Reservations are not required for Monday, Tuesday or Friday. Church doors are locked 10 minutes prior to the start of Mass; all attendees must be seated by then.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION: Reconciliation is always available by appointment. In addition, times set aside for “walk in” reconciliation will be announced from time to time in this bulletin.

John Grasing (302-573-2390).

SACRAMENTALS: For the renewal of marriage vows and the blessing of homes, religious articles, automobiles, boats, and other appropriate items, please contact the Pastor.

Please Take This Bulletin Home With You.
Do Not Leave In The Pew. Thank You.

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

All over the country this week, the faithful celebrate the blessings of Catholic education in the United States by observing Celebrate Catholic Schools Week (January 31—February 6); this observance began in 1974, making this year's NCSW the 47th such celebration. The theme for this year's observance is "Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service."

You and I are blessed doubly: on the one hand, our patron was the key player in the establishment of an organized system of Catholic schools in America; on the other hand, we have Most Blessed Sacrament Catholic School – a stellar example of what Catholic elementary education should be – in our own backyard.

In your prayers of thanksgiving this week, please join me in thanking the Lord for blessing us with such a fine school, with so many committed parents, with an outstanding bunch of students, and with such a dedicated faculty and staff!

On another note, this coming Tuesday, 2 February, is the Feast of the Presentation of The Lord (Candlemas Day). The Blessing of Candles will take place prior to the start of the 9:00 AM Mass. This blessing falls only upon those candles that are used for prayer (i.e., not decorative candles, not birthday candles, etc.). If you use candles in your prayer at home, please feel welcome to bring them to the 9:00 Mass that day. If you join us for Mass via the live-stream, have your candles near you as we pray together. I will ask God's blessing on all of them.

And may God bless you, always!

Rev. Joseph MPR Cocucci
Pastor

Prayer to Saint Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.

St. Blaise and the Blessing of Throats In the Time of COVID-19

In this time of pandemic, our liturgical rites and prayers are more important than ever. COVID-19, however, forces us to change the way we do certain things, including the traditional Blessing of Throats in honor of St. Blaise. This year, the Blessing will be imparted at St. John Neumann at the weekend Masses on February 6 & 7.

Due to the necessity of maintaining physical distancing, the Blessing will not be performed individually with each person having their throats touched with blessed candles. Instead, the entire Assembly (including those participating though the livestream) will receive the blessing at the same time at the end of each of the weekend Masses. In these circumstances, the blessing is imparted without the traditional candles, according to the Church's official rites.

Be assured that the efficacy of the blessing lies in the intention of the person offering the blessing, and not on the proximity of the recipient to that person.

REMEMBERING THE SICK OF THE PARISH

Remember in your prayers the sick of the parish: Most Reverend W. Francis Malooly, Maria McDonald, Evelyn Ciuchta, Catherine Shea, John Smith, Thomas Hensler, Marilyn Hansen, and all those whose names appear in the Parish List of the Sick.

If you would like someone added to the Parish List of the Sick send your request to sjnprayforus@gmail.com. Privacy protocols require you to obtain permission before submitting a name other than your own.

St. John Neumann Roman Catholic Church
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time (31 January, 2021)

Entrance Antiphon: Save us, O Lord our God! And gather us from the nations, to give thanks to your holy name, and make it our glory to praise you.

Gloria: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses spoke to all the people, saying: "A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen. This is exactly what you requested of the LORD, your God, at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let us not again hear the voice of the LORD, our God, nor see this great fire any more, lest we die.' And the LORD said to me, 'This was well said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Whoever will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will make him answer for it. But if a prophet presumes to speak in my name an oracle that I have not commanded him to speak, or speaks in the name of other gods, he shall die.'"

Psalm Response: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties. An unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord. But a married man is anxious about the things of the world, how he may please his wife, and he is divided. An unmarried woman or a virgin is anxious about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy in both body and spirit. A married woman, on the other hand, is anxious about the things of the world, how she may please her husband. I am telling you this for your own benefit, not to impose a restraint upon you, but for the sake of propriety and adherence to the Lord without distraction.

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

The Profession of Faith: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon: Let your face shine on your servant. Save me in your merciful love. O Lord, let me never be put to shame, for I call on you.

An Act of Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God
cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

As I walk through the building, I am reminded of a Mark Twain quote “Kindness is the language which the deaf can hear and the blind can see.” We love our students. Please call for a private tour if you have ever wondered what an excellent 21st century Catholic school education looks like, or if you wonder if it is similar to your Catholic school education. Please call to see how our students practice reverence and respect in all aspects of their education. We would love to share all that MBS does to help shape the next generation. Please contact Amanda Evans, Director of Admissions, at 410-208-1600 for more information and to schedule your tour. All are welcome.

Today, Sunday, January 31st marks the beginning of Catholic Schools Week. Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service. During Catholic Schools Week we will dedicate February 3rd to a day of service. Older students will be making lap blankets and the younger students will put together comfort bags so they can be distributed to cancer patients receiving treatment. We will also be distributing hats, gloves, and coats to underprivileged children with the help of the Knights of Columbus Council #9053 in Ocean City. Both projects encompass the entire school community.

Please keep us in your prayers as we celebrate Catholic Schools Week! God bless our families.

Important Dates

INCLEMENT WEATHER AND MASS

The BEST way to be informed about weather-related cancellations of Masses or other parish events is to sign up for St. John Neumann’s “Remind.com” service. This allows the Pastor to send out important notifications by email or by text to everyone who participates. In the event of inclement weather, you can also call the main parish number (410-208-2956) and select Option 3 (Church Closing Due to Inclement Weather) to find out if Mass has been cancelled; a recorded message will alert you to that cancellation. In addition, you can check the parish website (www.stjohnneumannrcc.com). Weekday Mass will be cancelled when schools are closed in Worcester County because of snow.

As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, let us recall our own Baptism. We have all received the call to go and baptize all nations. Pray for those who are considering if they too are ready to renounce Satan and all his works and empty promises. If there is someone you think would like to explore what Baptism in the Catholic faith means, ask him or her to contact Jamey Sturgill on 410-208-2854 or jsturgill@stjnrc.com.

Rest in Peace

Please pray for the family and friends of Norman Krueger, Jeanne Donovan, and Margaret Rehkemper, who passed away. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
