The Catholic Community of Saint Cecilia

www.stceciliachurch.com

*"We exist not for ourselves,
but for the mission of Jesus.
And so we GATHER
as a community of disciples,
WORSHIP God,
TEACH God's Word,
and SERVE those in need."
Mission Statement 2004*

Our community was formed in Kitty Ryan's parlor where we gathered around a small table for Eucharist. Whenever a priest was able to come to Warrensburg. In 1874, we officially became "St. Cecilia's", founded by Bishop McNierney and Father James A. Kelly. To this day, we continue to gather around the table, tell the stories, break bread, and share the cup in memory of Jesus Christ. We thank all who have gone before us for passing their faith to us. We pray for the grace to live faithfully and continue to share our faith with others.
