FROM THE DEACON'S DESK

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Gospel reading this Sunday is not about the wine but about the people. It is a statement about the human condition. It is about you and me as much as it is about the people at the wedding in Cana of Galilee. It is about a spiritual condition. It is about our inner life, our way of being, more than the circumstances outside us. Regardless of how it feels or what we think about it, the day the wine runs out is the beginning of a miracle. Christ does not simply refill our glasses. He transforms our lives, turning water into wine. It is, after all, the third day, the day of resurrection and new life. On the third day, our lives are filled to the brim with the good wine when we heed Mary's request to do whatever Jesus tells us. What is Jesus asking us to do? When we do as he asks every moment of every day Christ pours himself into the empty jars of our life. He is the good wine; extravagant, abundant, and endless.

Every time that good wine is poured, our lives are changed and transformed. We are brought out of sin into righteousness, and out of death into life. I can't explain how that happens. I only know that it does happen. I have tasted the good wine. I have experienced the miracle at Cana in my own life and I have seen it in the lives of others. Has the wine in your life run out? Invite Jesus in and expect something miraculous.

God Bless,
Deacon Howard

2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." (1 CORINTHIANS 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charisms (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

Anne Arundel County Young Adult Ministry (ages 18-39 years)

January 27 - Young Adult Holy Hour with praise and worship! This is a monthly evening of praise and worship with Adoration at the St. John Neumann perpetual Adoration chapel (620 N. Bestgate Rd., Annapolis). Each evening begins at 7:30 p.m. Please enter the Adoration chapel via the side door on the right far side of SJN church near the Mary statue. The code to the door is 431.

Mass Greeters Needed

Could you give 15-20 minutes before the Mass that you are attending?

We could really use your help welcoming people as they come into Church.

- You choose your scheduled Mass and how often you greet.
- You can do it as a family.

If you are interested and can volunteer, please call Melissa at the parish office.

January FELLOWSHIP

We will NOT have fellowship this weekend. We hope to continue in February (3rd Sunday).

Pro- Life January Observances

On January 22, 1973, the Supreme Court legalized abortion throughout the United States in its companion decisions Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton. Since that time, millions have been wounded by abortion. During this month, we invite you to offer penitential prayer, fasting, and/or almsgiving. Below are some of the observances you may want to consider participating in as we unite together for protection of human life.

9 Days of Life- January 19-27. Get Daily Intentions brief reflections, and more.

Sign up <https://www.respectlife.org/9-days-for-life>

The National Prayer Vigil for Life- is an all-night pro-life prayer vigil held on the eve of the March for Life each January. Over 20,000 pilgrims from across the nation pray through the night for an end to abortion and a greater respect for all human life. It is held at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. Go to: <https://www.usccb.org/prolife/overnight-holy-hours-january>

January 22- is a particular day of prayer and penance, called the "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children": "In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 (or January 23, when January 22 falls on a Sunday) shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion.

St. Sebastian | January 20

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It Takes All Kinds

“If every flower wanted to be a rose,” wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, “spring would lose its loveliness.”

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of “varieties of tongues” might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, “Do whatever he tells you,” her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God’s instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God’s word?

The week of January 18-25 is the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity has a history of over 100 years, in which Christians around the world have taken part in an octave of prayer for visible Christian unity.

The theme for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in 2022 was chosen by the Middle East

Council of Churches. More than ever, in these difficult times, we need a light that shines in the darkness and that light, Christians proclaim, has been manifested in Jesus Christ.

We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship him. (Mt 2:2).

PRAYER

God of every nation, creator of every human life, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Word of God, has been made manifest in human history by becoming one of us and one with us. Born in a stable, born in homelessness, he is our King and Lord. The Magi bore witness to the Light of hope coming into the world as they faithfully followed the star, coming from foreign lands in the East, until arriving in Bethlehem of Judea.

The solidarity of God with created humanity in this gift of Epiphany calls us to a life of solidarity with the homeless, the refugee, the weakest and the rejected. We are all human beings worthy of redemption and prepared by that redeeming love to the glory of your Kingdom. Help us, O gracious Lord, to do this in unity and peace.

As we who bear the name of Christian, from the days of the church at Antioch, hold a special place in our hearts for the ancient Christian communities in the land we call holy, remind us to continually respond to our baptismal promises to you, who said through your Spirit at the Jordan, “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.”

Help your Church, merciful One, to be a light for unity within itself and a beacon of hope for all humanity. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who with you and the Holy Spirit reign as One God for ever and ever. Amen.

TRUE PEACE IS NOT MERELY THE ABSENCE OF TENSION; IT IS THE PRESENCE OF JUSTICE.

—MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

The Marriage Course

WHAT IS THE MARRIAGE COURSE?

The Marriage Course is a series of seven sessions, designed to help couples invest in their relationship and build a strong marriage. Nicky and Sila Lee, authors of The Marriage Book, developed The Marriage Course for couples looking for practical support to strengthen their relationship. The course is designed to help couples build strong foundations, learn to communicate more effectively and resolve differences well.

WHO IS IT FOR?

The Marriage Course is for couples who are seeking to strengthen their relationship. Some couples do the course to intentionally invest in their relationship, others are looking to address more specific challenges. Either way, the course offers essential tools and practical ideas to help you build a relationship that lasts a lifetime.

The Marriage Course is based on Christian principles but designed for all couples with or without a church background.

WHAT CAN WE EXPECT?

1. Eat together

Each session begins with couples eating together. This gives guests a chance to unwind and connect before the session's episode. It also helps to create the atmosphere of a date.

2. Watch episode

The episodes are around 45 minutes in length, with breaks for conversations. Each episode explores a different topic through real experiences, expert insights, and relevant teaching.

3. Talk privately

Providing space for couples to have private, intimate conversations is a must for every course. It helps enable couples to engage openly and honestly throughout the session.

SAFETY REMINDER

During times of inclement weather, floors may become wet and slippery. Please wear appropriate footwear and use caution when entering and leaving our church and other parish buildings.

St. Jane Frances will follow the Anne Arundel County school system for closings.

Monday-Friday:

If Anne Arundel County closes schools or announces a delay, we will NOT have daily Mass or Communion Service as well as any evening activities.

We will send out a Flocknote, and post announcements on social media.

When schools open late, we will not have daily Mass or Communion Service in the morning. We will reassess evening activities.

If Anne Arundel County Schools are Code RED the parish office will be closed.
