bishopbarron St. Teresa of Calcutta, friend of the poor and dying, pray for us!

Proper Reception of Holy Communion

Since Sunday Masses resumed on June 14th, I have made an announcement before distributing Holy Communion. I have done this for several reasons. First, and most importantly, many have not been properly taught, or they have forgotten, how to properly receive Holy Communion. This is of the utmost importance because what we do affects what we believe. Faith in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist is waning. We need to do all we can, therefore, to bolster people's faith in this amazing gift of Jesus' True, Flesh-and-Blood Presence among us. Second, I needed to explain how to line up along the altar rail and let you know you have the option of receiving either standing or kneeling. If you are sitting together in the pew, you may kneel/stand together at the altar rail. When you arrive at the first pew, if you are first in line, go to the far end of the altar rail where the kneeler pad begins. Do not stop half-way down. If you receive Holy Communion in the hand: 1) Remove your mask before I present the Body of Christ to you. 2) Place your hands one on top of the other, not side by side, and keep them flat. 3) Do not move your hands or your thumbs until I have moved away so as to avoid contact with my fingers. 4) Consume the host immediately; do not walk away with Jesus in your hand.

If you receive Holy Communion on the tongue, do not move your head; keep it still and wait for Jesus to come to you. It is much easier while kneeling, so if you are able, please kneel. When I approach you, close your eyes and rotate your head upwards as if you are raising your eyes to heaven. If you keep your eyes open, the tendency is to react as the host is moving toward you, which makes it harder for me to give you Holy Communion. After receiving Holy Communion, it is the ancient tradition of the Church to return to your pew and make an act of thanksgiving, i.e. a prayer of gratitude to God for blessing you with the Holy Bread of Eternal Life. Third, I wanted to remind everyone to remain in church until I process out of the sanctuary at the end of Mass.

Support Groups Available

Help for those with same-sex attraction – Courage is an approved apostolate of the Catholic Church that counsels men and women with same-sex attractions (and/or gender dysphoria) in living chaste lives in fellowship, truth and love. Encourage is a ministry within Courage dedicated to the spiritual needs of parents, siblings, children and other relatives and friends of persons who have same-sex attractions. Supporting the true teachings of the Catholic Church, Encourage members support one another and their loved ones through discussion, prayer and fellowship. For more information or for more information about a Courage or Encourage group near you, visit couragerc.org or call 203-803-1564.

RCIA Classes to Begin

On Tuesday, September 1st at 6pm at Annunciation Parish Center, Rm 4, the RCIA Program for adults interested in becoming a member of the Catholic Church, or who were baptized as Catholics but have not received First Holy Communion and/or Confirmation will begin. If interested but cannot make it to the informational meeting, or if need directions/questions please call the parish office at 315-894-3766 (Annunciation) or 315-894-2360 (Queen of Apostles).

CHANGES TO THE BISHOP'S APPEAL

We want to let you know about a few changes to the annual campaign formerly known as the Bishop's Appeal:

The campaign will now be known as the Diocesan Appeal and themed, "For we walk by faith, not by sight." (2 Corinthians 5:7)

- There will no longer be "in-pew" collection of pledges.
- The 2020-2021 Diocesan Appeal will begin with a mailing sent to parishioners from the Roman Catholic Diocese of Albany (RCDA) - Office of Stewardship and Development. You should expect to receive this correspondence between now and early September; it will include a pledge card and envelope.
- Pledges and payments will no longer be processed in the parish office.
- The appeal year runs through June 30, 2021 (rather than ending in March as in the past).
- Monthly or one-time gifts by credit card can be made via secure website at donate.thediocesanappeal.org. You can also make a pledge at that site as well as pledge payments.
- For more information on the appeal, visit www.thediocesanappeal.org.
- Questions - call the RCDA Office of Stewardship & Development at 518-453-6680 or email stewardship@rcda.org

As the Diocese serves as a critical partner with us in serving you, we thank you in advance for your prayerful consideration of a pledge to the Diocesan Appeal.

St. Gregory the Great - Feast Day September 3rd

St. Gregory the Great was Pope from 590 to 604 and is known for his contributions to the Liturgy of the Mass. He built 6 monasteries in Sicily and founded a seventh in his home in Rome. He is one of the four great Doctors of the Latin Church and the first monk to become Pope. Despite his bodily ails and the frightful times he lived in, it has been said that no teacher of equal eminence has arisen in the Church. Gregorian Masses, which take their name from St. Gregory the Great, are a series of Holy Masses traditionally offered on 30 consecutive days as soon as possible after a person's death. They are offered for an individual soul.

Patronage: #evolutionarystudies, #Palermo

Born in Palermo, little is known of #SaintRosalia. To be closer to God she lived her life in the seclusion of a cave and practiced many penitential acts. In 1624, many years after her death she appeared to a hunter and led him to her remains. Inscribed in the walls of the cave were the words, "I, Rosalia, daughter of Sinibald, Lord of Roses, and Quisquina, have taken the resolution to live in this cave for the love of my Lord, Jesus Christ." At this time the island of Sicily was experiencing a terrible plague, and after parading her relics through the city, the plague miraculously ended.
