4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

[He said to them], "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" - Lk 4:21-22

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

The word of the LORD came to me, saying:
 Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
 before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. (Jer 1:4-5)

PSALM:

I will sing of your salvation. (Ps 71)

SECOND READING:

So faith, hope, love remain, these three;
 but the greatest of these is love. (1 Cor 13:13)

GOSPEL:

And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place." (Lk 4:24)

REFLECT

FIRST READING

In his call to be a prophet, the Lord informs Jeremiah of both the human resistance and the divine providence that lies ahead for him. When have you felt God's presence in the midst of turmoil in your life?

SECOND READING

Paul eloquently defines the spiritual virtue of "love" for the Christians in Corinth. How well do you live by the standards of love as defined by Paul?

GOSPEL

The people of Nazareth were "filled with fury" at Jesus' words to them. How do you imagine Jesus reacted to being rejected by those in his hometown of Nazareth?

CHRISTMAS CHALLENGE

AS OF JANUARY 21ST, WE HAVE RAISED $63,000!

An anonymous donor has put forth a fundraising challenge for the parish. All donations or new pledges to the Capital Campaign for the new St. Michael Church received between Christmas and February 28, 2022, will be matched up to a grand total of $150,000. In a very short period of time the parish can raise upwards of $300,000! The proceeds will be applied to the mortgage on the new church.

We are grateful to this generous donor for this challenge. Challenges such as this has helped propel the rebuilding of St. Michael's forward. The total cost for the reconstruction of the church was $8,000,000. The balance on the mortgage is currently $800,000.

With a successful Christmas Challenge, we can bring the balance to $500,000! We have been witnesses to truly miraculous things over these past 10 years!

WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

Join us March 26, 2022 from 8:30 a.m. to noon for the Virtual Norwich Diocesan Women's Conference. Hear a special message from Bishop Cote, witness the naming of the 2022 Our Lady Queen of Hope Award recipient, and much more all from the comfort of your own home! The conference will last from 8:30 a.m. to noon. Our keynote speaker will be author, professor, and spiritual director Liz Kelly. Liz will present ideas from her latest book, "Love Like A Saint." Learn more about Liz at www.lizk.org. For more information, please contact The Office of Faith Events at 860-848-2237 or email manicholas@norwichdiocese.net.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Can you help us help new parents who are struggling? Requests for our services continue to be overwhelming and we are quickly running out of resources for our Pregnancy/Parenting program. We are in need of diapers especially sizes 5 & 6, wipes, baby bottles, and baby toiletries. If you are in a position to help, you can drop off your donation at our locations in Norwich, New London, and Willimantic, or call 860-889-8346 for more information. Thank you for your prayers and support. Our clients thank you as well! "I thank God for you all" —D. M.

BEING JOYFUL AT ST. MICHAEL SCHOOL

One important part of a well-rounded education is to include the arts: music and art. The arts have a positive impact on academic performance, as well as developing social skills and creativity. Music has also been found to develop students' language and reasoning skills.

At St. Michael School, we have always included both Art and Music in our curriculum. We have a school band which performs at least twice each year, with occasional public events such as this year's "Christmas in the Park." We also have violin and string lessons available to all of our students which can begin as young as Kindergarten.

And, of course, all of our students take Music class in school. This year we have a new Music teacher, Diana Blanda. Mrs. Blanda is working hard to teach the students music theory and Kodaly Hand Signs to equate with notes in order to learn to sight read music. The students learn the rhythm and beat of the music with the various shaker eggs and beat instruments, and learn to sing joyfully. It is a pleasure to hear them!

One of the recent lessons involved learning the song "Joyful, Joyful" in both its original and in the version in the film "Sister Act." During the course of this lesson, they were able to learn some important music vocabulary such as harmony and sampling, by performing these concepts. As you can see in the photo, the students really entered into the joy of the song! The focus on music carries over into our morning prayer meeting as the students are happy to sing our morning hymn each day.

LIVE THE LITURGY SAINT OF THE WEEK

Prophets possess an intimate knowledge of God and act on their experience of God. Prophetic messages usually challenge the status quo and draw us up and out of ourselves, focusing us on the bigger picture. We often think of ourselves and our own needs first. When we listen to someone speak, we judge the merit of the message by its degree of usefulness. If the message or vision contains no personal benefit or profit but a call to stretch and grow, we can become indignant. Prophets are usually the ones whose message challenges us and calls us to see things differently and love more perfectly and deeply. God is love. When listening to St. Paul speak about love we witness the unfolding of this type of unconditional, other centered, self-sacrificial perfect God. It is an invitation to life, freedom, and happiness that can be offered to us only by God. Jesus, who is God and Love incarnate, calls us to this richer expression of love. Are we ready to listen and be challenged and stretched?

St. Blaise | Feast Day February 3

You may be familiar with the annual “blessing of throats” that many parishes in the United States use to commemorate the beloved bishop and martyr. St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Due to religious persecution, he was forced to flee and hide in a cave in the back country in order to save his life.

History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise’s command, the child was able to cough up the bone and thus lived.

Today we remember the saint on his feast day by taking two candles, crossing them against the throat, and saying the following prayer: Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

One “Love is patient, love is kind ...” As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you’ve probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn’t just for newlyweds. It wasn’t written for married folks. It’s for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It’s for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I’m forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn’t there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it’s never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that’s an opportunity to “strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.”

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

GOSPEL MEDITATION

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a “Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador’s civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica).” As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life.

Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God’s message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one’s earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimalized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God’s love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town has been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.—Lk 4:28-30
