July 18, 2021

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Behold, I stand at the door and knock, says the Lord.
If anyone hears my voice and opens the door to me,
I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me.
Revelation 3:20

The Steward's Work Is Never Done

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock! When you hear these strong words from the Old Testament, you're probably thinking, thank goodness I don't have any sheep — dodged that bullet. Nobody misled here! No flock scattered on my watch! However, we are all shepherds of a kind, called to tend our own sheep: our families, our parishes, our communities.

But it's exhausting. Don't we all sometimes just want to take a break from being a steward? The excuses are so familiar: we're tired, we've done enough, we've given all we can, what more does the parish (or my spouse, or my kids, or my boss, or my friends, or my community) want? We give ourselves permission to be selfish. So, what if the flock scatters just a little?

Jesus gets that. We can just imagine him weary with exhaustion, can't we? We see him on his boat, attempting to sneak away for a quick break — maybe just a chance to eat a bite of food in peace. He is God, but he was still human, after all. Even the most dedicated shepherds need to sleep. But people couldn't leave him alone. They were hungry for him. They needed what he could offer, and they needed it now.

As tough as it is, that's the example we are tasked with imitating. Everyday Stewardship demands accountability. It demands our showing up even when we are tired. It demands that we look at our lives, our time, our energies, our talents, our hearts, our bank accounts and think: where do I still have more to give?

Online giving with We Share. If you have already signed up for online giving, we thank you! If not, we ask that you please give it some consideration. It's easy to set up on the Home page of our website www.stmarycambridgemd.org. It's safe and convenient and puts you in control of setting up regular giving with an amount that you are comfortable with and at a time that is convenient for you. This in turn supports your Parish whether or not you attend Mass on the weekend or you are away for awhile.

Weekly Eblast - each week the Parish office sends out an Eblast to whoever is on our email list. Many times these Eblast's contain time sensitive information that did not make it into the Bulletin. It is also another way to stay connected to each other. If you would like to receive the Eblast, please contact the Parish office by phone or email and ask to be added to the list.

We are no longer utilizing ushers with collection baskets during the Offertory. Instead, you can place your offertory envelopes in the large collection basket on the table in the back of the church.

We encourage you to share your good news with us! Maybe your bad news too, so we can pray for you! Got a promotion? Special Anniversary? Your grandchild won the spelling bee? Let us know so we can all celebrate. Email or call the Parish Office with any information you want to share.
