Winter Book Study:

The Holy Longing: The Search for a Christian Spirituality, Fr. Ronald Rolheiser

Each human being experiences restlessness – whether passion or desire, or simply the sense that ‘something more’ is out there. “Spirituality is about what we do with our unrest.”

In The Holy Longing, Fr. Rolheiser asserts that each person has an innate spirituality uniquely suited to them.

Finding yours can connect you to the Divine and open your heart to others on a profound level. For Christians, this involves balancing:

- a) private prayer and private morality
- b) social justice
- c) mellowness of heart and spirit
- d) communal worship

Come explore these notions in a 5-week book study on Thursdays beginning January 13th.

Groups will meet via Zoom at 10am with Terry Pendergast and 7pm with Claudine Meaney

Participant fee is $15 (books included)

Please register soon: ann.distefano@stannavon.com.

PRO-LIFE MINISTRY

Upcoming Events:

All of our parishioners are invited to participate in the Pro-Life Activities scheduled to memorialize the 49th Anniversary of the infamous Roe vs. Wade Supreme Court Decision to legalize abortion.

Sunday, January 16th, St. Ann will celebrate The Divine Mercy Holy Hour from 2:30-3:30 pm followed. We will pray for the end to abortion and a renewed respect for all human life.

On Friday, January 21st St. Ann will celebrate the 9am Mass with prayers for the sanctity of all life, especially the unborn. At 12 noon we will observe a Holy Hour for Life will be observed until 1pm. We will unite our prayers with those who are on the March for Life in Washington, D.C.

The Pro-Life cause is gaining ground...please join us on Sat., January 22nd at 12 noon in St. Ann's parking lot to pray the rosary for the success of the Dobb's case and the ultimate overturning of Roe v Wade.

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

Each Mass has infinite value. This gift is so great that we should endeavor to make the Holy Mass the very center of our lives. "Know, O Christian, that the Mass is the holiest act. You cannot do anything to glorify God more, than by devoutly attending Mass." (St. Peter Julian Eymard)

Reflection: One of the effects of the Holy Mass and of the Holy Eucharist is to prepare us for the Beatific Vision in heaven. Even now we are able to share on earth in the intimate life of the Three Divine Persons through the Mass and Holy Communion. Only fools would turn away from such a glorious gift.

"Do everything you can for the sake of one Holy Communion." (St. Mary Magdaline de Pazzi)

God Has a Personal Message For You!

Join us for the popular Lectio Divina way of praying scripture, where you listen for what God is saying to you in the Gospel for the coming Sunday. It's also a great way to connect with others, and engage more fully in Mass.

Friendly groups meet via Zoom * Newcomers welcome
Sundays at 10:30am, and Fridays at 9:45am.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

It Takes All Kinds

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.
