Religious Articles Store

Our Religious Articles Store is located in Room #112 in the parish center and open Monday through Thursday 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and after all weekend Masses. Stop on in and see what we have to offer.

Congratulations to Vicky Le and Peter Fasano who were married at Holy Savior last weekend. May God continue to call our young people to the married life and give them great joy in their vocation.

October 14th-21st I will be away on vacation with some priest buddies. Masses will be covered, and I'm sure we'll be very welcoming to our visiting priests. And let's say a special prayer for our priests who help out; it's a great blessing to me that allows some vacation time, especially being the only priest assigned here.

That following week, October 25th-28th is our Priests' Mandatory Retreat. There will be no Masses that week as we are all going to be away (I'll take the intentions and celebrate them on retreat). This will be our first big gathering of all the priests since Covid started and will be doubly exciting, since we will have our new bishop with us. Please continue to pray for us priests and may the time of retreat be one of refreshment and renewal.

As mentioned last week, this Monday the 27th is the Feast of St. Mary Star of the Sea. We'll be celebrating Mass at St. Mary's and not Holy Savior that day. After Mass we will have some refreshments. Additionally, the office will be closed that day. Let us celebrate our parish patron with appropriate pomp and ceremony; have a special meal or go out to eat that night. Especially during these turbulent times, we need the motherly guidance of Our Blessed Mother more than ever. Thankfully, both she and her Son are always faithful and continue to watch over us and guide us.

Two days later, the 29th, is the Feast of Ss. Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, archangels. St. Michael the Archangel is, among other things, the patron of policemen. We'll be bringing sweets to our local police department along with the assurance of our prayers. If you want to bake something, please contact the office about when you can drop it off. Thank you and let us continue to keep those who serve us in our prayers, that they may continue to be kept safe.

Mark your calendar for our next movie night. Wednesday, October 13th at 6:00 p.m. This month's was another success, albeit for an emotional movie. (More than a few tears were shed). I'll try to get a comedy this time:)

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What are the little ones? They are the poor, the marginalized, the women and men at the well, the Zacchaeus' looking for Jesus from a tree, those mired in sin, the blind who want to see, and the lame who want to walk. They are the lepers and the different ones who have been told that they are unclean, and the ones who suffer from abuse and grave injustices and oppression. They are children who want nothing more than to be loved and enjoy celebrating their innocence. These are all the little ones and they are all vulnerable. Life already brings them burdens, we don't need to add to them.

St. Oscar Romero said, "When the church hears the cry of the oppressed it cannot but denounce the social structures that give rise to and perpetuate the misery from which the cry arises." Why are so many people still so gravely hurting? We have the resources and the means to make things better. We choose not to. There are still those things called greed, pride, lust, apathy, jealousy, gluttony, and anger that prevent us from seeing each other and people to be loved and not objects to be used. Is this how God intended things to be?

God loves what is good and upright. It doesn't matter who did it or where it came from. In God's eyes, the end result is always faith, hope, and love. Those will always unite a person with God. We fill our lives with many things that are not good either for ourselves or for others. All of us have to work to discover what it is, exactly, that leads to the world's brokenness. There are people, systems, and ideologies in place that foster oppression and injustice rather than equity and fairness. Sadly, our complacency can be the greatest evil. Turning a blind eye, ignoring the truth, and believing that we are helpless to fix so great a problem, does little to move us closer to the kingdom of God. As members of the Body of Christ, we cannot condone anything that keeps people in misery.

As it is said, charity begins at home. Perhaps a good place to start is with our own households and making sure their foundations are properly laid.

There is nothing like the joy and the energy of the children. They breathe life back into the cold building!! I miss them in the summer, except of course for VBS week (Side note remember VBS 2022 Theme is Monumental Celebrating God's Greatness...so as you hit yard sales or clean out closets think South West ~tans/oranges, desert cactus, tents) So I am happy to be underway in a relatively normal way.

Sharing the Gospel

The disciples started to feel proud because they thought they were the "in" group of friends of Jesus. One day they saw a complete stranger working powerful miracles in the name of Jesus. The disciples told the stranger to stop because he was not part of their special group. The disciples should have encouraged him instead.

Prayer

Dear God, help me to work side-by-side with other people who love Jesus, no matter who they are.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of yourself helping another Christian who does not belong to your church.

Mission for the Week

Pray for missionaries around the world who teach others about Jesus.

The September Gospel passage (Luke 24:13-32) is a wonderful reflection for us and for our students since we come to school to walk with the Lord, to learn from Him, and to recognize Him in the Eucharist. The first several days of school have been a COVID challenge, but the Lord continues to walk us as Companions on the Journey. Getting connected at MBS is one of the best ways to help our children and community thrive. We are looking for sponsors for our events to help make them a success! If your family or business would like to sponsor one of our future fundraising events, or you know of a business who would, please call the school office at 410-208-1600 for information or email HSA@mbscs.org. In addition, HSA would love to provide our school staff with a special lunch each month on spirit day and show them how much we appreciate them. If your family or business would like to sponsor a lunch, please email HSA@mbscs.org
