FAITH FORMATION 518-399-9210Madeline Fretto: faithformation@icglenville.comMichele DeLorenzo: faithformationasst@icglenville.comHappy New Year and Welcome Back !!

This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Epiphany actually falls on January 6, which marks the end of the 12 days of Christmas. However, the Church will celebrate it on the Sunday that falls closest to the sixth of January. The word epiphany comes from a Greek verb meaning "to reveal." This day is also called Three Kings Day, because it celebrates the visit from the Magi, (Wise Men-Three Kings) to the Baby Jesus. On this day, the Baby Jesus was revealed to the world.

Thank you to all of the families for your wonderful and generous gifts to our Santa Sweeties this Christmas.

Congratulations to our artists whose drawings were on the cover of our Christmas bulletins. The choice for use in the bulletin was based on which pieces "spoke" to the observers and not by which ones were "best." You all did a great job!

SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Bless this new year of grace

Some things are worth taking the time to do. After enduring the manifold burdens of this past year, few of us will need persuading that the annual Epiphany Blessing of the Home is a ritual worth investing in. Gather your housemates if living with others. Download a home blessing ritual or create one yourself, using symbols especially meaningful to your participants. Which household items became especially significant during the pandemic and call for a special blessing? A cloth mask, a bar of soap, and Netflix may be featured as items of peculiar yet holy purpose in this year's rites everywhere.

READINGS: Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6; Matthew 2:1-12 (20). "Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come."

Monday, January 4, 2021

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH ANN SETON, RELIGIOUS

Preserve the legacy

Elizabeth Ann Seton, the first U.S.-born saint, started the country's first Catholic girls' school in Maryland, where she also founded the first American women's religious community, the Sisters of Charity. All those "firsts" multiplied into an incredible legacy of parochial education and religious life benefiting women that ripples to today. At Seton's beatification, Pope John XXIII said, "she sowed a seed in America which by Divine Grace grew into a tree." Perhaps you yourself are a beneficiary of her legacy. In the words of Pope Paul VI at her canonization, "Rejoice for your glorious daughter. Be proud of her. And know how to preserve her fruitful heritage."

READINGS: 1 John 3:22—4:6; Matthew 4:12-17, 23-25 (212). "He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the Kingdom."

Tuesday, January 5, 2021

Memorial of John Neumann, Bishop

Parishes for the people

What would U.S. parishes look like without John Neumann, the first naturalized U.S. citizen and bishop who was canonized? As a seminarian in his native Bohemia, John cherished Saint Paul's missionary epistles from the Bible and longed to serve the United States as a missionary. His wish was granted. After John's 1835 ordination he began to set up parishes and a network of parochial schools in New York. He served Germans and Native Americans and also learned Gaelic and Italian to better serve parishioners in Baltimore and Philadelphia. He introduced the Forty Hours devotion and set up parish missions for Lent. Ask John to pray for your parish today.

READINGS: 1 John 4:7-10; Mark 6:34-44 (213). "They were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things."

Wednesday, January 6, 2021

MEMORIAL OF ANDRÉ BESETTE, RELIGIOUS

Open the door to new life

So many have said that 2020 was a year of unprecedented challenges, marked by a pandemic that has taken lives and so much more, and a national election that challenged the U.S. belief in a united nation with liberty and justice for all. Though a new year is only the turn of a calendar page, it allows and encourages new life, new perspective, new hope, and new energy. Let the life of the gentle and humble Saint André Bessette—who spent many years as a doorman for his monastic community—be our inspiration. May compassion and love of neighbor guide us into this new year.

READINGS: 1 John 4:11-18; Mark 6:45-52 (214). "If God so loved us, we also must love one another."

CHRISTMAS WEEKDAY

And now for an announcement . . .

Even in an age when people are bombarded with messages, announcements can have particular cachet. They appear over and over in the gospels, from angels announcing Christ's birth to Jesus' announcement in today's gospel that he came to fulfill the words of Isaiah. The church continues to make plenty of announcements, from the calendar items announced at Mass to "announcements" in the form of pastoral letters and encyclicals about how to live contemporary Christian life. You probably announced your faith in a formal way at your Confirmation. How can you "announce" Christ today through your words and actions?

READINGS: 1 John 4:19—5:4; Luke 4:14-22a (215). "He said to them, 'Today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.'"

CHRISTMAS WEEKDAY

Out of stillness, creation

As the Christmas season draws to a close, some treasure its highlights, others dread the January "blahs," and all of us could do well to follow Jesus' model in the gospel. After he cures a leper, the crowds and the demands on him increase. Many of us would plough into the need, then the adulation. Instead, he withdraws and retreats. This wintry season offers a time to withdraw and reflect. Think, for example, of the solitude necessary to create the kind of sacred art that Giotto was known for. He died on this day in 1337, so perhaps you can bring him to mind as you channel your own inner artist in the winter stillness. Create something new today!

READINGS: 1 John 5:5-13; Luke 5:12-16 (216). "But he would withdraw to deserted places to pray."

Saturday, January 9, 2021

CHRISTMAS WEEKDAY

Make space for Christ

This is the final day of the Christmas season. But it's always Christmas, every day of the year. Christ comes in our humanity, born into our human flesh. We are always united with Christ in a communion of divinity and humanity, realized in Jesus, shared with us. We celebrate that communion in the central act of our worship: We eat and drink the Real Presence of Christ in us. But like John the Baptist proclaims in today's gospel, that presence of Christ must increase in us as our own egos decrease. This is the way to fulfillment. Let Christ lead you today.

READINGS: 1 John 5:14-21; John 3:22-30 (217). "He must increase; I must decrease."

From the Pastor:

Living in an age well before the internet or social media, the Magi from the East relied upon a single star as a sign that a king had been born. The heavens revealed to these learned foreigners that a matter of great import had occurred in Judea. Today, we celebrate the revelation of the birth of our Lord to the outside world. The star over the little town of Bethlehem has revealed the Light of the World to the ends of the earth!

As we celebrate the Epiphany, may we pray with the meaning of the word and spirit of the day. One of the many definitions of epiphany is "an illuminating discovery, realization, or disclosure." As we begin a new year, may we – like the Magi – keep our eyes open to the guiding illumination sent to us by God. I am finding this thought particularly important to pray with as our three parishes move ahead into the future. How grateful I am for all of you and for your generosity this Christmas, as well as for how I have been welcomed by so many.

The American Red Cross will hold another Blood Drive at Immaculate Conception on January 16. There is a vital need for donations right now. Please consider giving blood; this is a powerful way to offer life to others. Registration is now open. Call the Immaculate parish office if you have any questions, or simply check the Red Cross website to sign up.

At Our Lady of Grace, Grace Fay, Joan Suda, and Patty Neumann recently offered a beautiful Advent Zoom presentation of music, scripture, and prayer. They have shared their gifts generously to bring others together in faith. From all accounts this was a beautiful way to gather the community in song and prayer. Thank you Grace, Joan, and Patty, for all that you do for God's people.

Recently, a plexi-glass shield was constructed and installed for cantors at St. Joseph's, thanks to William Schnore and his father Aussie. Tom Neals, Scott Sutherland, and Eric Yager all consulted with them on the project. William's mother Mary Beth Schnore will soon cantor again. What a creative solution, again – gifts used for the greater good of the community!

A STRANGER, AND YOU WELCOMED ME is a new collection of homilies and reflections for the liturgical year written by a wide variety of contributors, many with names you will recognize, and others who are less familiar. All proceeds from the book will benefit charities that welcome strangers among us. IC's Pastoral Associate for Administration, Fran Rossi Szpylczyn, is one of the contributors. If you are interested in a copy, please call or email her at the office for details. Thank you, Fran, for sharing your gifts with us all!

Until next week, be well, do good deeds, and say your prayers.

Fr. Jerry

Wise men still seek Jesus to adore. Happy Three Kings Day.
