of abuse, please contact the local civil authorities
immediately.

All church staff and volunteers must complete a
CORI form and complete a Safe Environment
Training session. For more information please contact our Safe Environment Coordinator Pat
Solitro at 508-753-5001.

A PRAYER IN TIME OF PANDEMIC

O God, whose Only Begotten Son bore the weight of human suffering for our salvation, hear the prayers of your Church for our sick brothers and sisters and deliver us from this time of trial. Open our ears and our hearts to the voice of your Son: Be not afraid, for I am with you always. Bless all doctors and nurses, researchers and public servants; give us the wisdom to do what is right and the faith to endure this hour, that we might gather once again to praise your name in the heart of your Church, delivered from all distress and confident in your mercy. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Have you checked out our parish website lately? There is a lot of information posted about the goings on in our parish, including Mass times, parish blog, contact information, parish bulletin, on line giving opportunities, and much more.

Do check it out. Go to: mtcarmel.ws and explore the site.

We are just impatient.

PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Come, Holy Spirit, quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my family, friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass. Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from worship. Open my mouth in prayer and song. Open my ears to hear God’s word. Open my eyes to the mystery of the Eucharist. Open my heart to receive Jesus with love. May I go forth strengthened to take the Mass into my life this week.

FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK

Dear Friends,

Last week a very dear friend of mine passed away suddenly. Father Dennis O’Brien and I have known each other for more than fifty years. We attended seminary together. He was a holy priest, a superb preacher and possessed a true priestly heart. He was full of fun and laughter and never took himself too seriously, except for priesthood. He loved being a priest! His unexpected death reminded me of the passage from Matthew’s Gospel: “Two men will be out in the field; one will be taken and one will be left. Two women will be grinding meal; one will be taken and one will be left. Stay awake therefore! You cannot know the day your Lord is coming.” (Matthew 24:40-42).

Death does not respect age, health, personal or financial status. Satan tries to trick us into thinking we will always have more time to turn to God and away from sin. He lulls us into complacency. The only day we have is today. Yesterday is the past and the future is merely a figment of our imagination. We must always be ready to face God for judgment because we do not know when He will tap us on the shoulder to take us out of this world. We are only a heartbeat away from eternity. Tomorrow is guaranteed to no one.

At the moment of death, each one of us will face particular judgment, as the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: (CCC 1022): “Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven—through a purification or immediately—or immediate and everlasting damnation.

We must also acknowledge as Catholics that there will be what the Church refers to as the final judgment at the end of time, in which all will be judged corporately and publicly. According to Sacred Scripture this is clearly separate and distinct from the particular judgment, as CCC 1038 declares.

I hear people say so often that when people die they automatically go to heaven. This is utterly false. Heaven is guaranteed to no one. We don’t earn it and no one should think they deserve it. It is a gift. Jesus’ death and resurrection opened the gates of heaven that were closed after the sin of Adam and Eve. That is why we celebrate a funeral Mass for every Catholic, which is their right. At the funeral Mass we pray for the deceased person that God will show His mercy and grant that person eternal life with Him. We are encouraged to pray for our deceased loved ones and to offer Masses for them who may be in the state of purgatory. Only when we are cleansed from our sins and their effects can we enter what we call the Beatific Vision and see God face to face.

God wants us to live every day of our lives fully and vibrantly always maintaining a strong, personal relationship with him but with the constant view that we are wayfarers in this world and merely passing through. We must always be ready to meet God on the day He calls us to Himself and we do not know that day or that hour. Let us always be prepared!
 Monsignor Pedone

BEACH TRIPS

July 27 - Gloucester Beach

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

62 million babies have been killed in the United States since the passage of the Roe Act in 1973 legalizing abortion. Abortion, euthanasia and the death penalty put us in a "culture of death". MA is one of the most pro-death states in the nation. The Roe Act of MA allows the killing of babies that survive a botched abortion, and lowering the age to 16 for minors to get an abortion without parental knowledge and/or consent. This is abhorrent!

62 million innocent, vulnerable babies were slaughtered in the womb. These are God's children.

What can we do?

This fall, there will be a signature campaign through-out the state to stop these two aspects of the MA Roe Act. This campaign is sponsored by The MA Renewal Coalition,, The MA Family Institute, The MA Coalition for Life, The MA Alliance to Stop Taxpayer Funding of Abortion and pro-life members of the state legislature. It's time to say "enough". Evil will exist as long a good people do nothing! We need volunteers. God tells us to protect the innocent, the sick, the marginalized, the elderly. You will work with others, never alone.

Please help to do God's work.

For more information please contact the Respect Life Ministry of the parish.

July 26, 2021 : Today we celebrate the Memorial of St. Anne and St. Joachim—the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the grandparents of Jesus. The couple's faith and perseverance brought them through the sorrow of childlessness, to the joy of conceiving and raising the immaculate and sinless woman who would give birth to Christ. It was Saints Anne and Joachim who cultivated in the young Mary a love of God, preparing her for her role in the story of divine redemption.

Loaves and Fishes: This story, which appears only in Mark and Matthew, is also known as the miracle of the seven loaves and fish, as the Gospel of Matthew refers to seven loaves and a few small fish used by Jesus to feed a multitude. According to the Gospels, a large crowd had gathered and was following Jesus.

A Simple Morning Prayer

You have given me another day, O God, untouched and new. I ask you to renew me, too!

Forgive the many errors that I made yesterday and let me try again, dear God, to walk a little closer to you.

But, father, I am well aware I can't make it on my own. Take my hand and hold it tight for I can't walk alone.

Amen

July 29, 2020: Memorial of Martha

Let Martha be an inspiration.

Martha of Bethany (Aramaic: מרת Martâ) is a biblical figure described in the Gospels of Luke and John. She is remembered as the one who was fretting when Jesus came to dinner, in sharp contrast to her sister Mary, who sat at the Lord’s feet. Jesus tells Martha that Mary has chosen the “better part”. Martha clearly takes Jesus’ correction to heart. When he comes to Bethany again, this time because her brother Lazarus has died, Martha is the active one, the doer. She runs out to greet Jesus while Mary stays at home. But now Martha’s anxiety has given way to faith: “I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.”

What does it mean to be a Martha?

As noun, “a Martha” is a woman who keeps herself very busy with domestic affairs. 'She sometimes talks with the Marthas in the house. ' Being “a real Martha” implies that she has no time for what really matters because she is so busy fussing over frivolities.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Celebrate mom-and-pop operations

However few dollars there are, parents make them stretch until payday. However uncertain the way ahead, they shoulder the decision-making for their brood. However dark the night and scary the storm, parents hug their little ones through it. Today our nation celebrates Parents' Day, honoring the grownups who make children's lives safer, happier, and healthier. While they may not multiply loaves and fishes quite like Jesus, parents do perform minor miracles of sufficiency every day across this country. They take imperfect human love and weave a blanket of protection and possibility for their tribe. Support your local parents!

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 4:42-44; Ephesians 4:1-6; John 6:1-15 (110). "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted."

Monday, Jul 26, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOACHIM AND ANNE, PARENTS OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Family ties

Jesus' ancestry through Joseph is extensively traced in two of the gospels, but there's nothing there about his maternal line. The names of his grandparents—Mary's parents—aren't mentioned in scripture, but tradition has dubbed them Joachim and Anne. Whatever their names were, they had to have been remarkable people to have raised the mother of God. The courage and faith they passed on to Mary is a precious gift all parents can pass to their children. Treasure your own intergenerational bonds.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 32:15-24, 30-34; Matthew 13:31-35 (401). "The birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches."

Tuesday, Jul 27, 2021

Parables of trying and trust

Jesus favored parables—short allegories featuring people, places, and things familiar to ordinary listeners—to get his point across. Typically, they were about the kingdom of God, standing in stark contrast to the current world. "The kingdom of God, even if it requires our cooperation, is firstly a gift of the Lord," Pope Benedict XVI reminded pilgrims in 2012. Not that humans shouldn't lift a finger. Such parables, Benedict said, echo a famous saying from Ignatius of Loyola: "Act as if everything depended on you; trust as if everything depended on God." Where do you need to trust God more and where, perhaps, do you need to act?

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 33:7-11; 34:5b-9, 28; Matthew 13:36-43 (402). "Whoever has ears ought to hear."

Wednesday, Jul 28, 2021

Stay the course

Father Stanley Rother is one step away from canonization and being named publicly as a saint of the Catholic Church. Born in Oklahoma in 1935, ordained a priest in 1963, missioned to Guatemala in 1968, Rother immersed himself among the Tz'ujujil Mayan communities. When civil war broke out and his name appeared on a death list, after briefly departing he decided to return, saying, the "shepherd cannot run." On July 28, 1981, three men entered the rectory where he lived and killed him. Now recognized as a martyr for the faith, Rother was beatified by the Vatican in 2016. As we await the canonization of this first American martyr, pray that you, too, might be a sign of Christ's love to the people close to you, even when it comes at a cost.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 34:29-35; Matthew 13:44-46 (403). "When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it."

Thursday, Jul 29, 2021

MEMORIAL OF MARTHA, MARY, AND LAZARUS

Lesson learned

Any memorial honoring Saint Martha, along with her sister and brother, includes a well-deserved nod to those who quietly serve. But Martha's role in salvation history goes well beyond her hospitality to Jesus and lies in the example of her maturing faith. When Jesus admonished her about her anxiety, Martha listened. She grew in wisdom and understanding, so much so that when her brother Lazarus dies, she runs to meet Jesus and declares: "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Martha provides an inspiration to all of us to persevere in knowing God, loving Christ, and serving others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 40:16-21, 34-38 (404); John 11:19-27 or Luke 10:38-42 (607). "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing."

Open the door to your own ministry

Do you ever think about your daily activities as a ministry? No activity is outside the realm of a possible ministry. Take Blessed Solanus Casey, for example. One of Solanus' jobs was as a porter, that is, a door keeper. Open/shut case, right? Not at all! Solanus understood his simple job as being a true ministry, service of God through service of others. He did not merely answer the door; he opened his heart to everyone who entered. In doing so, Solanus was able to reflect God's love and healing to others in a way that truly made a difference. How do you open your heart to others during your daily routine?

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 23:1, 4-11, 15-16, 27, 34b-37; Matthew 13:54-58 (405). "Is he not the carpenter's son?"

MEMORIAL OF IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA, PRIEST

Book your biblical excursion

Never underestimate the power of a book to change lives or history. Ignatius of Loyola was a young Spanish soldier from a prominent military family. While recovering from a serious war injury, he came upon Vita Christi, a spiritual biography of the life of Christ by 14th-century German Catholic monk Ludolph of Saxony. In the book he found the meditative technique of immersing oneself in a biblical scene from the life of Jesus. The book changed Ignatius' life, and the technique became foundational to the development of Ignatian spirituality and the famed Spiritual Exercises. Try the technique: Open a gospel, read a story, and place yourself at the scene. Really be there. See what happens.

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 25:1, 8-17; Matthew 14:1-12 (406). "This fiftieth year you shall make sacred by proclaiming liberty in the land for all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you."
