MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Extended Family Members,

Praised be Jesus Christ!

Well, here we are on the verge of the month of February. There are two major saints' days during the month: St. Blase Day and Valentine's Day.

St. Blase was the bishop of Sebastea, Armenia in the early fourth. Due to the persecution of Christians, Bishop Blase was forced to flee to the "back country." There he was forced to live as a hermit in solitude and prayer. In doing so, he made friends with wild animals. One day, a group of hunters stumbled upon St. Blase's cave. They were first surprised, then frightened. The bishop was kneeling in prayer, surrounded by patiently waiting wolves, lions, and bears. As the hunter's hauled Bishop Blase off to prison, a mother came with her young son, who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Bishop Blase's command, the child coughed up the bone.

According to one legend, the origin of Valentine's Day dates back to around 269 and the existence of the Roman Empire, with its army served by a chaplain. Due to an extreme lack of soldiers for fights against enemies, the warlord was convinced that the stumbling block for his ambitious plans was marriages because a married legionary thought much less about the glory of the empire than about how to manage his family. That is why, in order to save the warrior spirit in their soldiers, the emperor issued a decree, forbidding the soldiers to get married.

However, the soldiers did not stop falling in love because of that decree. Fortunately, there was a man who, despite the prohibition, started secretly performing marriage ceremonies for the legionaries. That man was a chaplain named Valentine. Apparently, this man was a real romantic as his favorite pastimes were to be a go-between for quarreling lovers and to help the soldiers write beautiful love notes.

When the emperor found out about this, he ordered the execution of the chaplain. The tragedy of the situation was added to since Valentine was also in love. The day before his death, the chaplain wrote a goodbye letter to his beloved, in which he shared with her his feelings and signed it, "Your Valentine." The date of his execution coincided with the Roman celebration in honor of Juno, the goddess of love, February 14.

Again, this is one of a number of legends. Since none of them can be substantiated, St. Valentine was removed from the Church's calendar.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Steve

We are still accepting donations if you haven't had the opportunity to respond. Every gift is welcome and appreciated. Thank you to all who have already donated to this important collection.

Over the coming months, Catholics from around the world will be participating in the Synod on Synodality. What does that mean? Here in Boston it means that we will be gathering, as parishes and as a diocese to pray together and to invite the Holy Spirit to help us to listen deeply to one another, and we will talk together about how best to do that.

So, for instance, a parish council may get together and ask "How can we as a parish council do a better job of letting the voices of all our parishioners be heard, even those who are not a part of an inner circle or who might be marginalized for whatever reason?" The archdiocese and the church around the world will be engaging in the same sort of conversation. We pray that the Lord will open our hearts to Him and to all of our people. Please visit the Synod website: www.synod.va/en.html for additional information.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

The word of the LORD came to me, saying:
 Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
 before you were born I dedicated you,
 a prophet to the nations I appointed you. (Jer 1:4-5)

Psalm:

I will sing of your salvation. (Ps 71)

Second Reading:

So faith, hope, love remain, these three;
 but the greatest of these is love. (1 Cor 13:13)

Gospel:

And he said, "Amen, I say to you,
 no prophet is accepted in his own native place." (Lk 4:24)

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading Question:

In his call to be a prophet, the Lord informs Jeremiah of both the human resistance and the divine providence that lies ahead for him. When have you felt God's presence in the midst of turmoil in your life?

Second Reading:

Paul eloquently defines the spiritual virtue of "love" for the Christians in Corinth. How well do you live by the standards of love as defined by Paul?

Gospel:

The people of Nazareth were "filled with fury" at Jesus' words to them. How do you imagine Jesus reacted to being rejected by those in his hometown of Nazareth?

Lenten Study

The Screwtape Letters by CS Lewis

Many of us associate CS Lewis with the Books of Narnia but did you know he was a prolific writer for adults as well including Mere Christianity. Screwtape Letters is a short book of 31 letters from a senior devil to his young nephew, a devil newbie. Through these letters, Lewis helps us recognize the subtle techniques, shadowy whispers and twists of the enemy and how to recognize him at work.

The eight week zoom meetings start Tuesday, February 8 at 7 pm.

The book is free on public domain, the library or can be purchased at any bookstore. Entertaining, perfect for Lent and as relevant today as when it was written during WW II.

Come for one or all sessions.

Contact Joanne Sano at emsano@verizon.net or Jude Crossen at interese@aol.com to register.

A Message from Father Steve

As your pastor, I'm in a unique spot to see the good work that we're able to do because of contributions from families like yours. I see first-hand how we provide comfort to those in need, resources to young families and care for the sick and elderly. We make certain that the Catholic faith is alive here in our collaborative.

This was a particularly challenging year for all of us due to the coronavirus pandemic. I was so inspired by all of you who stepped up to support the parish. You made it possible for us to continue our ministries through your gifts, prayers, service, and simple acts of kindness to one another.

Everything we do in this collaborative is made possible because individuals and families like you step up and offer your contributions. May God bless you for your support!

Once again, thank you for your generous commitment to St. Edward Parish and St. Jude Parish.

Sincerely,
Rev. Stephen P. Zukas
Pastor

COOKING FOR A CAUSE! VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Please consider joining a team of parishioners providing meals to people at the Haley House shelter in Boston.

We have 3 teams of volunteers that collaborate to supply a monthly meal of Chili, salad, fresh fruit and juice. Each team donates four times per year and we currently have openings for 3 new volunteers. It's a simple way to make a difference. Just deliver the specified donation once every 3 months on a Sunday morning to the home of a Medfield driver.

If you would like to help with this ministry (or be put on the waiting list for future needs) please call Martha Festa (508 359-5991).

Road to Hope

- Many afflicted individuals might be disdainful of God and reject God. Others might intellectualize their attachment and believe they are self-sufficient. Still others might be devout but cannot understand why they are unable to abandon the object of their attachment.
- Pastoral care to the family and friends of the afflicted is important, because the families will often experience the same guilt, shame, and isolation as the afflicted loved one does.
- Praying in community is an important spiritual tool for the family and friends of the afflicted.
- Pastoral care for the afflicted and their families is about providing spiritual consolation, spiritual guidance, and spiritual empathy in order to bring about healing.
- When we all embrace our own "addictions," we can truly surrender to God, acknowledge our own brokenness, and begin the healing process.

Prayer for Racial Healing*

God of Justice, God of Mercy, God of Wisdom

Triune God, in your Love you create all people in your image, without exception.

Through your goodness,

† Open our eyes to see the dignity, beauty, and worth of every human being.

† Open our minds to understand that all your children are brothers and sisters in the same human family.

† Open our hearts to repent of racist attitudes, behaviors, and speech which demean others.

† Open our ears to hear the cries of those wounded by racial discrimination, and their passionate appeals for change.

Strengthen our resolve

† to make amends for past injustices and

† to right the wrongs of history.

Fill us with courage that

† we might seek to heal wounds,

† we might build bridges,

† we might forgive, and,

† we might accept forgiveness,

and that

† we might establish peace and equality for all in our communities.

We ask all this in Jesus' name.

Amen.
