Respect Life Committee

A prayer for a new respect for life and for a conversion of heart.

God, our Creator, we give thanks to you, who alone have the power to impart the breath of life as you knit each of us together and fashioned our inmost being in our mother's womb; grant we pray, that we, whom you have made stewards of creation may remain faithful to this sacred trust and constant in safeguarding the dignity of every human life.

We pray also for the conversion in those who allow a culture of death, most especially those charged with public office; that they may see and acknowledge the truth and recognize their ongoing responsibility to guard and defend every human life from conception to natural death.

We ask this in the most holy name of Jesus,
our brother and Lord. Amen

THE CHOSEN

Come and see the City of Jerusalem and the miracle at the Pool of Bethesda. You will also be introduced to another of the Twelve in this exciting, action-packed episode. Join us to watch Episode 4 of Season 3 of The Chosen in Dwyer Hall on Wednesday, July 6th at 7 p.m. and enjoy a lively discussion afterwards with fellow parishioners. Feel free to bring your own snacks and refreshments.

Baby Bottle Drive:

The Alight Center's Baby Bottle Drive began in June. This is their biggest fundraiser. It is a chance for our community to have a hands-on involvement in a ministry that saves the lives of unborn children and makes a difference in their mother's lives. Baby bottles are in a basket on the table in the Commons. Take one home and fill it with either currency, checks, and/or coins. Please remember they do not receive any monetary governmental support. Filled bottles need to be returned by Sunday, September 5th to Mary Burntitus.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS:

Please consider joining our Wednesday morning work crew. No experience required, only a willingness to help keep our church buildings and grounds in good repair and looking beautiful!

Bruce's Notes:

In today's Gospel (Luke 10:1-12, 17-20) Jesus sends out his disciples to spread his healing, holy mission, to cure the sick and proclaim the Good News that the Kingdom of God is at hand. Let's remember, as always, that Jesus is talking to us, today, not only to 72 people he sent out two thousand years ago. He wants us to continue the mission. But how? What can I do, what can you do, today, in our own daily lives, to fulfill this mission? Here are two aspects to consider on this question.

First, and very important, is who are you? What kinds of help do you offer others just naturally, from the core of who you are? I know one person who is very generous with gifts, another person who is by nature skilled at talking others through their pain and struggle, someone else who is always there to listen, and yet another who testifies to the Truth in a way that inspires others. Knowing and trusting our own core, built-in abilities can inspire us and help us understand how we can best continue our Christian mission.

The second aspect to consider is, of course, who the person is that you perceive is needing help. Who needs what kind of help? Who needs what kind of sharing of the Good News? Sometimes we are called to step way outside of our comfort zone to meet a need right in front of us. It may not be something we do so easily or something we want to face, but the need calls out to us clearly that it needs to be addressed. Soon. Now. And so we dig deep and try to meet the need the best we can. That is what we are called to do; it is actually all that we are called to do, in order to love our neighbor as our self.

Jesus does guarantee us that if we offer peace to a peaceful person, it will rest on that person, obviously bringing healing. If the person is not so peaceful, then our peace returns to us. It's a win-win situation; our peace has no limits, and it cannot be taken away from us. It is always there within us—even if we sometimes lose sight of it for a while. And peace is also always there, somewhere within the other person, just waiting to be perceived, activated, nurtured. Part of our challenge is to find ways to connect our inner peace with theirs, so that we can help heal them...and be healed ourselves.

Call for Eucharistic Ministers to serve at Mass:

Let me extend an invitation to all for a great way to serve our Lord, and our fellow parishioners. Having more Eucharistic ministers would be a huge help for our parish.

If you are willing to serve at Mass, especially on Saturday nights, please see Chris Dellea ASAP. All it takes is a short training and installation.
