50 cents that growers are typically paid by commercial operations.

Cafe Justo is about strong futures. All growers and employees of Cafe Justo and its member cooperatives receive medical benefits and a pension plan, which is far better than most Fair Trade models.

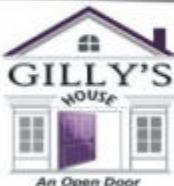

Support Cafe Justo and support their farmers and their just model. Please visit ejcatholic.org and click the Cafe Justo: Click to order coffee tab on the home page. Coffee can either be delivered in Medfield or waiting for you at Mass. Please email cafejusto@ejcatholic.org with questions.

Dignity Matters

This non-profit organization collects personal products and underwear for women and girls who are homeless or living in very low income situations, in order to help them stay healthy, regain self-confidence, and live with basic dignity. Donations of pads (all types, including Depends), tampons, new underwear and new/ gently used bras may be left in the blue bin in the lobby.
