THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." - Mt 28:18-19

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

To support married couples during this time of social distancing, Worldwide Marriage Encounter is sponsoring virtual marriage experiences. Some are on weekends and some are seven sessions on weekdays from 7 to 9:30 pm. Couples will explore their individual personality styles, improve listening and communication skills, understand God's plan for their marriage, and learn how to keep their relationship a priority. Registration is limited and a $100 application fee is required.

For more information or to apply, call Frank & Margie Pearson at 860-337-2447 or visit them at <https://www.mectw.org/>.

"Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you."

Invite God into your marriage on the next English Worldwide Marriage Encounter experience on Thursdays/Mondays June 3-24 and Thursdays/Mondays July 8-29.

Book Club will meet on Wednesday, June 2 from 7-8:30 pm. We will be discussing The Book of Lost Friends by Lisa Wingate. New readers welcome. Questions? Call Simone McGuinness at 518-399-9506.

FAITH FORMATION 518-399-9210

Today is the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity

This Sunday is the celebration of the fundamental principles upon which we base our Christian faith: God, Our Father; Jesus, the Son of God; and the Holy Spirit, the Third Divine Spirit in the Holy Trinity. The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity is most likely celebrated at this time because it is a finale to all of the preceding feasts. It could actually be considered a feast of thanksgiving for all of the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons, a discovering of this mystery of uniting of all the blessings of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. That is why it is fitting that this feast falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, to remind us that Sunday after Sunday we are called to remember in a spirit of gratitude the gifts the Blessed Trinity gives us.

This is also Memorial Day Weekend

On this day we honor the men and women who have lost their lives while serving in the United State Military. We pray for these heroes and their families.

THIS WEEKEND IS THE UNOFFICIAL BEGINNING OF SUMMER, SOMETHING WE HAVE ALL BEEN WAITING FOR.

Lastly, this marks the beginning of my retirement, and the end of my bulletin entries.

It has been one of the greatest honors of my life to be the Pastoral Associate for Faith Formation. I will be forever grateful to the incredible Catechists I have had to privilege to work with all of these years, and for my wonderful co-workers and friends who I have been blessed to have in my life. I will miss being with all of the children and their families each week, but I will look forward to seeing you all in church. I cannot leave without thanking my best friend, my sister-in-law, and best assistant ever, Michele DeLorenzo. We had no idea how wonderful and fast these years would go by. Most importantly, thank you Fr Jerry for always supporting our ideas for this wonderful ministry, and always making sure that the children were a priority in our parish.

I leave with a heart filled with love and gratitude for the blessings God has granted to me all of these years in this wonderful job. God bless you, Madeline

Please note – the Youth Ministries Office will be closed Monday, May 31 and Tuesday, June 1

Celebrating the Graduating Class of 2021!

UPDATED INFO

We will be blessing the Graduating Class of 2021 at our 9 am Mass on Sunday, June 13. All graduates and their families are invited to join us! Given the update in Mass guidelines – advance sign up is not required, but it would be helpful for us if you could RSVP by June 9. We want to be sure all graduates are recognized!

We are collecting Senior Pictures and more from the Class of 2021. All families with high school seniors should have received an email detailing this parish project. If you did not, please contact Christine. We have extended the submission deadline to June 7.

Summer Youth Experiences

Are you interested in getting together for mini-golf, kayaking, hiking or another outdoor social outing? We hope to plan several events throughout the summer and are looking for ideas! Email youthministry@icglenville.com to share your suggestions!

Post-Confirmation Gathering for June!

We had a great gathering last week for Sundaes on Sunday (and it didn't rain!). Our next get together will be Monday, June 7 at 6:30 pm outside the Youth Center. All confirmed high school youth are invited to join us (this includes friends who you know from other parishes/schools)! Snacks will be provided – please bring your own chair and beverage. RSVP to Christine by June 6 for planning purposes.

Summer VBS – is looking for a director!

If you are interested in leading VBS this summer, please contact the Parish Office. Without someone to lead the week, we will not be able to offer our Ecumenical VBS this summer.

We pray for those who have died recently, especially +Thomas Joseph Smith, brother of Art (Jackie) Smith. Now absent from the body; they are present with the Lord.

Remember in your prayers all who are sick or suffering in any way - mind, body or spirit. We remember especially:

Names remain for two months; call the rectory for additions.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

For you are my God

There's a difference between prayer and theology. Most of us don't think of ourselves as doing theology when we pray—and yet we are. How we pray involves a preconception of the God with whom we are engaging. Is God a loving parent to us, or a merciless accountant? Is God an ATM we visit to supply our daily needs; a companion on the journey; the source of every good thing; or the one who best loves and understands us? When you pray, take a moment to orient yourself toward the God you really believe in.

READINGS: Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40; Romans 8:14-17; Matthew 28:16-20 (165). "Know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God . . . and that there is no other."

FEAST OF THE VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Believe the impossible

National holidays frequently take precedence over our daily routines, and this Memorial Day is no exception as the country honors those who gave their lives in service. In the midst of your holiday activities, however, take a moment to ponder today's Feast of the Visitation. It's a wonder-filled account of God's power to transform human life, as two holy women—cousins Mary and Elizabeth—embrace their unusual and graced pregnancies. Their joy trumps any worry as they glorify the Lord who lifts up the lowly and fills the hungry with good things. Mary's words have echoed through centuries of faith, calling all believers to see the presence of God in the unexpected. Ask for the grace to see the Holy today.

READINGS: Zephaniah 3:14-18a or Romans 12:9-16; Luke 1:39-56 (572). "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God, my savior."

MEMORIAL OF JUSTIN, MARTYR

Wise up!

Justin sought a universal truth in the Greek philosophies of his day—among Stoics, Platonists, and Pythagoreans—but it was an old man he met, walking along the sea one day in 135, who finally enlightened him. The man simply recounted the story of the Hebrew prophets and Christianity. Justin was hooked. He donned philosopher's robes to speak of faith and reason, writing persuasively about Christianity. Justin's writings are most famous for providing a vivid snapshot of the early church—describing in detail how the Eucharist and Baptisms were celebrated, also the practice of reading aloud from the gospels. Seek the truths of the faith in your own way.

READINGS: Tobit 2:9-14; Mark 12:13-17 (354). "Do not regard a person's status but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth."

On we go

By the time of Jesus, the possibility of life after death had been in the theological discussion for at least a century. In response to the Book of Job, which questioned why bad things happen to good people, the Book of Wisdom, written in the first century before Christ, declared that the "souls of the just are in the hands of God" and that God's justice was at work even after death. The Sadducees in today's gospel contest the idea, while Jesus supports it. Our faith in God's eternal presence helps us to endure the injustices of life and bear wrongs patiently. Remember today that we believe in life everlasting.

READINGS: Tobit 3:1-11a, 16-17a; Mark 12:18-27 (355). "When they rise from the dead . . . they are like the angels in heaven."

Memorial of Charles Lwanga and Companions, Martyrs Faith rises from the ashes

Twenty-two men and boys, many of them pages in King Mwanga's court in Uganda, were murdered between 1885 and 1887 for refusing to denounce their Catholic faith. Most were burned to death at Namugondo after a two-day death march from the palace. Within several decades, a church was erected near the site of the gruesome executions to honor the martyrs. Now a basilica stands on this holy ground in thanksgiving for the canonization of the Ugandan martyrs in 1964. "A martyr is a witness," Pope Francis said during a 2015 visit to Uganda. "Past glories were a beginning, but you are called to create future glories. This is what the church asks of you." This is what the church asks of all of us. How will you witness the glory of the gospel today?

READINGS: Tobit 6:10-11; 7:1bcde, 9-17; 8:4-9a; Mark 12:28-34 (356). "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart."

What a blessed day this be

As the northern hemisphere revels in the glories of spring, it's a fitting time to say a few "Glory Be's" and "Blessed Be's" in thanksgiving. The "Glory Be," or "Doxology," is a short hymn of praise and affirmation of faith: "Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen." The "Blessed Be's," also known as the "Divine Praises," are a litany honoring the Trinity, the Blessed Mother, and the angels and saints: "Blessed be God. Blessed be His Holy Name. Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true Man. . . ." It is typically recited during Benediction and Eucharistic Adoration. But anytime, particularly a sunny day, is the right time to acknowledge how blessed we are to be loved by God.

READINGS: Tobit 11:5-17; Mark 12:35-37 (357). "Blessed be God, and praised be his great name."

MEMORIAL OF BONIFACE, BISHOP, MARTYR

Animate your life story

Saint Boniface (c. 673-754), born in Devonshire, England, entered the Benedictine Monastery at Exeter and was ordained a priest at 30. Despite his happy life as a monk, he decided to travel to Holland and then Germany as a missionary. He's now known as the "Apostle to Germany" and is credited with unifying the church in Europe. Boniface's chief concern throughout his life was purity of faith. He saw his mission as ensuring that men and women—lay, clerics, and religious—live holy lives. He exhorted the faithful: "Let all your actions be animated with charity, and according to the gospel, you will possess your souls in patience." May you experience the peace that comes with a life motivated by love.

READINGS: Tobit 12:1, 5-15, 20; Mark 12:38-44 (358). "Do good, and evil will not find its way to you."

#1church1mission

From the Pastor:

In Leo Tolstoy's short story, "The Three Hermits," a bishop pays a visit to three monks who live a life of prayer on an isolated island. The bishop labors to teach them the Our Father, as they only prayer the hermits know is "Three are ye, three are we, have mercy on us."

They struggle with memorizing a prayer familiar to us, and never quite make it. As the bishop sails away on a ship, he catches sight of something moving across the water. It is the three hermits, walking upon the sea, worried because they had already forgotten how to begin the prayer. The bishop is humbled by them because he realizes their holiness – not only because their faith supports them walking on water, but because of their humility. Sometimes the simplest prayer is the best, and the wisdom of the Trinity is as challenging as walking on the sea. Yet in faith we see, we hear, we live, we believe. Sometimes we must just pray as best we can and always remember to let God be God.

It is a gift to announce that we are welcoming Deacon Craig Demspey to Immaculate Conception! Craig is a parishioner at St. Edward the Confessor in Clifton Park and has just been ordained to the diaconate. We are grateful to receive him to our midst!

Thank you to all who participated in the Immaculate Conception Spring Clean Up on Saturday. We are grateful for the helping hands that keep the parish beautiful. Thanks also go to Bob Vielkind for refinishing the presider chair in the Sanctuary.

Grace Fay and Patty Neumann shared their time and talents with our communities again last Tuesday in providing an evening Marian Retreat via Zoom. We are grateful for providing us with this opportunity for reflection.

It is official – we have stopped taking reservations and masks have become optional. It all seemed to change so quickly. I do ask that we each look into our hearts and think about others when it comes to our masks. Some people are not vaccinated by personal choice, others due to health conditions. We will need to exercise some caution and respect all life by respecting one another.

Memorial Day weekend is upon us. It is a national holiday commemorating those who gave their lives in service of the country. One of our parishioners at Immaculate served our country and remarkably lived to tell about it. Dr. Tom Smith was at Iwo Jima and watched the flag be raised. +Tom has now gone home to God, and while he did not lose his life in service, he certainly gave of himself and lived for many years. Our prayers go out to his brother Art and sister-in-law Jackie, and to all who loved him. May he rest well in the peace of Christ.

Until next week, be well, do good deeds, and say your prayers.

Fr. Jerry

OUR PRAYER: Loving God, be present to us and grant us wisdom, so that we, who may feel anxious about change, might trust in Your love and rest in the Changelessness that is You.

NOTES FROM THE PARISH NURSE - Returning to Previous Activities

According to the CDC nearly 62% of the population has had at least one vaccine. This is a great start, however we still have a ways to go on the trajectory to having the majority of our population fully vaccinated. If you are not vaccinated, consider doing so for your safety and for the safety of your family, friends, and community. The CDC has advised that restrictions for those fully vaccinated have allowed for less mask wearing, but the social distancing and frequent handwashing are always good strategies to follow. When considering your next steps, you know your health history and should follow the mask wearing that is appropriate for you. If you are immunocompromised, you and your healthcare provider should decide together what best practices you should follow. Even though the mask requirements are changing, consider what your comfort level is to be safe when in crowded situations, traveling, or in a setting that has restrictions, and follow those guidelines.

It is now time to consider returning to some of the activities you did before COVID, or were thinking of starting, like exercise and becoming more active. Outdoor activities are the safest - walking, rolling in your wheelchair, or biking, for instance. This is a great time to be creative and try something new while enjoying the nice weather. Be creative, find an exercise buddy. If you took a break from previous exercise, start back slowly. Make an exercise plan and get started today.

Stay safe, wear a mask when needed (especially if you are unvaccinated), consider getting vaccinated, social distance, and wash your hands frequently.

Albany NY Chapter of Magnificat (a Ministry to Catholic Women) is hosting a Women's Visitation (a Virtual Event) on Saturday, June 5 from 10-11 am on ZOOM. Join us in prayer, praise and worship, a meditation by Fr. Michael Flannery and a witness talk. Our witness speaker is Sally Gilpin, a cradle Catholic, to whom God has been faithful throughout many life challenges and losses. She became involved in the Charismatic Renewal in 1979 and began the journey of a deeper relationship with God and a lifetime of being healed and praying for others. She is currently on the advisory board for the Catholic Charismatic Renewal of Albany Diocese and provides training in healing prayer for the teams at Healing Masses and in Schools of Healing Prayer. Sally worked as a psychiatric social work practitioner and was the administrator of a mental health clinic. Most recently, she was clinical supervisor for hospice social workers in Albany County. She now lives near her daughter and granddaughter and attends St. Edward the Confessor Catholic Church in Clifton Park. This is a Free Event—register online at: www.magnificat-ministry.org/ny-albany/; or www.facebook.com/albanymagnificat/; or email us at albanymagnificat@gmail.com and you will be sent the Zoom link. Questions, call Diane Bigos at 518-810-1310.

Welcome!

We welcome visitors to our community with great joy!

All Catholics who regularly worship at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, as well as those living in the greater Glenville area, are invited to become a part of our parish community.

Our church is equipped with audio devices for the hearing-impaired and is handicapped-accessible. Please see our ushers for assistance.

The Church of the Immaculate Conception, in the Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany, New York, is a community of faithful Christians, who have come together under the wisdom of the Holy Spirit and the guidance of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to give witness to Jesus Christ.

Our mission is to celebrate the Eucharist; to joyfully proclaim the Good News; to care for those in need; to actively foster stewardship of time, talent and treasure; and, as a parish family, to grow in faith, love, and peace.

Reconciliation The opportunity for Reconciliation is available on Saturdays from 4-4:30 PM and by appointment. Parish celebrations of Reconciliation are announced during Advent and Lent.

Baptism The celebration of baptism is the first sacrament of initiation which begins our journey of following Christ. Infant baptisms take place throughout the year, except during Advent and Lent. Baptism for school age children is arranged as needed. Adult baptism and the reception of baptized non-Catholics into the Catholic church typically occurs during the Easter Vigil. For information on any baptism needs, please contact the parish office at 399-9168.

Confirmation Those wishing to be included in the annual parish celebration of Confirmation are asked to call the Parish Office. Students must be in the 11th Grade and be enrolled in the two-year Faith Formation Program. Adults may arrange for Confirmation by contacting the parish priest.

Marriage A registered parishioner who wishes to celebrate his or her marriage at Immaculate Conception is asked to contact the Parish Office, at least six months prior to the anticipated date and before any other arrangements have been finalized, to begin sacramental preparation.

Anointing of the Sick The Sacrament of the Sick is intended for those who are ill or infirm. Parishioners planning to enter the hospital are encouraged to receive this sacrament prior to admission. Arrangements to receive the Sacrament can be made by calling the Parish Office. Please be aware that the hospital will not inform us of admissions. A communal celebration of the Sacrament of the Sick takes place seasonally.

Holy Orders Men interested in the Priesthood or Permanent Diaconate, and those men and women interested in Religious Life or Lay Ministry are encouraged to contact the Vocation Office at 518-312-9297 or www.albanyvocations.org. Please join our community in praying for an increase of vocations to the priesthood, religious life and lay ministry in our Church.
