POINTS TO PONDER

Reflect on Sunday's readings: Luke 2:41-52;
1 Samuel 1:20-22, 24-28; 1 John 3:1-2, 21-24

- Imagine Jesus as a peer at school or work. How do you think He would be received? Would you have been friends?
- Have you ever had a conflict with a parent or authority figure because of misunderstood communication? How does it feel to know Jesus had the same interaction with His parents?
- What do you consider the "house of the Lord" and how do you choose to "dwell" there in everyday life?

MASKS FOR SAFETY FOR THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

In the light of the spiking numbers of new COVID cases and the likely increase in those numbers in the upcoming holiday season, Cardinal Seán is mandating that throughout the Archdiocese all people attending public Masses, including weddings and funerals, wear masks. This mandate is now in effect. It will expire on Monday, January 17, 2022.

Merry Christmas! Welcome to Sacred Hearts Parish!

Dear Friends,

This weekend we gather to celebrate the birth of Jesus. We listen to the birth narrative from the Gospel of Luke. The angel of the Lord appears to the shepherds announcing: "I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all people... a savior has been born to you who is Christ the Lord." We can ask ourselves how can I be joyful amid the stress and uncertainty of life due to COVID? A truly valid and honest question. But we truly believe, even in the midst of current COVID concerns and challenges we can be a joyful people. We believe in a God who loves and cares for the world - that's a cause for joy. We are people of hope, who see goodness and care for each other triumph in the midst of challenges - that's a reason for joy. Our Catholic faith makes us strong and ever mindful that God is with us - always!

We welcome all parishioners and visitors to our celebrations this weekend. A special welcome to family members and young people who are home for the holidays. Our celebrations this weekend help us to connect to God and to each other - giving us the strength to face the challenges we encounter every day and to live more fully as children of God in the world. We pray that you find comfort being with us, singing traditional hymns, hearing a message of hope. At the birth of Jesus, "the glory of the Lord shone around" all gathered. May we experience this same light, the light of Christ in our world today.

Sacred Hearts Parish is a vibrant Catholic Community committed to living the Christian life in word and action. (Please see the photo collage of activities from our parish in today's bulletin.) We pray together. We serve our community. We care about each other. The giving spirit of the community is a testimony of the deep faith which exists in the parish, putting faith into action. Life can get complicated at times, as it seems to be right now. We may wonder where God is in our lives. We may wander a bit from God. Our prayer life may be a little lifeless. Stress and busyness of life may overwhelm our spirits and hearts. But God is always there. We don't give up. We persevere and trust in God's providence and love.

Please know that we are always available to assist you in your personal and faith journey.

Thank you for being with us during our Christmas celebrations. We wish you and your family many blessings this Christmas and throughout the New Year. Stay well and stay healthy.

*Fr. John Delaney, Pastor; Fr. Dan McCoy, Parochial Vicar; Fr. Richard O'Brien, Senior Priest;
Dr. Elizabeth Woodard, Pastoral Associate; and Sacred Hearts Parish Staff*

HAVE A VOICE IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Over the next several years, the Church around the world will be participating in a process called the Synod on Synodality. The Holy Father will be meeting with Bishops from across the globe in 2023 to discuss ways of improving the process by which the church on all levels is open to hearing the voices of people from all walks of life. That process will begin here in Boston by asking the faithful to complete the following survey: <https://forms.office.com/r/aPadVsPFt9>. The results of the survey will inform discussions in the Archdiocese and, eventually, the global conversation on synodality. Questions can be directed to psoper@rcab.org.

Thank you!!

Sincere thanks to the parishioners who donated toys to our Ozzie's Kids giving program this year. We filled five vehicles to the brim with toys that will benefit some very lucky children. Thank you for blessing them.

Did You Know?

Did you know that at the core of our Christmas celebration is the belief that the eternal, all-powerful God, through His Holy Word, reached out in love to humankind and became one of us? The nativity story has become for many in the modern secular world only a quaint tale associated with the Christmas holiday, and its actual implications for human lives have been somewhat forgotten. But, because God became man in the person of Jesus Christ, many of the questions that plagued humans from the dawn of time have been answered. Through Jesus' teachings we are now able to clearly understand what God expects of us - to love Him and to love our neighbor. We know it is possible to communicate personally with our God through prayer; we know that by receiving the sacrament of Reconciliation, we can be forgiven for any wrongs we have done; and by worthily receiving the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist, we can be as close to God as is possible in this world. May we always accept and embrace these gifts that the Christ Child offers to us with His birth!
