Religious Articles Store

Our Religious Articles Store is located in Room #112 in the parish center and open Monday through Thursday 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and after all weekend Masses. Stop on in and see what we have to offer.

Just a reminder, if you would like a Mass celebrated quickly but can't get on the list at the parish, you can have an unannounced Mass. I will either have a retired priest or my priest friend in the diplomatic corps celebrate the Mass. Just a reminder.

This past Wednesday we continued an annual tradition and allowed Surfers Healing to use our metal folding chairs for the day. If you're unaware of Surfers Healing, their "mission is to enrich the lives of people living with autism by exposing them to the unique experience of surfing. They had 4,500+ participants at [their] surf camps last year – and... autism now affects 1 in 68 US children." It's always great to stop on by and see the good work they do. Let us continue to pray for all of those with disabilities, our brothers and sisters in Christ. Below are words from Pope Francis that I think speak well to our care for all.

"On the occasion of the International Day of Persons with Disabilities, we renew our gaze of faith, which sees in each brother and sister the presence of Christ Himself, Who considers every gesture of love towards one of His least brothers to have been made to Himself (cf. Gospel of Matthew 25: 40). On this occasion, I would like to recall how today the promotion of the right to participation plays a central role in combating discrimination and promoting the culture of encounter and quality of life.

Great progress has been made towards people with disabilities in the medical and welfare fields, but still today we see the presence of the throwaway culture, and many of them feel that they exist without belonging and without participating. All this calls not only for the rights of people with disabilities and their families to be protected, but it also exhorts us to make the world more human by removing everything that prevents them from having full citizenship, the obstacles of prejudice, and by promoting the accessibility of places and quality of life, taking into account of all the dimensions of the human being.

It is necessary to care for and accompany persons with disabilities in every condition of life, also making use of current technologies but without regarding them as absolute; with strength and tenderness, to take on board situations of marginalization; and to make way alongside them and to "anoint" them with dignity for an active participation in the civil and ecclesial community. It is a demanding, even tiring journey, which will increasingly contribute to forming consciences capable of recognizing that each one of us is a unique and unrepeatable person.

And let us not forget the many "hidden exiles", who live within our homes, our families, our societies (cf. Angelus, 29 December 2013; Address to the Diplomatic Corps, 12 January 2015). I think of people of every age, especially the elderly who, also due to disabilities, are at times considered a burden, a "cumbersome presence", and risk being discarded, of being denied concrete job prospects for the construction of their future.

We are called to recognize in every person with disabilities, even with complex and grave disabilities, a unique contribution to the common good through his or her own original life story. To acknowledge the dignity of each person, well aware that this does not depend on the functionality of the five senses (cf. Discussion with the participants in the Convention of the CEI on disability, 11 June 2016). This conversion is taught by the Gospel. It is necessary to develop antibodies against a culture that considers some lives to be "League A" and others "League B": this is a social sin! To have the courage to give a voice to those who are discriminated against for their condition of disability, since unfortunately in some countries, still today, they are not recognized as persons of equal dignity, as brothers and sisters in humanity.

Indeed, making good laws and breaking down physical barriers is important, but it is not enough, if the mentality does not change, if we do not overcome a widespread culture that continues to produce inequalities, preventing people with disabilities from actively participating in ordinary life.

In recent years inclusive processes have been put in place and implemented, but this is still not enough, as prejudices generate, in addition to physical barriers, also limits to access to education for all, to employment and to participation. A person with disabilities, in order to build himself up, needs not only to exist but also to belong to a community.

I encourage all those who work with people with disabilities to continue with this important service and commitment, which determines the degree of civilization of a nation. And I pray that each person may feel the paternal gaze of God, who affirms his full dignity and the unconditional value of his life."

From the Vatican, 3 December 2019

From the desk of Trinette Stillman, Principal...

Welcome Back!!

It is the most beautiful time of the year! Teachers, students, and parents are gearing up for the upcoming school year. It is at this time, I would like to introduce myself as the new principal of Most Blessed Sacrament Catholic School. This will mark my 22nd year in Catholic School education. It is a privilege and an honor to work with students. As an educator, you have the opportunity to influence a child's decisions, behaviors, strengths, weaknesses and imagination. This principalship provides me the chance to work collaboratively with the teachers on a daily basis, while remaining connected to the young students as they develop the Mind, Body and Soul. We are truly blessed to spend our days assisting young people to see and understand the role of faith in daily life and in the larger society. Most recently, our families came together to help us shine up our building and grounds for our First Annual Family Clean-Up Day. It was amazing to witness our call to Love and Serve.

As we are moving closer to the new school year, are you looking for something more for your children's education? MBS has a major scholarship opportunity for new families joining our school community that can pay a large portion of tuition costs through graduation. The Cornerstone Educational Scholarship has been created by the owners of Mountaire Farms to encourage families in our area and their employees to consider a Christian education. Please call or email Mrs. Evans, our admissions director, for more information at 410-208-1600 or aevans@mbscs.org. There are limited spaces in most classes, so reach out as soon as possible.

Join us at Jolly Roger Amusement Parks on Friday, September 3rd!! We only have 100 wristbands for sale, and they are going fast. Wristbands are $35 per person, and includes Splash Mountain Waterpark, amusement rides at 2 locations and one free round of mini golf. Contact Mrs. Gunther, our office manager, at 410-208-1600 for details on how you can be part of this fun filled day!

Many blessing,

Trinette Stillman

We know how much everyone missed coming together for our Annual Christmas Bazaar so we will be working hard to make this year's the best ever!

To do that, we need everyone to pitch in. First, we have a lot of items left from 2019 so storage space is very limited. If you could save your items for the bazaar

(gently used and clean Christmas Items and Toys) and bring them to us in the fall, that would be greatly appreciated. We can take Jewelry now as it is small and easy to store. Second, we will need volunteers to help set up, work and clean up the bazaar. We will keep you updated as we get closer, however, mark your calendars, our Christmas Bazaar will be November 19 & 20, 2021:) THE ELVES ARE NOW MEETING EVERY WEDNESDAY AFTER MASS IN ROOM #120. EVERYONE IS WELCOME TO JOIN IN THE FUN AND LAUGHTER:)

Hello Friends,
It is that wonderful time of the year where my elves and I go out and about visiting business asking for donations for our parish Bazaar Auction. We try to get to everyone possible, however, if you do not hear from us, please feel free to send something over and if you would like to make a donation from your favorite store or restaurant to show them your support, that would be wonderful. Thanks much. -d-

Electronic Giving

Electronic giving (called WeShare) is the preferred way to make your weekly offertory. By giving electronically, it relieves the need for about 6 parishioners to count money every Sunday (about 10 hours total). Furthermore, the parish could eventually save money on envelope printing and mailing and you would not have to write checks. The Finance Council would also be able to budget more efficiently. Please consider making the switch; it is safe and secure. Cards are available in the back of church with instructions to join WeShare and have your offering sent electronically. You can also go to our website, www.stmarystaroftheseaocmd.com and go to the donate section and you will be guided to the site. If you need additional assistance setting this up, please don't hesitate to call the parish office (410-289-0652). Thank you for your continuing support.
