COME TO ME, CLING TO ME!

JESUS TELLS US THAT IN THESE DAYS OF ISOLATION AND PANDEMIC, DO NOT LOSE HEART. CLING TO

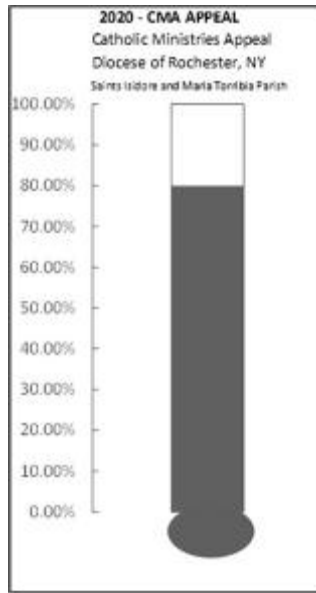

HIM AND KNOW THAT HIS ARMS ARE REACHING OUT TO EMBRACE IN YOUR PAIN, YOUR ANXIETY AND FEAR.

HE KNOWS WHAT IT IS LIKE TO BE IN YOUR SKIN. TRUST HIM IN YOUR TIME OF NEED TO BE YOUR SHEPHERD, YOUR REFUGE AND YOUR HOPE, EVEN WHEN ALL OTHERS FAIL.

EVEN IF YOU FEEL FORSAKEN, HE IS ALWAYS BY YOUR SIDE TO GUIDE AND PROTECT YOU!

- Father Pat

FINAL RESULTS OF CMA

Paid to date $ 22,135.98

The Parish will have to put in $ 5,550.02, this is a good result considering the Covid 19 situation

BACK TO SCHOOL???

Father Pat will be away this week until Friday on his annual Study Week. It is a time to focus on some Scripture and Theology. Although the Institute he normally attends with other Clergy is closed because of the Pandemic, he will be with a few other priests to do a study of some material they have on hand. The photo above does not exactly reflect the face or disposition Father Pat may be reflecting, not the amount of books he may have to be reading!! He asks that you keep him in prayer this week, as he will be praying for all of you. Let us especially pray for all our graduates of the Class of 2020, for their teachers and school staff, for their parents and families, and for all who brought them to this time of their lives. May God guide their futures and may they always feel they can turn to God for help, especially in times of trouble or worry, for God to guide and strengthen them. May they always feel they can find a home and family here in the parish.

THANKS BE TO GOD

ON THE CALL TO HOLINESS
IN TODAY'S WORLD

BOLDNESS AND PASSION

135. God is eternal newness. He impels us constantly to set out anew, to pass beyond what is familiar, to the fringes and beyond. He takes us to where humanity is most wounded, where men and women, beneath the appearance of a shallow conformity, continue to seek an answer to the question of life's meaning. God is not afraid! He is fearless! He is always greater than our plans and schemes. Unafraid of the fringes, he himself became a fringe (cf. Phil 2:6-8; Jn 1:14). So if we dare to go to the fringes, we will find him there; indeed, he is already there. Jesus is already there, in the hearts of our brothers and sisters, in their wounded flesh, in their troubles and in their profound desolation. He is already there.

136. True enough, we need to open the door of our hearts to Jesus, who stands and knocks (cf. Rev 3:20). Sometimes I wonder, though, if perhaps Jesus is already inside us and knocking on the door for us to let him escape from our stale self-centredness. In the Gospel, we see how Jesus "went through the cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God" (Lk 8:1). After the resurrection, when the disciples went forth in all directions, the Lord accompanied them (cf. Mk 16:20). This is what happens as the result of true encounter.

137. Complacency is seductive; it tells us that there is no point in trying to change things, that there is nothing we can do, because this is the way things have always been and yet we always manage to survive. By force of habit we no longer stand up to evil. We "let things be", or as others have decided they ought to be. Yet let us allow the Lord to rouse us from our torpor, to free us from our inertia. Let us rethink our usual way of doing things; let us open our eyes and ears, and above all our hearts, so as not to be complacent about things as they are, but unsettled by the living and effective word of the risen Lord.

138. We are inspired to act by the example of all those priests, religious, and laity who devote themselves to proclamation and to serving others with great fidelity, often at the risk of their lives and certainly at the cost of their comfort. Their testimony reminds us that, more than bureaucrats and functionaries, the Church needs passionate missionaries, enthusiastic about sharing true life. The saints surprise us, they confound us, because by their lives they urge us to abandon a dull and dreary mediocrity.

139. Let us ask the Lord for the grace not to hesitate when the Spirit calls us to take a step forward. Let us ask for the apostolic courage to share the Gospel with others and to stop trying to make our Christian life a museum of memories.

In every situation, may the Holy Spirit cause us to contemplate history in the light of the risen Jesus. In this way, the Church will not stand still, but constantly welcome the Lord's surprises.

PLEASE REMEMBER TO GIVE!

I continue to pray for all those affected by the CoronaVirus, and for all those suffering hardship because of this tragic situation. I am grateful to all those who have reached out to me and our ministerial staff to offer you own prayers and encouragement.

First and foremost, I ask you to take care of yourself and your family. You know what you must do to provide for their needs. We will help you in any way we can.

If you are able, please maintain your giving to SS. ISIDORE AND MARIA TORRIBIA PARISH to help us make up for the loss of our Sunday offertory. You mail it to the parish office. Our Office Mailing Address is:

Ss. Isidore and Maria Torribia Parish
51 Maple Street, Addison NY, 14801.

Please remember that you can also donate by Credit Card at our Parish Website simtparish.org.

Our parish and ministers depend on your support. It is critical to our mission and operation.

Thank you. I am so grateful for you. Your faithfulness is more than you can imagine! Please know we are praying for each of you during this unprecedented crisis. Please know that you can contact the parish office if you have an emergency need.

Now that we begin to come together again for Masses as a Parish Family, let us pray for those unable to gather with us as yet due to health concerns. We continue to hold you in prayer.

God bless you all and God bless our community!

May Holy Mary and all the saints intercede for us!

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally,
come at least spiritually
into my heart.

I embrace You as if You
were already there

and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

CONGRATULATION, GRADUATES!

GOD BLESS YOU AND ALWAYS BE WITH YOU!!
