Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and Our Lady of Loreto Parish
PRAYER FOR PARISH SPIRITUAL RENEWAL

Lord God, You love us with an everlasting love, and You choose us to share Your love with others.

We ask that You rekindle in our hearts a new spirit of faith, of prayer and of reconciliation. Inspire us to search out and find ways of bringing one another closer to You. We pray for all who form our parish community, that we remain faithful to Your teaching, that we remain steadfast in our prayer, both personal and communal, that together with You and the Holy Spirit, our parish may be renewed and transformed. All this we ask in the name of Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Please cut out and pray daily.

A PRAYER IN TIME OF PANDEMIC

O God, whose Only Begotten Son bore the weight of human suffering for our salvation, hear the prayers of your Church for our sick brothers and sisters and deliver us from this time of trial. Open our ears and our hearts to the voice of your Son: Be not afraid, for I am with you always. Bless all doctors and nurses, researchers and public servants; give us the wisdom to do what is right and the faith to endure this hour, that we might gather once again to praise your name in the heart of your Church, delivered from all distress and confident in your mercy. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNUAL MASS AND HOLY HOUR FOR LIFE

The annual Mass for Life will be held Thursday, January 28th at 6:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Cathedral, 15 Chatham Street, Worcester, followed by a Holy Hour for Life at 7:30 p.m. to remember the 48th anniversary of the Roe vs. Wade decision and pray for an end to abortion and the conversion of our nation. All are welcome!

PRO-LIFE VIGIL

A vigil will be held 9 a.m. Saturdays to pray for America and the unborn, across the street from Planned Parenthood, 475 Pleasant Street.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends,

As I write this, Joseph Biden, is about to be sworn in as our 46th President of the United States. Let us pray for him and the Congress as they prepare to lead our country in the years ahead. God bless America and keep us safe and secure!

February 3rd is the Feast of St. Blasé, the patron saint of throats. The blessing of throats, a sacramental, is usually done in commemoration of that feast. However, because of the covid-19 pandemic, we are not able to extend an individual blessing this year, but will offer a general blessing at all Lord's Day Masses the first weekend of February.

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday, February 17th. Again, because of covid-19, ashes will be imposed by the sprinkling of ashes on a person's head or by using a cotton swab and imposing ashes on a person's forehead. This is in keeping with a recent directive from the Vatican's Congregation for Divine Worship and Discipline of the Sacraments and our Diocesan Office for Worship and in the matter of keeping us all safe amidst this pandemic.

Also on Ash Wednesday, and every Ash Wednesday thereafter, we will be take up a collection for retired diocesan priests. Special envelopes are available for this collection in the vestibule of the church. This collection, unlike the Retired Religious Collection taken up recently in December that benefits members of both men and women religious congregations such as the Venerini Sisters, Sisters of Mercy, the Assumptionist Fathers and brothers and many others, will directly benefit the retired priests of our Diocese who have served our Diocese so faithfully. Over the last two fiscal years, the costs of priest retirement, including housing, health insurance and monthly stipends have ranged from $2.2 - 2.6 million leading to significant annual shortfalls. Your support of the Ash Wednesday collection will help us meet our obligation to those priests who have faithfully served us and our families through the decades.

We will be livestreaming the 10:30 AM Mass every Sunday using our parish Facebook page. I invite you to use this media format to participate virtually in the Mass.

Winter blessings!
Monsignor Pedone

ST. ROCH'S CHURCH—OXFORD

All are invited to join Fr. Roy, in solidarity with the March For Life in Washington on January 29, with a Life Chain on Main Street, noon to 1 pm. We will meet at the Parish Center at 11:45 am, and then stand along the street, holding signs, testifying to the value of all life. Peacefully and Prayerfully. If anyone needs a ride please contact Louise Faiola at 508-756-1150.

Thank you to all who made donations in memory or in honor of loved ones for Christmas flowers to decorate the church.

A complete list of names of whom flowers were donated in memory or in honor of is available in the vestibule of the church.

The Conversion of St. Paul

St. Paul, named Saul at his circumcision, was born at Tarsus, Cilicia, of Jewish parents who were descended from the tribe of Benjamin. He was a Roman citizen from birth.

To complete his schooling, St. Paul was sent to Jerusalem, was educated in the strict observance of the ancestral Law. Here he also acquired a good knowledge of exegesis and was trained in the practice of disputation.

As a convinced and zealous Pharisee, he returned to Tarsus before the public life of Christ opened in Palestine.

Some time after the death of Our Lord, St. Paul returned to Palestine. His profound conviction made his zeal develop to a religious fanaticism against the infant Church. He took part in the stoning of the first martyr, St. Stephen, and in the fierce persecution of the Christians that followed.

Entrusted with a formal mission from the high priest, he departed for Damascus to arrest the Christians there and bring them bound to Jerusalem.

As he was nearing Damascus, about noon, a light from heaven suddenly blazed round him. Jesus with His glorified body appeared to him and addressed him, turning him away from his apparently successful career.

An immediate transformation was wrought in the soul of St. Paul. He was suddenly converted to the Christian Faith. He was baptized, changed his name from Saul to Paul, and began travelling and preaching the Faith. He was martyred as an Apostle in Rome around 65 AD.

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME; SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD

Celebrate, study, share

The timing seemed right. In September 2019, on the 1,600th anniversary of scripture scholar Saint Jerome's death, Pope Francis launched a new observance on the church calendar. Today's "Sunday of the Word of God" is deliberately placed within the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. All who follow Jesus are invited to unite around the happy gift of our sacred story contained in the Bible's pages. On this occasion, we celebrate, study, and spread these good words we never possess merely for ourselves. Enthroned the Bible in your home—and heart.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 3:1-5, 10; 1 Corinthians 7:29-31; Mark 1:14-20 (68). "The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the gospel."

FEAST OF THE CONVERSION OF SAINT PAUL, APOSTLE

Turn things around

It is arguably the biggest about-face in history: Paul goes from passionately persecuting Christians to converting to Christianity and becoming one of its most important champions. And it's a hard-to-beat conversion story: falling off a horse and encountering the risen Lord. But it's a story that happens in the hearts of Christians all the time: Life knocks you down while going the wrong way, and you're not ready, willing, or able to see the truth—and then somehow Jesus changes everything. By the grace of God, it happens to you again and again. Paul is proof that it's never too late, that you've never made too many mistakes, that you're never too far gone to keep turning yourself around.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 22:3-16 or 9:1-22; Mark 16:15-18 (519). "Repent, and believe in the gospel."

Tuesday, Jan 26, 2021

MEMORIAL OF TIMOTHY AND TITUS, BISHOPS

Seek good companions for the journey

We honor Timothy and Titus one day after the conversion of Saint Paul. For Paul, once converted, wasted no time in spreading the gospel and relied on many to help with his missionary work. Few of his companions were as key—or as beloved—as Timothy and Titus. Paul gave them the toughest assignments, and his letters to them are the only ones addressed to fellow missionaries that are included in the Bible. In those epistles, Paul refers to them as "my dear child" and "my true child in our common faith"—reminders that all become brothers and sisters through Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Timothy 1:1-8 OR Titus 1:1-5; Mark 3:31-35 (520; Gospel 318). "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Never forget

On this day in 2005, the 60th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz concentration camp, the United Nations established International Holocaust Remembrance Day. With firm resolve to educate future generations about the horrors of the Holocaust, this annual event is a clarion call never to forget the Nazi atrocities that claimed the lives of 6 million Jews and millions more others. U.N. Secretary General Antonio Guterres warns that it would be a "dangerous error to think of the Holocaust as simply the result of the insanity of a group of criminal Nazis." It happened because of the "millennia of hatred, scapegoating, and discrimination targeting the Jews." Pray today for grace to choose love rather than hate, to choose inclusion rather than discrimination.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 10:11-18; Psalm 110; Mark 4:1-20 (319). "Sit at my right hand till I make your enemies your footstool."

Thursday, Jan 28, 2021

MEMORIAL OF THOMAS AQUINAS, PRIEST, RELIGIOUS, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Let your light shine

How apt that the gospel on today's memorial of Saint Thomas Aquinas encourages us to let our light shine. This saint's light was his powerful intellect, and it still shines brightly today. His theological writings, particularly Summa Theologiae, continue to have tremendous impact on the church. One of his lasting insights is that faith and reason both come from God, and Christian doctrine is not at odds with rational thought. In honor of this doctor of the church with his relentlessly probing mind, take time to sharpen your own understanding of a faith-related issue.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 10:19-25; Mark 4:21-25 (320). "Is a lamp brought in to be placed under a bushel basket . . . and not to be placed on a lampstand?"

Friday, Jan 29, 2021

Make an offer

"Offer it up" is a phrase that seems baked into our Catholic tradition. Often it comes out at times when we are at a loss from the complexities and pain of suffering, which can leave us hopeless, scared, and lonely. After months of social distancing, mourning deaths, job and school closures, and holidays spent alone, we are all in a kind of personal and corporate space of suffering. We are invited to truly offer, that is, to give ourselves into the care of others and into the loving embrace of Jesus the Christ who also has known suffering intimately. What do you need to offer up and how can you lovingly embrace others' offerings of themselves?

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 10:32-39; Mark 4:26-34 (321). "We are not among those who draw back and perish, but among those who have faith and will possess life."

Saturday, Jan 30, 2021

All that I have is yours

Inheritance is a big deal in the Bible. Not so much legal inheritance, though that is mentioned, but theological inheritance, the gifts God bestows on the community of faith—the people of Israel—and later, in the New Testament, to the followers of Christ. We all share in that inheritance, that "holy ground" promised so long ago to Abraham and his descendants. How will you put your inheritance to use? Will you pass it on to others, or will it end with you? How you invest your time, talent, and treasure will determine the answer to that question.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19; Mark 4:35-41 (322). "By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance."
