Thank you and God bless you. Let us pray for one another in these trying times.

TIME TO WAKE UP!
TIME TO M-O-O-O-VE IT!!

Due to the recent reorganization we need help in these areas:

CASH COUNTERS: We have teams who count once a month and this is done for all three churches at St. Catherine's on Monday mornings. Some teams begin 8:30am, others 9am, Call the office for more information, 607-359-2115.
USHERS & SANITIZERS: the Ushers are the people who open up church, greet you at church, hand out bulletins, invite you at Communion when to leave your pew and step out into the aisle, then the same at end of Mass. They also help oversee putting your money into the collection basket and getting it into the tamper proof bag.
SANITIZERS: stay after Mass to wipe down the pews sat in with spray and any other areas used. It takes about twenty minutes, depending on how many volunteer.
CALLING PARISHIONERS: Many of our parishioners do not have access to our Website, or can't get out to Mass. So our only means of Communication is by phone. We need people to call them from home. We would provide you with a phone list and you call regularly to keep in touch and make them aware of events.

ALL OF YOU ABOVE WOULD BE 'THE LORD'S INSTRUMENT OF PEACE'! PLEASE VOLUNTEER! CALL THE OFFICE FOR MORE INFORMATION AT 607- 359-2115

MARRIED IN CHRIST

David Raymond Alleger
and Daniele Margaret Wilson
on October 10, 2020
at
St. Catherine of Siena Church
Addison, NY

May they have the joy of Your Presence, Lord, to assist them in their toil, and know that you are near, to comfort them in their need; let them pray to you in the holy assembly and bear witness to you in the world, and after a happy old age, together with the circle of friends that surround them, may they come to the Kingdom of Heaven. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. (Nuptial Blessing)

Another Wedding...

JOSEPH AND MARY

Mary had conceived the Christ Child and Joseph had been told in a dream not to be afraid to take Mary, his betrothed, as his wife, for it was by the Power of the Holy Spirit she had conceived. Joseph, like Mary, humbly consented to God's Plan and put himself at His service. Thus Mary and Joseph are a model of Married Life...to dedicate one's self to your Spouse in service to God and family, putting your trust in God to be with you in all circumstances, and turning to God in all things.

POINSETTIA SALE!

We will be selling poinsettias this year for another one of our church fundraisers. If you would like poinsettias they will be available to purchase online on our website starting this weekend, or you can pick up an order sheet in the back of our churches. You can drop your orders in an envelope with a check and drop in the collection in the church or mail to the church office. We will be selling them from Oct. 5th through Oct. 30th. Pick up will be in early December. Please watch the bulletin, Facebook and emails for more information and details.

OUR PRAYERS & SYMPATHY

To The Family & Friends Of
SR. SCHOLASTICA REGAN, OSB
Sr. Mary Scholastica (Catherine) Reagan, 91, entered into rest on October 3, 2020 at St. Joseph Monastery in Tulsa, OK.

Catherine Anne Reagan was born on her family's farm in Rathbone, NY on February 25, 1929. The twelfth of sixteen children, she grew up with a love of art and music, and the ability to build or repair almost anything. After graduating from Addison Central School, Catherine traveled to Benet Lake, WI, where she lived and studied with an order of Benedictine Sisters. She made her monastic profession on September 21, 1959, taking the name Sr. Mary Scholastica. After seven years in the Benet Lake community, Sr. Scholastica took up residence at St. Joseph Monastery in Tulsa, OK, home to the convent and school she would serve for the rest of her life. An artist by nature, Sr. Scholastica earned a BA in Fine Arts from Dominican College in Racine, WI in 1963 and an MA in Art from the University of Tulsa in 1975. She taught Art at Monte Cassino School from 1967 to 1984. Outside of the classroom, she taught calligraphy and led a community project creating rosary beads from ground rose petals. Every December, Reagan family members and friends looked forward to the impressive penmanship and drawings featured in Sister's Christmas mailings. Sister Scholastica was called upon to employ her talents in a more practical manner when she was appointed Director of Maintenance at the monastery, a position she held from 1982 to 1995. Referred to as the "Carpenter in Residence", she created stained glass windows, built cabinets for her classroom, and installed a complete kitchen during her tenure. Having learned to play the fiddle by ear as a child, Sister refined her craft by taking formal lessons in her retirement years. She always enjoyed making music – with her siblings, in a senior citizen band in Tulsa, and for the Sisters at the convent. She was also a keen card player, known for the competitiveness bred among large groups of siblings. Sr. Scholastica was predeceased by her parents, Elizabeth (Dick) and Francis Reagan; four sisters, Mary (William) Allen, Elizabeth, Theresa, and Rita (William) McCaig; nine brothers: Thomas (Bernice), Francis (Geraldine), Martin, William (Waneta), James (Marjorie), John, Bernard (Eleanor), David, and the sibling to whom she was closest in age and vocation, Father Michael Reagan. She is survived by two brothers, Robert (Janet) and Richard (Kathleen) Reagan; her sister-in-law, Betty Reagan; many nieces and nephews; and her Benedictine community. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, a private Interment will be held at St. Catherine's Cemetery. Memorials for Sr. Scholastica may be directed to St. Joseph Monastery, 2200 South Lewis Avenue, Tulsa, OK 74114.

*Eternal rest grant unto her. O Lord.
Welcome her into the Light of Your Face.*
