Roni Handler, Rabbi

Over the last several weeks BTBJ has been thrilled to join with Jewish communities from all over the greater Philadelphia area to celebrate 75 years since Israel's Declaration of Independence. From the Community Mitzvah Day on April 23 at the Horsham Center for Jewish Life and the blood drive at Or Hadash, to our BTBJ Israel 75 Shabbat dinner on April 28th to the upcoming celebration on Sunday, May 7th in Wynnwood, this has been a month filled with celebrations. Each gathering has served as a reminder of the importance to support and appreciate Klal Yisrael, the Jewish people.

When reading our ancient texts, in which the Jewish people long to return their land, the existence of the modern state of Israel continues to feel nothing short of miraculous. And for those who have been fortunate enough to travel or spend time in this holy land, you too have had the opportunity to experience this miracle firsthand. In fact, the rabbis of the Rabbinical Assembly also recognized the miracle that is the state of Israel, and just as we add a paragraph to our Amidah known as "Al Hanissim" on Hanukkah and Purim to rejoice in the miracles of these holidays, so too did they create an "Al Hanissim" insertion specifically to be recited on Yom Ha'atzmaut, Israeli Independence Day:

"We thank You for the miraculous deliverance, for the heroism, and for the triumphs of our ancestors from ancient days until our time. In the days when Your children were returning to their borders, at the time when our people took root in its land as in days of old, the gates to the land of our ancestors were closed before those who were fleeing the sword. When enemies from within the land, together with seven neighboring nations, sought to annihilate Your people, You, in Your great mercy, stood by them in time of trouble. You defended them and vindicated them. You gave them courage to meet their foes, to open the gates to those seeking refuge, and to free the land of its armed invaders. You delivered the many into the hands of the few, the guilty into the hands of the innocent. You have revealed Your glory and Your holiness to all the world, achieving great victories and miraculous deliverance for Your people Israel to this day."

May we continue to immerse ourselves in the culture, food, music, language, history and current events of the land and people of Israel. May we celebrate her successes and mourn her losses, and may we dedicate ourselves to always learn about and support the thriving communities on the ground, until such a time that we merit a return (or first time) trip to this holy land. I hope to see you on Sunday May 7th for our community celebration of Israel 75!

President's Message

Alana F. Dunoff,
BTBJ President

A Fresh Perspective

Shalom to my BTBJ Community,

On Saturday morning I arrived at BTBJ a little late for services, about 10:15am. The parking lot was filled, the sanctuary was packed, and Val was opening the folding wall to add more chairs – 160 attendees for a B'nai Mitzvah. It was a beautiful sight.

These days when I attend services, I tend to make my way up to the front, seems like it's the right place to be for the President. But because it was so crowded, I slipped into one of the seats that were being set up in the back and joined the community as the ark was being opened.

It's been a while since I sat in the back, and as I settled in, I took in the change of scenery – at first it was mostly backs of heads. But turns out, when you sit in the back, you really get a unique view of the entire Bimah. From this vantage point, the activities, rituals, songs, and movements on the Bimah all look like a well-choreographed show.

On this particular morning, the Bimah was absolutely alive with grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and parents all reading Torah and chanting the Aliyah blessings. Rabbi Roni and Cantor Benjamin were completely in sync with songs and prayers and managed the flow of the family, friends, and community members who were all lending their voices to the service.

From the back of the sanctuary, I was watching in real time, l'dor v'dor, generation to generation, family members participating in age old traditions and celebrating the rite of passage with the Bat Mitzvah girl. I heard the cherished words of family members bestowing their wishes and pride. And I listened to the Bat Mitzvah deliver her thoughtful D'var Torah and connect it to her passion for animals, specifically sea turtles. And then, from my perch, as I looked at the back of the heads of all the attendees, I realized that I was literally looking at a sea of sea turtles – because the kippot given out, were lovingly crocheted with sea turtles on them, so the sanctuary was filled with dozens of sea turtles!

It was a picture, a perspective, I would have missed sitting in the front row. I am so glad I was a little late – I would have completely missed this special moment. Over the past few days, I have been sharing this experience with others because it filled me with such joy, the joy of a family and a community coming together to celebrate.

Then tonight, 3 days later, I attended another life cycle event, a shiva. The home was packed with family, friends, co-workers, and community members all there to comfort the mourners and honor a life well lived. As we began minyan, I closed my eyes and listened to the house full of voices rising up in prayer. And what struck me at this moment was that everyone in the room was chanting the blessings together and was actively participating in this age-old tradition. Both experiences were reminders to me of how truly vibrant and special our community is. Over just a few days, I witnessed our community coming together to participate in 2 very different Jewish traditions passed on for centuries. One marking the beginning of Jewish adulthood and one marking the end. I am not sure I have ever felt the strength of our heritage and the bond of our sacred BTBJ community as profoundly as I did in these back-to-back moments.

We are indeed a Kehillah Kedoshah filled with the kindest of people and I am so grateful to be a part of it all.

BTBJ Men's Club

Warren Chiara,
Men's Club
President

Well, it's a wrap. My first year as Men's Club president is ending with our Steak Dinner being our final event. We had a pretty packed calendar and all of our events were well attended. Lessons learned? Don't hold a golf tournament in November. Though it was a chilly day, we had 14 members participate, so all-in-all it was a fairly good turnout. Our poker nights were well attended, too, as was our paid-up dinner and the World Wide Wrap.

I won't go through all of our events one by one, but will, instead, focus on our Men's Club New York City trip. We had a wonderful time walking through So Ho and the Lower East Side. We stopped at Russ & Daughters, Economy Candy, and the Pickle Guys before beginning our guided tour of the still-active Bialystoker Synagogue and the former Eldridge Street Synagogue, which is now a museum. The walking tour took us through once-active Jewish communities where we learned the history of how Jewish and Irish immigrants to this country came to settle in tenements in the area.

We then headed to midtown to enjoy a wonderful evening of food and comradery at a kosher steak house where we ate (and drank) far too much. It was a great time had by all, and hopefully more of you will be able to join us next time. Speaking of steak, as mentioned our last event is steak dinner on May 7. We will get together with a cocktail hour at 5:30 p.m. followed by the presentation of the Sol H. Schwartz Man of the Year Award and then dinner at 6:30 p.m. I hope that many of you have already registered for what will be a great night of celebration to honor our Sol H. Schwartz Man of the Year winner and celebrate a successful Men's Club year.

In closing I would like to thank Val and Kathy Gordon for supporting me this year by creating flyers and arranging all of our catering and custodial services for the year. Without their help, we certainly would not have accomplished as much as we did.

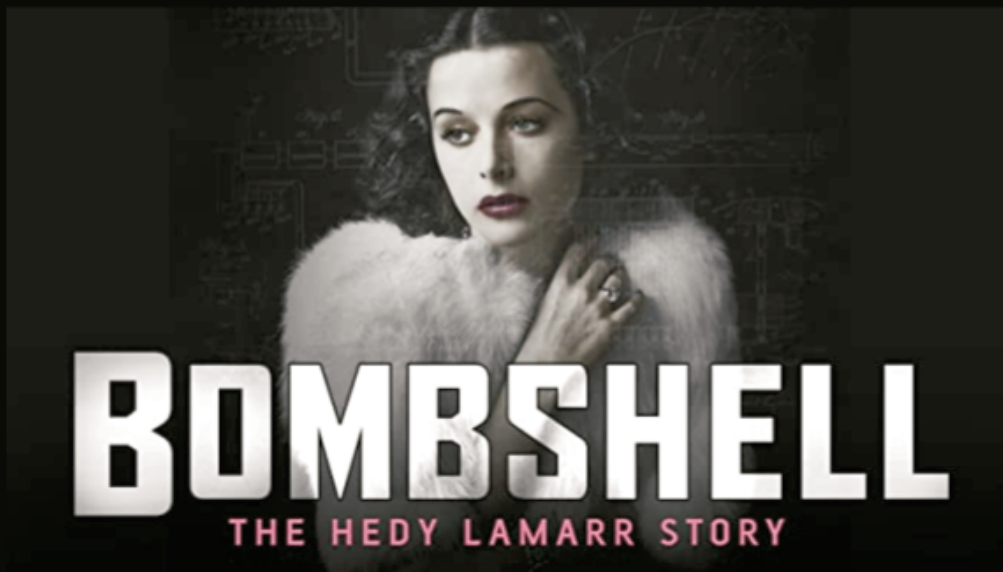

Thank You and Shalom!

Warren Chiara

Cooper Kanze
Son of Kylie and David
Brother of Cassidy
Becomes a Bar Mitzvah on
May 13, 2023

Cooper is an incredible kid. He is gracious, kind, flip-pant and sarcastic, forgiving, caring, strong and loyal. He is the hardest working kid we know. If he puts his mind to something, he will succeed at it. He absolutely loves hockey and recently made a Tier 1 AAA hockey team, but this is not enough for him. Now he wants to win it all with that team. We love Cooper's tenacity on and off the ice. He is always willing to help a teammate or a friend or a family member. He says thank you when you buy him things. He holds doors for people. And he always wants to do things right.

His tenacity, love of hockey and wanting to do good rolled right into his mitzvah project. The project consisted of him collecting and donating used sports equipment to Leveling the Playing Field, a company that takes used sports equipment and puts it in the hands of underserved kids. Cooper wants all kids to have the same opportunity to play hockey that he has had so he thought this was the best way to do that. He collected and donated $13,023 in equipment to Leveling the Playing Field. We are so proud of him for this endeavour and overall.

Alexandra Leigh Steinberg
Daughter of
Lauren and Bobby Steinberg
Sister of Jake
Becomes a Bat Mitzvah on
May 20, 2023

Alexandra Leigh Steinberg will become a Bat Mitzvah on May 20, 2023. Alex is a 7th grade honor roll student at Colonial Middle School. She loves sports: soccer, softball, and dance. She enjoys reading and writing. Camp Green Lane is her second home and she cannot wait to get there every summer.

Alex's mitzvah project was to volunteer time at the Mitzvah Circle, a place where she and her mom had volunteered many times in the past. Alex brought a group of friends and family to the Mitzvah Circle where they spent about 2 hours packing clothes and essentials for needy families. This experience was meaningful to everyone involved because many of the people attending expressed an interest in coming back to volunteer.

We are so proud of Alex and all the hard work she has put into becoming a Bat Mitzvah. Alex would like to thank Cantor Benjamin, Rabbi Roni, and all her religious school teachers. She cannot wait to celebrate with her proud parents, brother Jake, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Shayne Goldblum
Son of Michelle and Jake
Brother of Madison
Becomes a Bar Mitzvah
on May 27, 2023

Shayne is so excited to become a Bar Mitzvah and he has been working extremely hard to prepare for his special day. Shayne has been going to BTBJ since he was one years old and really grew up at the synagogue. To make the day even more special, Shayne is going to have the party after the service, at his grandparent's house where his father and both of his uncles also had their Bar Mitzvah celebrations. Right now, Shayne is in the 7th grade at Colonial Middle school and his favorite classes are Computer Programming and Science. His teachers always praise him for being so enthusiastic and kind to everyone around him and is very good working on team projects. Shayne is an excellent student and was able to make honor roll every semester.

Outside of the classroom, Shayne was on two sports teams this year at CMS. His favorite sport right now is tennis, which he plays at Colonial Middle school's team and practices three times a week at Upper Dublin Sports. He really loves to play tennis against his friends and his dad. You can always call Shayne whenever you want to rally or just hit for fun. The other sport that Shayne loves to do is cross country which he has been running 5k races and Spartan races with his dad since he was 6 years old. Shayne did very well in cross country this year coming in the top ten for most races. During the summers, Shayne goes to Camp Lindenmere in the Poconos for sleep-away camp. He loves that he has the ability to choose all of the activities that he does throughout the day, especially tennis and coding. This summer, his sister Madison will be joining him at camp. When Shayne is not running or playing sports you can find him coding games on his computer using C# in a Unity environment. His parents decided early on if he was going to play Roblox or Minecraft for a few hours he might as well learn to code the games. Shayne has successfully built a bunch of games in Roblox and is working hard to learn the C# language. In school he has taken every Computer Programming class offered and hopes to carry this skill to high school, college, and someday get a job coding video games.

For Shayne's Mitzvah project he is collecting toys and games or individual monetary donations for Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Shayne wants to make sure when kids have to have extended visits at the hospital that they have toys and games to entertain themselves. Shayne set up a website and created a QR code to collect virtual donations to this cause. Shayne chose to donate to CHOP because he loves gaming so much and he wanted to make sick children have an opportunity to enjoy games as well. His goal is to raise $500 to donate towards CHOP and he is well on his way to exceed this goal. We are very proud of his commitment to such an important cause.

We are so proud of all of Shayne's accomplishments and how dedicated he has been all year towards his preparation for his Bar Mitzvah. Thank you to all of Shayne's teachers and Val Hurwitz at BTBJ. This past year of preparation has been so rewarding thanks to the care and dedication of all of you. We would especially like to thank Rabbi Roni who helped Shayne understand his torah portion and gave some suggestions to help him prepare. We would also like to thank Cantor Benjamin who diligently and patiently went over all the Torah portion and prayers with Shayne every Thursday night and made sure he was prepared to lead services. Thank you to all our friend and family and we are honored and thrilled to share this simcha with all of you. We feel so lucky to be part of such a special community. Mazel Tov Shayne! We are so proud of you and can not wait to celebrate your special day!

Logan Jacob Rigberg
Son of
Rebecca Rigberg and
Ben Rigberg
Brother of Noah
Becomes a Bar Mitzvah
on June 3, 2023

Logan Jacob Rigberg is a rising seventh grader at Colonial Middle School. Academically, Logan has successfully made the Distinguished honor roll this year. Logan's determination and drive enabled him to do well as he navigated his way through the life of a middle schooler for the first time along with balancing his sports and Hebrew activities. When he is not studying hard, you can find him dribbling a ball up and down a court, throwing for a touchdown pass or being a social butterfly with his crew. Every summer, Logan joins his family away from home at Camp Green Lane. Having one continuous seven week long "sleepover" with his buddies from near and far is exhilarating! He loves soaking up the sun while playing sports all day long.

In addition to being active, Logan is also a die hard sports fan. He especially loves cheering on his Philadelphia favorites along with his hometown Plymouth Whitemarsh Colonials as they attempt to secure championships. Logan's loyalty stretches farther than sports. He is a devoted friend and loving little brother. Not only is Logan a sincere and compassionate young man, he is also inquisitive about the world around him. He is always asking questions that peak his curiosity. When he is not searching for answers, Logan can be seen trying to persuade someone to see his point of view. He is referred to as "Monty Hall" because he loves a good argument and is relentless in his defense to try to convince someone to see his side, especially when it comes to trying to have friends over for a night of shenanigans or picking up a special sugary delight to end the day. Most importantly, Logan's charm and big smile will warm your heart. His quick wit and sarcastic humor can light up a room.

Even with a rigorous sports schedule and the transition to middle school, Logan did a remarkable job preparing for his Bar Mitzvah. He powered through his lengthy haftorah and practiced his prayers nightly. One of the biggest components and most meaningful part of his Bar Mitzvah is his project. Logan wanted to choose wisely when selecting his idea for a mitzvah. After much pondering, he decided to pick a project that would be very near and dear to his heart. Someone he loves suffers from migraines everyday so he wanted to do something that could not only impact his Aunt Jennifer, but also might help other people in similar situations. Logan worked with his family to help coordinate a 3 v 3 basketball tournament to raise money for migraine research. He helped to secure sponsors, get his peers to sign up, and wrote an email to get a Food Truck to support us on the evening of the tournament. Hoops for Headaches was held on April 21st at Elite Sports Factory in Manayunk. The kids had a blast while collecting tzedakah for a good cause! All of the proceeds will go to The American Migraine Foundation in hopes that one day there will be more knowledge about how to control this debilitating sickness.

Logan has been a part of this special BTBJ family since pre-school. He would like to thank Rabbi Roni, Cantor Benjamin, and Val Hurwitz for providing him the foundation to understand his Jewish Heritage. Through their guidance he has been able to see the significance of being a part of the Jewish Community. We would like to share a special shout out to Karyn Salkin for spending endless hours, overcoming lots of "ailments" and snack breaks while preparing Logan for this special day and empowering him with the confidence he needed to stand proudly on the Bimah.

Logan's family and friends are very proud of him for his accomplishments. Mazel Tov!
