December 26, 2021—The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man. - Lk 2:51-52

Parish Mission Statement

St. Anthony Church is a parish where God's love nourishes the soul to actively minister to people and share the joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Welcome to the Community of St. Anthony Church. Regardless of your present religious affiliation or status in the Catholic Church, your marital situation, personal history or struggles, disability, age, background, race, ethnicity, or sexual orientation, you are invited, welcomed, respected, loved and encouraged to be a part of our faith community.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Christmas is the season for being thankful and joyful and it is my hope that the miracle of this day peacefully and lovingly fills your hearts.

I feel blessed to be a member of our St. Anthony family and I would like to personally thank each one of you for being an integral part of our faith-filled community. My heart is full of gratitude to God for all the blessings and help we received during this challenging year. I humbly appreciate your generous cooperation and the offering of your valuable prayers, energy, time and talents you give to our Church community. I am particularly proud of all the work our parish has been able to accomplish during the pandemic and the help we offer through so many ministries.

In my daily prayer, I always pray for our parish family and for those who ask me to pray for them. I ask that God bless you and that the light of Christ replace any darkness you may experience.

As you gather with family and friends, allow the light of Jesus to penetrate deep into your hearts and souls so that you will truly have a Blessed and Merry Christmas.

It is my wish that the Infant Child Jesus and His most Blessed Mother grant you the joy and peace of this holy season and keep you and your loved ones safe.

On behalf of Deacon Domenic and the parish staff we wish you a blessed Christmas.

In Christ,

Fr. Gregory

THE EUCHARISTIC CANDLE BURNS THIS WEEK FOR THE SAINT ANTHONY PARISH FAMILY

Thank you to Marianne Byrne for assisting with the replacement of the shade over the St. Anthony stained glass window in the choir loft. This new shade will keep the sun out of Edwin's eyes and allow us to still see the image of St. Anthony and the texture of the glass pains.

It is a beautiful improvement!

Please note that when Region 16 dismisses school early due to bad weather, or cancels school for the day, we will NOT have any classes that day here at Saint Anthony's. We will also alert on Channel 3 if we choose to cancel; it will also be posted on our website, as well as our many social media pages.

Good Will to All

For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me. Matthew 25:35—36
 Something stirs at Christmastime that makes most of us want to do more for others. It could be the more generous love we notice in our community and culture. It could be the change of weather. It could be the obligation to give back to those who serve us. Whatever starts that feeling in you doesn’t matter as much as what you do with it.

- You could ignore it and play the Scrooge. You won’t be alone in this attitude, but you also won’t find support in the Bible.
- You could make sure everything is perfect, on sale, and pictures are taken for maximum social media display, but you might be missing the point of being generous.
- You could pray and ask God to show you opportunities and give you the means for being generous, and then go about your day, ready for something to happen.

God does want us to be intentional about how we serve others, but he also wants us to be ready to give even when we didn’t plan on it. He wants us to see people in need, people he puts in our path. Keep your eyes open to the opportunities this Christmas season. Share Jesus through your money, your time, and your heart.

Family Discussion: Talk about ways you can be ready to serve others, like making sure you have extra time in your schedule, extra change in your pockets, and the willingness to see what people actually need.

Family Activity: Make a plan for an intentional service opportunity in your church or community and work together as a family.

Prayer Starter: Lord, help our family to see which people need things that we can give. Help us this week as we ....

If you're like me, this time of year is perfect for a warm beverage. Coffee and tea are popular year round, and many of us have invested in Keurig machines for their variety and convenience. What we sometimes don't realize is the mountain of trash that piles up from using those little plastic cups. It is estimated that over 10 billion plastic cups are made every year, the vast majority of which end up in a landfill. So, what can one do? K-cups can't go in the recycling bin, so some options include reusable K-cup baskets (find them in local stores or Amazon) or reducing the amount you use. And if you use a traditional coffee pot or drink tea, remember that both coffee grounds and tea leaves can be used as compost in the garden! We'd love to share more tips with you ... search for "Prospect—Reduce Reuse Recycle" on Facebook!

Merry Christmas!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

Questions of the Week

First Reading: Hannah, the mother of Samuel, and Samuel's father are portrayed as parents of deep prayer and great faith. How would you describe the faith of your mother or father?

Second Reading: John teaches us that if we believe in Jesus and love one another, "we may be called children of God." How do you show gratitude for being part of this holy family?

Gospel: Luke is the only Evangelist to preserve a story about Jesus from his youth. In this account, Mary and Joseph are filled with "great anxiety" as they searched for Jesus who they thought was lost. How do you seek God's help for the anxious moments in your family?

LIVE THE LITURGY

It was the best of times and it was the worst of times. Our families can bring out the best and the worst in us. This is true of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our church, our society, and the like. In all of our family experiences, what stands out as our most challenging memory? Everything human can be found on the pages of family life. But there is also a Divine story to be discovered as well. When life gets difficult and perplexing, today's Feast of the Holy Family stands to remind us that it is not just by human effort that we tread treacherous waters. We have to remember and learn from the Divine effort too. We need this perspective if our love lessons are going to be learned completely and well. We are all works in progress and we all come from homes that are broken by imperfection. In whatever life brings us and in whatever family we find ourselves, may the promptings we feel toward faith and hope lead us to greater love. ©LPi

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

All in the Family

At first glance, we can often find the image of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and the Christ Child intimidating — who are we to aspire to that level of discipleship? How could we ever hope to conform ourselves to that mold? Sometimes, it can even be painful — perhaps we hail from a broken family or struggle with a broken relationship within our family, or perhaps we long to be a mother or a father ourselves and that state in life has eluded us.

But the image of the Holy Family is, in reality, a beautiful invitation to us all, no matter our vocation or our state in life, and the example of Mary, Joseph and Jesus is rich with the symbolism of stewardship.

You need not be a biological mother who has carried a child in her womb to be a mother in spirit. Who in your world needs you to love them with the heart of a mother?

The same goes for fatherhood. The Church and the world are crying out for the courageous witness of Christian men like St. Joseph. Who can you love with the steadfast, selfless protection of a father?

Who in your life needs you to love them with the faithful, unconditional love of a son? Who needs your gentle and constant love as a daughter?

We are the Body of Christ, friends. Those of us rejoicing in heaven, those of us suffering in purgatory, and those of us struggling here on earth. We are the great family. Let us love each other well.—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
