“As I Walk This Way”

Dear Parishioners,

Merry Christmas to all and Welcome to those who are visiting our Church during this Christmas season. You are always welcome here! If you are looking for a spiritual home, I hope you will join us for future liturgies. There is always a place for you at our two churches. Thank you to everyone who helped to prepare for this wonderful feast of Christmas. Our two Churches look so beautiful inside and out. As you know, these efforts of decorating and preparing our sacred spaces, our liturgies, and our outreach is only done thanks to many people working together. Thank you to all!

After an extensive search and gaining insights from an interview committee made up of staff members and parishioners, we are pleased to announce that we have hired a new director of Faith Formation at Saint Charles Borromeo and Holy Cross Churches. Mr. Amanuel Malik will begin his ministry of leading the catechetical programs at both parishes. He brings both the experience of working in Faith Formation, along with work as a respected educator. Amanuel will bring to this position, his creativity and passion for sharing the faith. With Amanuel joining the team, Mary Toot will be able to begin her well-deserved retirement. It is with deep gratitude that we thank Mary for her years of service and commitment to the Church, especially to our families in the Faith Formation Programs. It has been a joy to work alongside Mary. We have all benefited from her experiences, leadership and insights. We are happy that she is able to begin her retirement soon. Mary, thank you for the many ways you have helped all of us grow in our faith and love of Jesus Christ! Amanuel Malik will also work collaboratively on specific projects with Stephanie Hubbel who does an amazing job of coordinating our Family Faith Formation Program at Our Mother of Sorrows. “Building a Bridge to Christ.”

May the Joy and Love the Christ Child came to impart be a lasting blessing to all of us in these days and the year to come. In the Joy of Christmas,

Consecration to the Holy Family

O Lord Jesus, you lived in the home of Mary and Joseph in Nazareth. There you grew in age, wisdom, and grace as you prepared to fulfill your mission as our Redeemer.

We entrust our family to you.

O Blessed Mary, you are the Mother of our Savior. At Nazareth you cared for Jesus and nurtured him in the peace and joy of your home.

We entrust our family to you.

O Saint Joseph, you provided a secure and loving home for Jesus and Mary, and gave us a model of fatherhood while showing us the dignity of work.

We entrust our family to you.

Holy Family, we consecrate ourselves and our family to you. May we be completely united in a love that is lasting, faithful and open to the gift of new life. Help us to grow in virtue, to forgive one another from our hearts, and to live in peace all our days. Keep us strong in faith, persevering in prayer, diligent in our work, and generous toward those in need.

May our home, O Holy Family, truly become a domestic church where we reflect your example in our daily life. Amen.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!

Prayer composed by Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore, Supreme Chaplain.

Feast of the Holy Family

First Reading Sir 3:2-6, 12-14

God sets a father in honor over his children; a mother's authority he confirms over her sons. Whoever honors his father atones for sins, and preserves himself from them. When he prays, he is heard; he stores up riches who reveres his mother. Whoever honors his father is gladdened by children, and, when he prays, is heard. Whoever reveres his father will live a long life; he who obeys his father brings comfort to his mother.

My son, take care of your father when he is old; grieve him not as long as he lives. Even if his mind fail, be considerate of him; revile him not all the days of his life; kindness to a father will not be forgotten, firmly planted against the debt of your sins—a house raised in justice to ### Responsorial Psalm Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.

Second Reading Col 3:12-21

Brothers and sisters:
Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Wives, be subordinate to your husbands, as is proper in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and avoid any bitterness toward them. Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing to the Lord. Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they may not become discouraged.

Alleluia Col 3:15a, 16a

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Let the peace of Christ control your hearts;
Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Building a Bridge to Christ by Fr. William G. Coffas

God Our Father, Your Son, Jesus Christ, is "the way, the truth and the life" and His Holy Cross is the bridge of Mercy. Help us, your servants to build a bridge of nourishment to the hungry, a bridge of comfort to the suffering, a bridge of welcome to the lonely, a bridge of collaboration to the our sister parish, and a bridge of faith to all people through Your Sacraments. For You live and reign for ever and ever. Amen. Our Mother of Sorrows pray for us. +

Gospel Lk 2:41-52

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to St Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.
