OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Community of faith united in our Love for Jesus Christ.
We strive to maintain and carry the message of hope and salvation to others through our works of evangelization and examples of sacramental life.

At the time when we sent in this Bulletin for printing the exact plan for our weekend masses was not finalized, so there might have been changes after that. For full information on next weeks Masses please look at our parish website or Facebook or call the office. Full information will also be shared to the parish email list or possible mailings sent.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY! - SUNDAY JUNE 21ST

Today we honor all our Dads who gave us life and guided us along the way. These pictures may reflect the experience of Dads who recall the first time they gazed into your eyes as a baby. In that moment, Dad, you were looking into the eyes of God, who was reassuring you that He would guide you in your vocation as a father, and help you in those moments when you did not know what to do or have an answer to that question your child raised.

God is faithful, and in your vocation as a father he gave you gifts to guide your family and be God's own instrument of Love and Peace for them. But he also gave St. Joseph as a model and guide, who himself was head of the Holy Family, and there were many difficult moments he faced with them. May he pray for you and your family on this day. Amen. God bless you, Dad! We love you!

APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION
GAUDETE ET EXULTATE OF THE HOLY FATHER
FRANCIS
 ON THE CALL TO HOLINESS
 IN TODAY'S WORLD

BOLDNESS AND PASSION

129. Holiness is also parrhesia: it is boldness, an impulse to evangelize and to leave a mark in this world. To allow us to do this, Jesus himself comes and tells us once more, serenely yet firmly: “Do not be afraid” (Mk 6:50). “I am with you always, to the end of the world” (Mt 28:20). These words enable us to go forth and serve with the same courage that the Holy Spirit stirred up in the Apostles, impelling them to proclaim Jesus Christ. Boldness, enthusiasm, the freedom to speak out, apostolic fervour, all these are included in the word parrhesia. The Bible also uses this word to describe the freedom of a life open to God and to others (cf. Acts 4:29, 9:28, 28:31; 2 Cor 3:12; Eph 3:12; Heb 3:6, 10:19). 130. I blessed Paul VI, in referring to obstacles to evangelization, spoke of a lack of fervour (parrhesia) that is “all the more serious because it comes from within”. [103] How often we are tempted to keep close to the shore! Yet the Lord calls us to put out into the deep and let down our nets (cf. Lk 5:4). He bids us spend our lives in his service. Clinging to him, we are inspired to put all our charisms at the service of others. May we always feel compelled by his love (2 Cor 5:14) and say with Saint Paul: “Woe to me if I do not preach the Gospel” (1 Cor 9:16). 131. Look at Jesus. His deep compassion reached out to others. It did not make him hesitant, timid or self-conscious, as often happens with us. Quite the opposite. His compassion made him go out actively to preach and to send others on a mission of healing and liberation. Let us acknowledge our weakness, but allow Jesus to lay hold of it and send us too on mission. We are weak, yet we hold a treasure that can enlarge us and make those who receive it better and happier. Boldness and apostolic courage are an essential part of mission. 32. Parrhesia is a seal of the Spirit; it testifies to the authenticity of our preaching. It is a joyful assurance that leads us to glory in the Gospel we proclaim. It is an unshakeable trust in the faithful Witness who gives us the certainty that nothing can “separate us from the love of God” (Rom 8:39). 133. We need the Spirit’s prompting, lest we be paralyzed by fear and excessive caution, lest we grow used to keeping within safe bounds. Let us remember that closed spaces grow musty and unhealthy. When the Apostles were tempted to let themselves be crippled by danger and threats, they joined in prayer to implore parrhesia: “And now, Lord, look upon their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness” (Acts 4:29). As a result, “when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God with boldness” (Acts 4:31). 134. Like the prophet Jonah, we are constantly tempted to flee to a safe haven. It can have many names: individualism, spiritualism, living in a little world, addiction, intransigence, the rejection of new ideas and approaches, dogmatism, nostalgia, pessimism, hiding behind rules and regulations. We can resist leaving behind a familiar and easy way of doing things. Yet the challenges involved can be like the storm, the whale, the worm that dried the gourd plant, or the wind and sun that burned Jonah’s head. For us, as for him, they can serve to bring us back to the God of tenderness, who invites us to set out ever anew on our journey. (to be cont’d...

PLEASE REMEMBER TO GIVE!

I continue to pray for all those affected by the CoronaVirus, and for all those suffering hardship because of this tragic situation. I am grateful to all those who have reached out to me and our ministerial staff to offer you own prayers and encouragement.

First and foremost, I ask you to take care of yourself and your family. You know what you must do to provide for their needs. We will help you in any way we can.

If you are able, please maintain your giving to SS. ISIDORE AND MARIA TORRIBIA PARISH to help us make up for the loss of our Sunday offertory. You mail it to the parish office. Our Office Mailing Address is:

Ss. Isidore and Maria Torribia Parish
 51 Maple Street, Addison NY, 14801.

Please remember that you can also donate by Credit Card at our Parish Website simtparish.org.

Our parish and ministers depend on your support. It is critical to our mission and operation.

Thank you. I am so grateful for you. Your faithfulness is more than you can imagine! Please know we are praying for each of you during this unprecedented crisis. Please know that you can contact the parish office if you have an emergency need. We are still the Church, even when we cannot come together in person for Mass.

Let us pray that the day will come soon when we can share the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass together as a Parish Family! Let us take heart and find hope in the Lord’s Resurrection in the coming Easter.

God bless you and God bless our community!

May Holy Mary and all the saints intercede for us!

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
 I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love You above all things,
 and I desire to receive You into my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

SAINT JOHN FISHER, BISHOP June 22

St. John Fisher lived during the reign of King Henry VIII of England. St. John refused to accept the reign of King Henry since the King did not accept the doctrine of papal supremacy. St. John Fisher was martyred in 1535 and shares his feastday with another saint and martyr, SAINT THOMAS MORE, June 22. St. Thomas was a lawyer and chancellor in the court of King Henry VIII, but refused to take an oath of allegiance to the King for the King’s anti-Catholic stances, and the King condemned St. Thomas for treason and had him put to death, so St. Thomas died a martyr in 1535.

Holy Martyrs of God, pray for us!
