Santa Francesca Saverio Cabrini (n. Sant' Angelo Lodigiano, 15 de julio de 1850 – m. Chicago, 22 de diciembre de 1917) fue una monja italiana, la primera ciudadana estadounidense en ser canonizada.En vida fue conocida como Mother Frances Xavier Cabrini (en inglés), Francisca Javier Cabrini o Madre Cabrini (en español).Nació en Sant'Angelo Lodigiano, en Lombardía (Italia), y fue la menor de los trece hijos de Agostino Cabrini y Stella Oldini. Nacida prematuramente, su salud fue delicada durante sus 67 años de vida. Tomó los votos religiosos en 1877, convirtiéndose en la madre superiora del orfanato Casa de la Providencia en Codogno, donde ejercía la enseñanza.

En 1880 se cerró el orfanato y se convirtió en una de las siete miembros fundadores del Instituto de las Hermanas Misioneras del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Aunque su sueño era ser misionera en China, el papa León XIII la envió a Nueva York el 31 de marzo de 1889. Allí obtuvo el permiso del arzobispo Michael Corrigan para fundar un orfanato, el primero de las 67 instituciones que fundó en Nueva York, Chicago, Seattle, Nueva Orleáns, Denver, Los Ángeles, y en algunos países de Sudamérica y Europa.En 1909 se nacionalizó estadounidense.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini was born as Maria Francesca Cabrini on July 15, 1850 in Sant' Angelo Lodigiano, Lombardy, Italy. She was born two months premature and Frances would live most of her life in a fragile and delicate state of health. Frances became dedicated to living a life for religious work from a young age and received a convent education at a school ran by the Daughters of the Sacred Heart. When Frances was 18, she applied for admission to the religious congregation of the Daughters of the Sacred Heart, but was turned down because of her poor health. Instead, a priest asked her to teach at the House of Providence Orphanage in Italy. She taught at the girls' school for six years. In 1877, she became Mother Cabrini after she finally made her vows and took the religious habit, also adding Xavier to her name in honor of St. Francis Xavier.When the House of Providence Orphanage closed, her bishop asked her to found the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart . Frances composed the Rule and Constitution for the religious institute. In its first five years, the institute established seven homes and a free school and nursery. Frances wanted to continue her mission in China, but Pope Leo XIII urged her to go to the United States. a nation that was becoming flooded with Italian immigrants who needed her help. Archbishop Michael Corrigan found her housing with the convent of the Sisters of Charity. Frances then received permission to found an orphanage in what is now West Park, New York and now known as Saint Cabrini Home. Frances founded 67 institutions, including orphanages, schools, and hospitals. In 1909, Frances became a naturalized citizen of the United States. Eight years later, on December 22, 1917, Frances passed at the age of 67. Frances has two miracles attributed to her. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini was beatified on November 13, 1938, by Pope Pius XI and canonized by Pope Pius XII on July 7, 1946, making her the first United States citizen to be canonized.
