Parish Mission Statement

St. Anthony Church is a parish where God's love nourishes the soul to actively minister to people and share the joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Gracious God, we pray for all persons suffering from war. May they be held in your loving care and protection and given the strength to endure great suffering and hardship. Transform the hearts and minds of all those who perpetuate violence and oppression. Grant wisdom to world leaders in advancing efforts toward world peace; may they not be compromised by self-interest and blind indifference. We ask all this through the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes and in the name of your Son Jesus, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

This year's theme, "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," reminds us of our universal call to evangelize and support our brothers and sisters around the world. Your generosity helps build churches, train clergy, and provide essential services in mission territories. Catholic Question CornerAll Souls

Question: November is called the month of All Souls. More recently, it has been called the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. Can you tell us more about this feast and the remembrances of this month?

Answer: November 2, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, dovetails with November 1st, the feast of All Saints. The saints, our models of Christian living, are one with God in heaven. All the faithful departed are those who have died with hope and trust in a loving God who calls us to greater growth and development, even beyond death. This growth and development occurs in a state of being that we have traditionally called purgatory.

While the Western Church has emphasized the cleansing and purifying nature of purgatory, the Eastern Orthodox Church has emphasized the growth and development aspect of it. Today, belief in purgatory allows one who has died in Christ to continue growing and developing before meeting God face to face. God continually invites communion with these loved ones, but some feel the need to continue growing and developing before entering into full communion with God.

These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the communion of saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us. Just as we do that for each other when we are alive, so, too, do we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.

Mike LoGiudice, a "Good Steward in Action," is captured refinishing tables that are used in the vestibule of the church. Thanks for taking the time to make them look new again!

We are blessed by the good work of our volunteers. We hope all of you sign up for the volunteer appreciation lunch on November 10th!

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for October

For a shared mission: We pray that all Christians work together in unity, sharing the mission of spreading the Gospel and promoting justice, peace, and love.

All Souls Mass

Each year on November 2nd, All Souls Day, we are given the opportunity to remember, and if need be, to say goodbye to all our deceased loved ones, whether they died many years ago or during the past year. During the month of November, we get the chance to remember and to be thankful for all the important people in our lives who have passed from this life to eternal life. As the writer of the Book of Wisdom puts it, "The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are at peace." (Wisdom 3:1-3). Join us at the 4:30 Mass on November 2nd as we remember all souls and especially for those named below who had a funeral Mass here at St. Anthony Church:

Frederick Bonyai	Anne Gugliotti	Camille Perugini
Angela Brunetti	Richard Irwin	Grace Perugini
Julia Burrows	Anne Lavorgna	Elaine Pizzuto
Americo Costa, Jr.	Christina Luddy	Francis Prenez, Jr.
