SAINT JOHN NEUMANN ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Last year at this time we were two months into “reopening” and were making use of a “reservation” system for Mass attendance. The vaccines had not yet been approved and most of us were dealing with anxiety of one sort or another. At that time I published in this column a collection of Scripture passages that I thought would be helpful to cling to in perplexing and distressing times. Many of you found them helpful, and, recently, some parishioners asked me if I would re-print them. It’s my privilege to encourage you to read them regularly, even daily.

Philippians 4:6–7: “Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.”

Psalm 16:8: “I keep the LORD always before me; with him at my right hand, I shall never be shaken.”

Psalm 4:9: “In peace I will lie down and fall asleep, for you alone, LORD, make me secure.”

Psalm 27:1: “The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?”

Isaiah 41:10: “Do not fear: I am with you; do not be anxious: I am your God. I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand.”

Psalm 32:7: “You are my shelter; you guard me from distress; with joyful shouts of deliverance you surround me.”

Psalm 23:4: “Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff comfort me.”

Deuteronomy 31:8: “It is the LORD who goes before you; he will be with you and will never fail you or forsake you. So do not fear or be dismayed.”

Jeremiah 29:11-14 “For I know well the plans I have in mind for you . . . plans for your welfare and not for woe, so as to give you a future of hope. When you call me, and come and pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, I will let you find me and I will change your lot; I will gather you together from all the nations and all the places to which I have banished you and bring you back to the place from which I have exiled you.”

The more we allow God’s Word to find a dwelling in our minds and hearts, the more effectively we can deal with the troubles that plague our world and our nation these days. When you hear bad news – when you’re tempted to give in to fear and anxiety – turn to these verses. Trust them. The One who gives them to us is worthy of all trust. And make an act of thanksgiving, praising the Lord for His love, guidance, and protection.

God bless you, always!

ONGOING HEALTH CONSCIOUSNESS

Please remember that if you feel ill staying home is perfectly acceptable and, in fact, can be an act of charity towards our other parishioners. In that same spirit, please cover your mouth while coughing or sneezing. Thank you.

The Cathedral of Saint Peter, in the historic Quaker Hill section of the City of Wilmington, is the Bishop's own parish and the center of Catholicism in our diocese. It was built over 200 years ago – 50 years before the founding of the Diocese of Wilmington, and continues with a small but dedicated parish community and school. At the onset of the coronavirus pandemic, the diocese began livestreaming Sunday Mass from our Cathedral. That effort continues today. In 2015, the bishop, with the support of the priests of the diocese, instituted an annual special collection to support the maintenance and ministry of our Cathedral. This year, the collection will be held on August 14 & 15. More information is available at cathedralofstpeter.com... And at www.cdow.org/cathedral. We thank you for your generosity.

Prayer to My Guardian Angel

Angel of God, my guardian dear,
 to whom God's love entrusts me here,
 ever this day be at my side
 to light, to guard, to rule and guide.

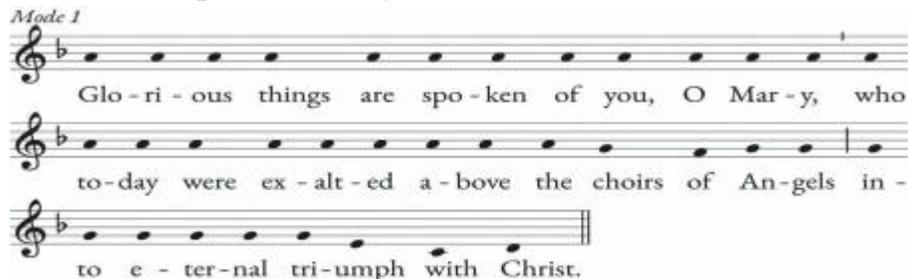

Angel sent by God to guide me,
 be my light and walk beside me;
 be my guardian and protect me;
 on the path of life direct me.

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading Saturday: 1 Chr 15:3-4, 15-16; 16:1-2

David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring the ark of the LORD to the place which he had prepared for it. David also called together the sons of Aaron and the Levites. The Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with poles, as Moses had ordained according to the word of the LORD. David commanded the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their kinsmen as chanters, to play on musical instruments, harps, lyres, and cymbals, to make a loud sound of rejoicing. They brought in the ark of God and set it within the tent which David had pitched for it. Then they offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings to God. When David had finished offering up the burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

First Reading Sunday: Rev 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab

God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant could be seen in the temple. A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was with child and wailed aloud in pain as she labored to give birth. Then another sign appeared in the sky; it was a huge red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and on its heads were seven diadems. Its tail swept away a third of the stars in the sky and hurled them down to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman about to give birth, to devour her child when she gave birth. She gave birth to a son, a male child, destined to rule all the nations with an iron rod. Her child was caught up to God and his throne. The woman herself fled into the desert where she had a place prepared by God. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: / "Now have salvation and power come, / and the Kingdom of our God / and the authority of his Anointed One."

Responsorial Psalm Saturday: Lord, go up to the place of your rest, you and the ark of your holiness.

Responsorial Psalm Sunday: The queen stands at your right hand, arrayed in gold.

Second Reading Saturday: 1 Cor 15: 54b-57

Brothers and sisters: When that which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about: Death is swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Second Reading Sunday: 1 Cor 15: 20-27

Brothers and sisters: Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the firstfruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the Kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death, for “he subjected everything under his feet.”

Gospel Saturday: Lk 11: 27-28

While Jesus was speaking, a woman from the crowd called out and said to him, “Blessed is the womb that carried you and the breasts at which you nursed.” He replied, “Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it.”

Gospel Sunday: Lk 1: 39-56

Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled.” And Mary said: “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, and has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever.” Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

The Profession of Faith:

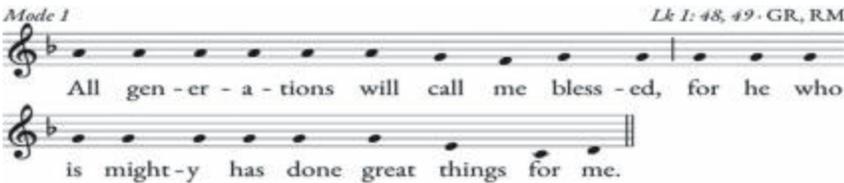

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

An Act of Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
 Be our protection against the wickedness
 and snares of the devil.
 May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
 and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host,
 by the power of God cast into hell
 Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

REMEMBERING THE SICK OF THE PARISH

Remember in your prayers the sick of the parish: Mary Ann Brattellie, Jean Ellen Diny, Sue Kuntz, Bunk Machen and all those whose names appear on the Parish List of the Sick. If you would like someone added to the Parish List of the Sick, send your request to sjnprayforus@gmail.com. Privacy protocols require you to obtain permission before submitting a name other than your own.

Religious Education: The first Sunday for religious education is September 19th. There will be a parent meeting or at least a video sent out Sept 12th (Covid determining).

Confirmation 2022: First meeting is October 10th. An online folder has been made for all the information/dates/assignments and can be accessed from the Religious Education page on the church website.

First Communion 2022: If your child is turning 7 this year don't forget to sign them up for First Communion. There is a link on the Religious Education page on the church website to an online folder with all the info .

Resource: "Sing the Hours" is a YouTube page of the Liturgy of the Hours in chant. See link on the Religious Education page on the church website.

 Rest in Peace

Please pray for the family and friends of Robert Poremski who passed away. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
