LITURGY COMMITTEE

WHAT DOES IT DO?

The mission of the Liturgy Committee is to coordinate, organize and prepare for the liturgy each week utilizing the special gifts and talents of parishioners. In our Parish, the Liturgy Committee is responsible for:

Music: singing and music that brings the liturgy to life. Both cantors and musicians are needed at this time.

Altar Guild: Care for the Altar linens and vestments. Restock candles and inform the office when a reorder is needed. We need a couple people willing to donate their time, training will be provided.

Altar Servers: assists in the preparation and celebration of Mass and other services. Training is provided. New servers always welcome.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion: assists with the distribution of Holy Communion weekend and/or weekday Mass. Can also provide Holy Communion to the homebound, or those admitted to hospice, the hospital, or assisted living centers. New Eucharistic Minister's are always welcome. Training is Required.

Lectors: proclaim the Scripture readings at Mass with clarity and reverence. Should feel comfortable reading in front of people and have a clear speaking voice. Training is available and new Lector's are always welcome.

Ushers: Welcome people to church, secure the collection after Mass and hand out bulletins at the end. Training is provided and new Ushers are needed.

Mark Windmiller and Jackie Foxwell are the chairpersons for the Liturgy Committee. Mark's email is windmillermark@gmail.com and Jackie's email is jackiefoxwell724@gmail.com. Please contact them directly with your interest or if you have any questions.
