Winter Book Study:

The Holy Longing: The Search for a Christian Spirituality, Fr. Ronald Rolheiser

Each human being experiences restlessness – whether passion or desire, or simply the sense that ‘something more’ is out there. “Spirituality is about what we do with our unrest.”

In The Holy Longing, Fr. Rolheiser asserts that each person has an innate spirituality uniquely suited to them.

Finding yours can connect you to the Divine and open your heart to others on a profound level. For Christians, this involves balancing:

- a) private prayer and private morality
- b) social justice
- c) mellowness of heart and spirit
- d) communal worship

Come explore these notions in a 5-week book study on Thursdays beginning January 13th.

Groups will meet via Zoom at 10am with Terry Pendergast and 7pm with Claudine Meaney

Participant fee is $15 (books included)

Please register soon: ann.distefano@stannavon.com.

FORMED KICKOFF PROGRAM FOR ADULTS:

"The Search" Series

What is my purpose? Why doesn't happiness last? Does God really care about me? Do you ever ponder these thoughts? If your children/grandchildren, friends, or coworkers asked you these questions, would you know what to say? Discover the answers to these and other big questions of life, with our first parishwide program from FORMED, "The Search."

The Search is a new, award-winning video series that guides viewers through an arc of seven episodes, examining the great big story of everything—life and death, sorrow and happiness, science and faith—through the commentary of astrophysicists, psychologists, astronauts, neuroscientists, professors, athletes, artists, and popular host Chris Stefanik.

Small groups ("Search Parties!") will be meeting on Tuesdays at 1:00pm via Zoom or at 7:15pm in Room 3 and on Zoom. We'll gather for 75 minutes to view and discuss "The Search" videos together. RSVP to ann.distefano@stannavon.com.

Attend as many sessions as you are able:

- Jan 18: What Do You Seek?
- Jan 25: Who Are You?
- Feb 1: Why a God?
- Feb 8: What's Our Story?
- Feb 15: Who is Jesus?
- Feb 22: Am I Saved?
- Mar 1: Why a Church?

Many thanks for the overwhelming support for the Christmas collection for ImmaCare.

Every year we worry about whether there will be enough to assure that every guest will get a gift bag. It seems like a small way of saying that people care and they matter. This year there was enough donated that many warm items were delivered through the ImmaCare outreach van to those who stay outdoors until the weather becomes life threatening. Little did we know that shortly after, the shelter would temporarily close following a Covid outbreak and the men would be isolated in hotel rooms. A tough time but because of the generosity of the St. Ann parish, the men were able to take personal care items with them, and warm clothing to go outside. They have asked us to relay their heartfelt wishes for a healthy 2022 for all of you.

Saint of the Week

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

The Holy Eucharist DID YOU KNOW?

The Holy Eucharist is the Sacrament of union. It is true food for the soul. It nourishes us and protects us from falling into mortal (serious) sin. It sensitizes us to even venial sin. It makes us aware of how offensive sin is to our loving God. It fills us with the desire to live the purity of heart, which Christ taught us in the Beatitudes. "Blessed are the pure of heart for they shall see God."

Reflection: The greatest lovers of the Holy Eucharist are those who have attained purity of heart: the Saints. They are able to experience the foretaste and the promise of the pascal feast of heaven here on earth. They are able to see beyond the small, white, consecrated Host to see Jesus present in the Holy Eucharist. Recall that the Church teaches that all of us are called to be saints.

"Creep Down into the heart of Jesus.
He alone can comfort you in your supreme hour of sorrow."
- St. Marianne Cope

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Live the Liturgy

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.
