Do not leave it in the pew. Thank You.

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Once would be a horrible thing in itself.

Twice would be cause for very serious concern.

Three times in three weeks? Totally unacceptable.

Over the course of the last three weeks, parishioners have found consecrated Hosts in the pews after Mass on three separate occasions! This is desecration of the Most Blessed Sacrament, an extremely serious offense.

As pastor, one of my most important responsibilities is "custody of the Eucharist." Church law states that "the communicant who has received the Eucharist in the hand is to consume it before returning to his place, moving aside yet remaining facing the altar in order to allow the person following to approach the minister."[1] To that end, I have frequently instructed our ministers of Holy Communion to ensure that each person to whom they give Holy Communion consumes the Sacred Host in their sight before moving on. Clearly, that instruction needs to be repeated, perhaps more emphatically.

But it's not only the ministers whose help I need; I need your help too!

> When you receive Holy Communion, take one or two steps to the side, and, while facing the altar (or the tabernacle or the large crucifix in the sanctuary), place the Host in your mouth and eat It before moving on.
> If you see someone receive the Host and begin to walk away with It, please say something. We never want to be busy bodies, but we all have an obligation to prevent desecration of the Eucharist.

The last time we had an instance of this problem was in September 2017. The fact that it has happened three times in three weeks is extremely disturbing, and I hope you will help me ensure that it does not happen again.

Thank you.

May God have mercy on us and may He bless us abundantly.

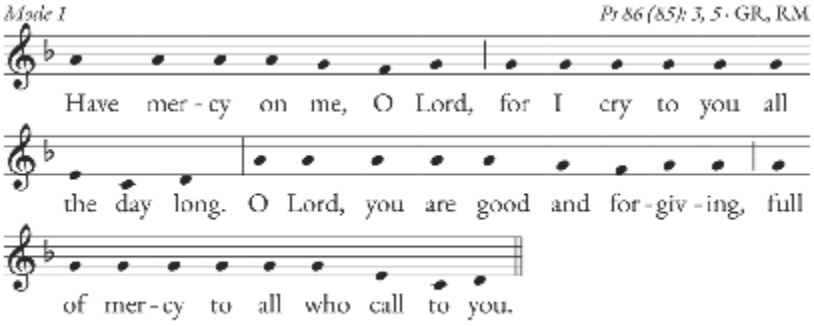
Saint John Neuman Roman Catholic Church
Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (29, August, 2021)

Entrance Antiphon:



Text: The English translation of The Roman Missal © 2010, ICEL. Corporation. All rights reserved. Arr. Melody: Licensed by Lumen Christi Group, LLC under CC BY-NC-ND 4.0. Produced using Source & Summit by unheardsw 0901756.

Gloria: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Dt 4: 1-2, 6-8

Moses said to the people: "Now, Israel, hear the statutes and decrees which I am teaching you to observe, that you may live, and may enter in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. In your observance of the commandments of the LORD, your God, which I enjoin upon you, you shall not add to what I command you nor subtract from it. Observe them carefully, for thus will you give evidence of your wisdom and intelligence to the nations, who will hear of all these statutes and say, 'This great nation is truly a wise and intelligent people.' For what great nation is there that has gods so close to it as the LORD, our God, is to us whenever we call upon him? Or what great nation has statutes and decrees that are as just as this whole law which I am setting before you today?"

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 15 (14): 1a; ℣ 2-3, 3-4, 4-5

One who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

Second Reading: Jas 1: 17-18, 21b-22, 27

Dearest brothers and sisters: All good giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no alteration or shadow caused by change. He willed to give us birth by the word of truth that we may be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls. Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Gospel: Mk 7: 1-8, 14-15, 21-23

When the Pharisees with some scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus, they observed that some of his disciples ate their meals with unclean, that is, unwashed, hands. —For the Pharisees and, in fact, all Jews, do not eat without carefully washing their hands, keeping the tradition of the elders. And on coming from the marketplace they do not eat without purifying themselves. And there are many other things that they have traditionally observed, the purification of cups and jugs and kettles and beds.— So the Pharisees and scribes questioned him, "Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders but instead eat a meal with unclean hands?" He responded, "Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written: This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines human precepts. You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition." He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile. "From within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly. All these evils come from within and they defile."

The Profession of Faith: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Meditation:

An Act of Spiritual Communion: My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God cast into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

MBS Most Blessed Sacrament CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Educating the Mind | Strengthening the Body | Nurturing the Soul

From the desk of Trinette Stillman, Principal…

Welcome Back!

It is the most beautiful time of the year! Teachers, students, and parents are gearing up for the upcoming school year. It is at this time, I would like to introduce myself as the new principal of Most Blessed Sacrament Catholic School. This will mark my 22nd year in Catholic School education. It is a privilege and an honor to work with students. As an educator, you have the opportunity to influence a child's decisions, behaviors, strengths, weaknesses and imagination. This principalship provides me the chance to work collaboratively with the teachers on a daily basis, while remaining connected to the young students as they develop the Mind, Body and Soul. We are truly blessed to spend our days assisting young people to see and understand the role of faith in daily life and in the larger society. Most recently, our families came together to help us shine up our building and grounds for our First Annual Family Clean-Up Day. It was amazing to witness our call to Love and Serve.

As we are moving closer to the new school year, are you looking for something more for your children's education? MBS has a major scholarship opportunity for new families joining our school community that can pay a large portion of tuition costs through graduation. The Cornerstone Educational Scholarship has been created by the owners of Mountaire Farms to encourage families in our area and their employees to consider a Christian education. Please call or email Mrs. Evans, our admissions director, for more information at 410-208-1600 or aevans@mbscs.org. There are limited spaces in most classes, so reach out as soon as possible.

Join us at Jolly Roger Amusement Parks on Friday, September 3rd!! We only have 100 wristbands for sale, and they are going fast. Wristbands are $35 per person, and includes Splash Mountain Waterpark, amusement rides at 2 locations and one free round of mini golf. Contact Mrs. Gunther, our office manager, at 410-208-1600 for details on how you can be part of this fun filled day!
