THANK YOU!
¡GRACIAS!

Dear Friends,

I write with the news that change is in the air.

Bishop McManus, while grateful for all we have accomplished together as the Cathedral parish, has asked me to serve as the next pastor of the largest Church in the Diocese, Saint Cecilia's in Leominster. While I will miss this Cathedral community deeply (for the second time), I am thrilled to embark on this new adventure at the Church referred to by many as "the Cathedral of the North."

A thriving community build on Acadian roots, the spires of Saint Cecilia's reach to heaven with the power of the prayers of the diverse community of deep faith which worship there. With the death last spring of their beloved pastor, and my friend, Father Bob Bruso, the parish is anxious to write the next chapter in the story of the Church on French Hill.

The assignment takes effect on July 1st, and I am equally thrilled with the direction Bishop McManus has chosen for new leadership of the Cathedral. In recognition of the growing Hispanic community in our Cathedral Church, the Bishop has named Father Hugo Cano as your new Rector. I know you will give him a generous and affectionate welcome.

Father Diego Buriticá will remain as your Associate Pastor and I will still be directing the Office for Worship for the next year, so not everything is changing. In the weeks to come I will have the opportunity to speak directly to how much I will miss you. For now, I just ask for your prayers, as you are ever in mine.

God is always filled with surprises and it is our job to embrace them!

In the Lord,

Monsignor Moroney

Queridos amigos,

Escribo con la noticia de que el cambio está en el aire.

El obispo McManus, aunque agradecido por todo lo que hemos logrado juntos como parroquia de la Catedral, me ha pedido que sirva como el próximo pastor de la Iglesia más grande de la Diócesis, Santa Cecilia en Leominster. Si bien extrañaré profundamente a esta comunidad de la Catedral (por segunda vez), estoy encantado de embarcarme en esta nueva aventura en la Iglesia a la que muchos llaman "la Catedral del Norte".

Una comunidad próspera construida sobre raíces antiguas, las torres de Santa Cecilia alcanzan el cielo con el poder de las oraciones de la diversa comunidad de fe profunda que adora allí. Con la muerte en la primavera pasada de su amado párroco y de mi amigo, el padre Bob Bruso, la parroquia está ansiosa por escribir el próximo capítulo de la historia de la Iglesia en Leominster.

La asignación entra en vigencia el 1 de julio y estoy igualmente emocionado con la dirección que el obispo McManus ha elegido para el nuevo liderazgo de la Catedral. En reconocimiento a la creciente comunidad hispana en nuestra Iglesia Catedral, el Obispo ha nombrado al Padre Hugo Cano como su nuevo Rector. Sé que le darás una bienvenida generosa y afectuosa.

El Padre Diego Buriticá seguirá siendo su Pastor Asociado y yo seguiré dirigiendo la Oficina de Adoración durante el próximo año, así que no todo está cambiando. En las próximas semanas tendré la oportunidad de hablar directamente sobre cuánto te extrañaré. Por ahora, solo les pido sus oraciones, ya que siempre están en las mías.

¡Dios siempre está lleno de sorpresas y es nuestro trabajo abrazarlas!

En el Señor,

Monseñor Moroney
