

PARISH COMMUNITIES OF ST. ROSE OF LIMA AND OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 26, 2021

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

But Moses answered him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets!" (Nm 11:29)

Psalm:

The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart. (Ps 19)

Second Reading:

Your wealth has rotted away, your clothes have become moth-eaten, your gold and silver have corroded, and that corrosion will be a testimony against you; it will devour your flesh like fire." (Jas 5:3)

Gospel:

"If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire." (Mk 9:43)

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me." - Mk 9:38-39

SACRAMENTAL LIFE

Baptism Please call the Parish Office to register for a Baptism and arrange a meeting with one of the priests. Families having a first child baptized will be asked to attend Baptismal Instructions at St. Rose Rectory. Baptisms are held at 12:30 pm at St. Rose on the first Sunday of the month and at Mt. Carmel on the third Sunday of the month. Note: Baptismal dates will be scheduled only after the necessary paperwork is completed.

Confirmation is administered yearly to 8th grade students in our CCD program and those students attending Parochial Schools. Children wishing to receive Confirmation must be enrolled and participating in the CCD program for two years before they are eligible to receive the sacrament.

Marriage To complete the necessary paperwork, couples are asked to contact the Parish Office at least one full year in advance of the proposed marriage date.

Reconciliation is celebrated at times listed on the cover or by appointment by calling the Parish Office.

Anointing of the Sick Whenever a family member has become seriously sick or is hospitalized, please contact the Parish Office to schedule an anointing.* Please note - Until further notice, due to the Covid-19 Pandemic, requests for the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick should be only in "imminent danger of death" and home communion visitations are suspended.

Monthly Visitations Homebound parishioners who wish to receive the Eucharist on a monthly basis are encouraged to contact the Parish Office to schedule a visit.

THÉRÈSE

A pampered child from a middle-class 19th century French family, Therese Martin journeys to Rome to beg Pope Leo XIII for permission to enter the Carmelite monastery at the unheard-of age of 15. Once admitted she experiences the joys and rigors of monastic life, and makes the surprising yet simple discovery that holiness can be achieved by small acts of love and compassion – a spiritual path she calls her "Little Way."

Greetings!

A few random thoughts to share about Sacraments: I am grateful to Mary Tomaine for taking on the responsibility of "Baptism and Wedding Coordinator" for SR/OLMC parishes. This is a new volunteer role. Mary has been preparing diligently to assume the role of accompanying families and engaged couples in the celebration of the joyful sacraments of Baptism and Holy Matrimony. Mary will meet with new parents in advance of the day of baptism to educate and form them in the rich theology of baptism. She will also be present at the baptism to set up for the ritual and represent our parish community's support for the family. In addition, Mary will work with engaged couples preparing for their wedding day. She will be a resource to answer questions in the months leading up to the wedding, facilitate the wedding rehearsal the day before the wedding, and continue to be supportive as the couple lives out their marriage covenant.

A random thought regarding end of life issues. Please know Fr. Arun and I stand ready to celebrate the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick whenever there is need, especially when end of life seems imminent. As the ritual prayers states: "As the gospels relate, the sick came to Jesus for healing; moreover, he loves us so much that he died for our sake. Through the apostle James, he has commanded us: "Are there any who are sick among you? Let them send for the priests of the Church, and let the priests pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith will save the sick persons, and the Lord will raise them up; and if they have committed any sins, their sins will be forgiven them."

In the event of death, our parish community offers prayerful support to those who grieve the loss of a loved one. The primary way to honor the dead is to arrange a funeral Mass for the peaceful repose of their souls. The Mass is the perfect prayer of the Church. I am grateful to Sr. Ann McLaughlin and Eileen Aguiar who, in addition to attending the funeral Mass, will also accompany grieving families at wake services at the funeral home and committal prayers at the cemetery. It should go without saying, that cremated remains of loved ones deserve the same dignity of burial as bodily remains. Lastly, it is pious custom for family and friends of the deceased to offer Masses for the dead. We must be diligent in prayer which benefits both the souls of the deceased and our souls!

Peace,
Fr. Walsh
