Religious Articles Store

Our Religious Articles Store is located in Room #112 in the parish center and open Monday through Thursday 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and after all weekend Masses. Stop on in and see what we have to offer.

A blessed Labor Day to all. This Tuesday is the first day back to school for our MBS students. I always enjoy visiting MBS and stopping by the classrooms to talk to the students. And so, I'm looking forward to this school year. I know many of the students are excited about seeing their friends again and learning (although not too excited about homework: some things don't change). With all of us especially attentive to the need for young people to be in school, let us pray that all of our students have a safe, holy, and educational year.

Just a reminder, this week is the last Sunday night 6 p.m. Mass for the season. So, beginning next week, there will be no 6 p.m. Mass.

Midweek Movie Night Movie with Father

Our next Midweek Movie Night Movie with Father will be on September 15th at 6 p.m. at Holy Savior Parish Hall. We will be showing the 2006 film Bella. A multiple award winner, Bella tells the story of a chef with a mysterious past who attempts to help a waitress who is faced with unexpected news and a challenging decision. Afterwards we will have a discussion led by myself. A wonderful pro-life film, Bella is 1 hour and 31 minutes long and is rated PG-13 for thematic elements and brief disturbing images. Popcorn, concessions, and drinks are all provided free of charge. We hope to see you there.

This Saturday is the feast day of Blessed Mary Stella and her Ten Companions: the Martyred Sisters of Nowogrodek. These 11 sisters sacrificed their lives on August 1, 1943. Here is their story.

On the evening of July 31, 1943, Sr. Mary Stella and the sisters were summoned to the police station in Nowogrodek (then part of occupied Poland; today, in Belarus). They spent the night praying in the building basement. Early the next morning, they were ordered into trucks, driven to the woods outside of town, shot, and thrown into a mass grave.

The arrest and execution of the 11 Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth followed a period of mass arrests and executions in Nowogrodek. In the early days of World War II, the area was occupied by the Soviet Union. As Germany invaded the Soviet Union in 1941, that part of the Polish territory changed hands, with the Nazis seizing control. Though they permitted the sisters to wear their religious habits and live together in the convent (not permitted by the Soviets), the Nazis proved to be a more brutal occupying force.

The diverse population of Nowogrodek had been about 50 percent Jewish. Executions and deportations to 'work camps' decimated the Jewish community. Eventually, the Nazis turned their attention to the Polish population, rounding up prisoners for deportation and regularly executing men and youths. In early 1943, some 60 men – including two priests – were shot. Then in mid-July, 120 people, including men with families, were rounded up, marked for execution. The women of the town came to the sisters and begged them to pray for the prisoners' release. Sr. Mary Stella shared the sisters' prayer and decision with their chaplain, telling him, "My God, if sacrifice of life is needed, accept it from us and spare those who have families. We are even praying for this intention." Plans for these prisoners changed almost immediately; many were released; the rest deported to German work camps.

When the life of the parish priest was threatened, the sisters again prayed: "There is a greater need for a priest on this earth than for us. We pray that God will take us in his place, if sacrifice of life is needed." God accepted the sisters' sacrifice; the priest and his fellow prisoners were spared.

Before reporting to the police station on the evening of July 31, Sr. Mary Stella had asked Sr. Malgorzata Banas, a nurse in a government hospital, to stay behind at the convent, whatever happened, to take care of the church and the parish priest. Because she wore civilian clothing due to her job, it was easier for this 12th sister in Nowogrodek to heed Sr. Mary Stella's request. It was days before she and the townspeople knew the 11 sisters had been killed. Eventually, Sr. Malgorzata located their grave, quietly tending to it and the parish church during the war years and during the post-war Soviet occupation, until her death in 1966.

At their beatification on March 5, 2000, Pope John Paul II declared September 4 as their feast day.

Let us pray that Blessed Mary Stella and Companions may intercede for us, that we may have peace in our world, especially in places where freedom of religion is threatened.

GOSPEL MEDITATION
- ENCOURAGE DEEP-ER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

September 5, 2021

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the time we are born into this world until we die, our human radar picks up signals about how to respond to life. What we picked up on when we were very young carries an even greater power. The messages we receive and process tell us what we are "supposed" to do with our feelings, how to understand and cope with disappointment, anxiety, failure, death, illness, and what to expect out of life. As life unfolds for us, these radar messages kick in and resonate in us at very deep levels. Sometimes what we have learned is helpful and sometimes it is not. The stories we have been told, especially when we are young, about how life is best lived and how to negotiate its pain carry a heavy weight.

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. It also can be quite unpredictable and, at times, unfair. We face our vulnerability and brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. It doesn't take much for life to quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar and true is gone and something we relied upon, physically, emotionally, or spiritually, can be taken away. It is hard to confront our limitations and sit with our incompleteness. Often, life hurts us so much that we find ourselves sitting in a pool of sadness, not sure what we are supposed to do. It is particularly hard when the signals we have inherited tell us that we need to be successful in what we do, and we have to avoid life's unfairness. We can feel like a failure, wondering what precisely we did to deserve this fate, or ruminate about what we did not do correctly. But it's really not about us. We are part of a bigger picture and a much more fascinating story!

If we cease doing battle with life's incompleteness and see ourselves, as God does, on a journey toward wholeness and completeness we can better accept our disappointments and stand firm. The prophets told us, and Jesus reassured us: Be strong! Fear not! Sometimes we have to update our stories and replace them with newer, more accurate ones. When we make God's story our own and tune our radar into His voice, what we hear is all about restoration, healing, and rejuvenation! This is true even when we think we have hit rock bottom and can go no further. There is always hope. Remember the words of Julian of Norwich: God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. Now, listen to God when He says, "be opened!" Be healed and allow your stories to change.

Hello Friends,
 It is that wonderful time of the year where my elves and I go out and about visiting business asking for donations for our parish Bazaar Auction. We are asking for goods or gift cards and are hopeful that we will fill lots of baskets. We try to get to everyone possible, however, if you do not hear from us, please feel free to send something over and if you would like to make a donation from your favorite store or restaurant to show them your support, that would be wonderful. Thanks much. -d-

Electronic Giving

Electronic giving (called WeShare) is the preferred way to make your weekly offertory. By giving electronically, it relieves the need for about 6 parishioners to count money every Sunday (about 10 hours total). Furthermore, the parish could eventually save money on envelope printing and mailing and you would not have to write checks. The Finance Council would also be able to budget more efficiently. Please consider making the switch; it is safe and secure. Cards are available in the back of church with instructions to join WeShare and have your offering sent electronically. You can also go to our website, www.stmarystaroftheseaocmd.com and go to the donate section and you will be guided to the site. If you need additional assistance setting this up, please don't hesitate to call the parish office (410-289-0652). Thank you for your continuing support.

Tax Free Charitable Distribution

Need a tax break? Congress has permanently enacted qualified charitable distributions from your traditional IRA accounts. These distributions can be used to satisfy all or a portion of your Required Minimum Distribution and are free of federal and state income tax. Also, these gifts help you avoid the Medicare high income surcharge and can help reduce your income taxes on your social security benefits.

Distributions must be made directly from your IRA account to St. Mary Star of the Sea Catholic Church. For questions, contact the parish office at 410-289-0652
