ON THE CALL TO HOLINESS
IN TODAY'S WORLD

JOY AND A SENSE OF HUMOUR

122. Far from being timid, morose, acerbic or melancholy, or putting on a dreary face, the saints are joyful and full of good humour. Though completely realistic, they radiate a positive and hopeful spirit. The Christian life is “joy in the Holy Spirit” (Rom 14:17), for “the necessary result of the love of charity is joy; since every lover rejoices at being united to the beloved... the effect of charity is joy”. [99] Having received the beautiful gift of God’s word, we embrace it “in much affliction, with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit” (1 Thess 1:6). If we allow the Lord to draw us out of our shell and change our lives, then we can do as Saint Paul tells us: “Rejoice in the Lord always; I say it again, rejoice!” (Phil 4:4). 123. The prophets proclaimed the times of Jesus, in which we now live, as a revelation of joy. “Shout and sing for joy!” (Is 12:6). “Get you up to a high mountain, O herald of good tidings to Zion; lift up your voice with strength, O herald of good tidings to Jerusalem!” (Is 40:9). “Break forth, O mountains, into singing! For the Lord has comforted his people, and he will have compassion on his afflicted” (Is 49:13). “Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he” (Zech 9:9). Nor should we forget Nehemiah’s exhortation: “Do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength!” (8:10). 124. Mary, recognizing the newness that Jesus brought, sang: “My spirit rejoices” (Lk 1:47), and Jesus himself “rejoiced in the Holy Spirit” (Lk 10:21). As he passed by, “all the people rejoiced” (Lk 13:17). After his resurrection, wherever the disciples went, there was “much joy” (Acts 8:8). Jesus assures us: “You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn into joy... I will see you again and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you” (Jn 16:20.22). “These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full” (Jn 15:11). 125. Hard times may come, when the cross casts its shadow, yet nothing can destroy the supernatural joy that “adapts and changes, but always endures, even as a flicker of light born of our personal certainty that, when everything is said and done, we are infinitely loved”. [100] That joy brings deep security, serene hope and a spiritual fulfilment that the world cannot understand or appreciate. 126. Christian joy is usually accompanied by a sense of humour. We see this clearly, for example, in Saint Thomas More, Saint Vincent de Paul and Saint Philip Neri. Ill humour is no sign of holiness. “Remove vexation from your mind” (Ecl 11:10). We receive so much from the Lord “for our enjoyment” (1 Tim 6:17), that sadness can be a sign of ingratitude. We can get so caught up in ourselves that we are unable to recognize God’s gifts. [101] 127. With the love of a father, God tells us: “My son, treat yourself well... Do not deprive yourself of a happy day” (Sir 14:11.14). He wants us to be positive, grateful and uncomplicated: “In the day of prosperity, be joyful... God created human beings straightforward, but they have devised many schemes” (Ecl 7:14.29). (to be continued...)

TIME TO WAKE UP!
TIME TO M-O-O-O-VE IT!!

Due to the recent reorganization we need help in these areas:

CASH COUNTERS: We have teams who count once a month and this is done for all three churches at St. Catherine’s on Monday mornings. Some teams begin 8:30am, others 9am, Call the office for more information, 607-359-2115.

USHERS & SANITIZERS: the Ushers are the people who open up church, greet you at church, hand out bulletins, invite you at Communion when to leave your pew and step out into the aisle, then the same at end of Mass. They also help oversee putting your money into the collection basket and getting it into the tamper proof bag.

SANITIZERS: stay after Mass to wipe down the pews sat in with spray and any other areas used. It takes about twenty minutes, depending on how many volunteer.

CALLING PARISHIONERS: Many of our parishioners do not have access to our Website, or can’t get out to Mass. So our only means of Communication is by phone. We need people to call them from home. We would provide you with a phone list and you call regularly to keep in touch and make them aware of events.

ALL OF YOU ABOVE WOULD BE ‘THE LORD’S INSTRUMENT OF PEACE’! PLEASE VOLUNTEER! CALL THE OFFICE FOR MORE INFORMATION AT 607- 359-2115

HERE’S A GOOD JOKE!!
(as told by a Good Dog!)

I overheard my dear Master telling this Cowjoke to his friend that he heard Fr. Pat tell at Mass. Fr. Pat heard this from Alyssa, a 7 yr. old who often gives him Cowjokes when she comes to Mass with her family. They stand and listening proudly as she shares the joke:

Ques: Where did the calf go that was hungry for some milk?
Ans: To the CALF-eteria!!!

I just started HOWLING with laughter when I heard this, and wagging my tail, it was so funny!! I wish I could meet this Alyssa so I could lick her face and lift my paw to shake her hand and thank her for such a good joke and giving me a happy face to wear!

You know, we all need to wear Happy Faces! It really can make a difference to someone when there is a person near with a smile or a Happy Face. It might remind that if they themselves are going through some sort of unhappiness, that it is going to be okay. I often hear my dear Master talk about this person named Jesus, who is a Good Shepherd, and my Master says that he walks through Dark Valleys and is always by our side to give us courage.

I think I would like to meet this Jesus. Maybe, like with Alyssa, I could lick his face and put my paw in His Hand. I wonder if He would take me for a walk.

I bet He would be nice to walk with.

Have you ever walked with Jesus?? He’s walking with You!
