- Lk 19:38

REFLECT

FIRST READING

We hear in today's reading how the prophet Isaiah suffered for his commitment to his call and for his fidelity to the Lord. And yet, Isaiah never lost his faith in God. When has your faith been put to the test?

SECOND READING

Paul recites an early Christological hymn to the Philippians describing Jesus' human and divine nature. The hymn states that Jesus "did not regard equality with God something to be grasped." What do you think this assertion is teaching us about Jesus' dual nature?

GOSPEL

In his account of the passion narrative, we hear how Luke emphasizes the innocence of Jesus, noting both Pilate and Herod (Antipas) find Jesus innocent. Why do you think Luke highlights the verdict of Jesus as "not guilty" of any capital crime?

CHRISM MASS, APRIL 12, 2022

This year, Bishop Michael R. Cote, D.D., invites you to the Chrism Mass at the Cathedral of Saint Patrick in Norwich on Tuesday, April 12, 2022, at 10:30 am. The Chrism Mass is the Liturgy during which the sacred Chrism is consecrated and the Oil of the Sick and the Oil of the Catechumens are blessed. These oils are sanctified for use at the Cathedral and in all parishes in the Diocese of Norwich for Baptism, Confirmation, the Anointing of The Sick, and for the Ordination of Priests. Together, the three oils symbolize the sacramental life of the Church. Since the Chrism Mass is truly a Diocesan event ALL parishioners are invited.

Congratulations and may the Holy Spirit bless the Confirmandi who made their Confirmation at the Cathedral of St. Patrick on April 2nd!

CATHOLIC EDUCATION: BRINGING FAMILIES TO THE CHURCH

Pope Benedict XVI in his speech to Catholic educators at Catholic University in 2012 stated “First and foremost every Catholic educational institution is a place to encounter the living God who in Jesus Christ reveals his transforming love and truth.” Later in the same speech he goes on to say “The church’s primary mission of evangelization, in which educational institutions play a crucial role, is consonant with a nation’s fundamental aspiration to develop a society truly worthy of the human person’s dignity.” Evangelization, leading our students and families to know and love God, is ever in our minds at St. Michael School.

Over the years we have noticed that the school students quite often lead their families back to the Church. We have seen many families who have drifted away from the Church begin to attend Mass with their children more consistently, quite often at the initial request of the children. Students who have been baptized as babies, but never followed up with other sacraments, ask to receive their sacraments. Children who were baptized in other faiths make their profession of faith and receive their Catholic sacraments with their class.

And then there are the even more special occurrences, children who have never been baptized who ask to become members of the Catholic faith. In the past two years alone, nine students from the school have been baptized by Father Perkins and became members of our faith. These children were drawn to Jesus through their religion classes, through attendance at Mass and liturgies, and, through being members of the faith community that is St. Michael School.

At this time of the Liturgical year, as we are welcoming new members into our faith at Easter, we are also thankful for the children that we have welcomed, and will continue to welcome through St. Michael School. And we will continue our mission to form students who will be able to develop the society espoused by Pope Benedict.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, “To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it runs contrary to what others are saying. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, in order to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues.” Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved and unjust death are all played out in dramatic fashion today. Jesus spoke of God’s unconditional love, mercy, and forgiveness. Who doesn’t like hearing about love, especially God’s? Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering, and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God’s love. All of those things occurred because of the implications of actually believing in God’s love.

God’s love comes with an intimate and equal bond with love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to truly see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God’s kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy, and forgiveness. Sometimes, people want to keep God’s love to themselves and use it solely for their own benefit. When they only want to use God’s love to “God is a Father who forgives. His mercy is greater than our sin.”

—Mother Teresa

justify their own intentions and for their own projects, problems occur.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look very attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that the sin expounds. This is what happened on Calvary. When you begin actually doing what Jesus is saying and translate love into action, it inevitably will upset popular and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these serve to protect status, foster personal gain and success, and further divide those who have from those who do not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear, at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cower back in fear and join the throngs shouting, “Crucify him!” There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough “to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues.”

It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to then accept the consequences of doing so. ©LPI

As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen.
