2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." - Jn 2:1-3

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

As a young man marries a virgin,
 your Builder shall marry you;
 and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you. (Is 62:5)

PSALM:

Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations. (Ps 96)

SECOND READING:

But one and the same Spirit produces all of these,
 distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.
 (1 Cor 12:11)

GOSPEL:

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him. (Jn 2:11)

REFLECT

FIRST READING

The prophet Isaiah used marriage imagery (bridge and groom) to describe the Lord's love for his people, Israel. What do you see as some implications of this marriage imagery?

SECOND READING

Paul taught the Corinthians that the individual gifts of the Holy Spirit are meant to benefit and unify the community of faith. How do you use your spiritual gifts within your faith community?

GOSPEL

Jesus turning water into wine at the wedding feast in Cana was one of the first public "signs" he performed revealing his divinity. It also showed Jesus' compassion, sparing the family shame at running short of wine. How do you imagine the family reacted to Jesus' intervention and rescue?

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME, FATHER ELLIS

For the past year and a half, Fr. Ellis has been studying canon law through Catholic University. When the coronavirus caused Catholic University to conduct classes remotely, Fr. Ellis moved into St. Mary's Rectory which afforded him a quiet place to complete his studies. During his time here he has made himself available to celebrate Masses in the parish.

Fr. Ellis recently completed his studies and has earned his licentiate in canon law. Effective January 10, Bishop Cote is assigning Fr. Ellis to the Diocesan Tribunal as Defender of the Bond and to St. Michael Parish as Parochial Vicar. Congratulations to Fr. Ellis on earning his degree and welcome to the parish!

WEEKDAY MASSES/CONFESSIONS

The weekday Mass schedule is as follows:

St. Mary's Monday—Friday (except Thurs.) 8:00 am

St. Michael's Monday—Saturday 7:00 am

Confessions will be heard on Saturdays 3:00 - 3:45 pm in St. Michael Church.

CHRISTMAS CHALLENGE

An anonymous donor has put forth a fundraising challenge for the parish. All donations or new pledges to the Capital Campaign for the new St. Michael Church received between Christmas and February 28, 2022, will be matched up to a grand total of $150,000. In a very short period of time the parish can raise upwards of $300,000! The proceeds will be applied to the mortgage on the new church.

We are grateful to this generous donor for this challenge. Challenges such as this has helped propel the rebuilding of St. Michael's forward. The total cost for the reconstruction of the church was $8,000,000. The balance on the mortgage is currently $800,000. With a successful Christmas Challenge, we can bring the balance to $500,000! We have been witnesses to truly miraculous things over these past 10 years!

VIRTUAL MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT

For Valentine's Day this year, give your spouse the gift of your time and re-energize your marriage by attending a virtual enrichment entitled The Joy of Love on Saturday, Feb. 12, 2022, from 10am to 2pm. Based on Chapter 4 of Pope Francis' Amoris Laetitia: the Joy of Love, the enrichment will feature four talks on Daily Love, Conjugal Love, Passionate Love and Transformation of Love. There is a $15 fee that covers workbooks for each couple. Registration and payment are due by Feb. 1st. To register, send your names, address, telephone number, email address and check made payable to the Annual Catholic Appeal to Mary-Jo McLaughlin, Catholic Family Services, 199 Broadway, Norwich, CT 06260 or call 860-848-2237, ext. 312, or email at mmclaughlin@norwichdiocese.net.

ALL ARE INVITED TO USE THE ST. MARY PRAYER TREE

All are invited to use the Prayer Tree in the rear of St. Mary Church in Our Lady of Fatima's room. The petitions are emailed weekly to a large group of parishioners who pray for the intentions.

A SENSE OF COMMUNITY

One of the best things about being in our new building (there are quite a few) is the ability to get together each morning as a whole school community. The large auditorium on the third floor gives us the space to get together each morning to greet each other, discuss the day, and more importantly, pray together. We begin with a morning hymn, hear a scripture reading, say prayers together and end with the Pledge of Allegiance and a patriotic song.

I know I have spoken of this before, but we had to take a little time off from our mornings because of the use of the auditorium for other events and because of COVID concerns. It was great to get back together this past week.

This morning meeting is important to us because it builds an amazing sense of community to come together as we do. The COVID pandemic has caused many concerns about isolation, particularly among school age children. While we have been in school for the past year and a half, this year is the first year we have been able to bring everyone together. Don't worry, the children are masked and we are able to spread out and maintain proper distances, but we still have the sense of being with each other as a school, as a community, as friends.

This, as well as being able to attend Mass and liturgies together, is what makes St. Michael School such a wonderful environment of faith and learning.

LIVE THE LITURGY SAINT OF THE WEEK

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

St. Sebastian | Feast Day Jan. 20

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

It Takes All Kinds

“If every flower wanted to be a rose,” wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, “spring would lose its loveliness.”

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of “varieties of tongues” might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, “Do whatever he tells you,” her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee.

Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

©LPI

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." —Jn 2:3-5
