Knight's In Action

Knights Bob, Dan and Wayne set up three crosses in front of the church to memorialize the Crucifixion while representing the triumphant defeat of death in the Resurrection.

We sincerely thank our cheerful Master of Ceremonies, Ken Mandoli, along with the Stewardship Committee, The Rosary Society, The Knights of Columbus, Mrs. Kopka, and the Religious Education volunteers, Easter Bunny Sadie Erling, and Carrot Charlotte Letko. 116 children participated in our Annual Easter Egg Hunt, and 2,455 eggs were collected from the Parish Center lawn.

Divine Mercy Sunday
 Holy Hour — April 12th at 3 PM

On the first Sunday after Easter, April 12th Divine Mercy Sunday — we, as Catholic Christians are obliged to honor the image of Jesus pouring out his HEART'S MERCY on us. This was the vision that Saint Faustina of Poland saw in modern-day times in 1931.

Join us at 3 PM for this powerful devotion.

Jesus himself, through visitations He made to Saint Faustina, instructed her: "Say unceasingly the chaplet that I have taught you. Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death. I desire that the whole world know My infinite mercy. I desire to grant unimaginable Graces to those souls who trust in My mercy." (St. Faustina Diary entry 687). "We hope that all people will be struck by the truth that mankind will not have peace until it turns with trust to God's mercy." (Intro to Diary)

Little Sprouts Socials

Families with children under age five are invited to join our monthly Little Sprouts Socials for fellowship, coffee, bagels, and fun! Little ones can enjoy a welcoming space to play, while parents can relax with coffee and conversation. We look forward to growing together in faith and friendship!

Next Social: Sunday, April 19th
Time: After 9:30 AM Mass

Gifts from Bethlehem
Olivewood Handcrafted from the Holy Land
A Traditional Art and Livelihood for Holy Land Christians

The handicrafts trade evolved as a cultural tradition of Christians in the Holy Land for many centuries. This indigenous form of art has since become an industry of great importance to the local people of the Holy Land who rely on it for livelihood, and to Christian pilgrims from all around the world whose holy pilgrimage can be memorialized for a lifetime in cherished olive wood or mother of pearl souvenirs. The olive wood carving market is the major source of income in the Bethlehem area. More than 65 percent of the income of the community in Bethlehem comes from this work.

In recent years, however, the holy crafts trade has suffered many hardships due to social and economical pressures. Because of a sharp fall in tourism and also as a result of diminishing numbers of craftsmen who leave their traditional trade and emigrate due to the difficult conditions in their homeland, the Holy Land handicraft market is facing serious danger, and so is the Christian community in the Land. Sixty five years ago the Christians represented more than 28% of the total population in the Holy Land, today they are less than 1.5%. The loss of Christians in the land of Christianity's birth will represent a tragedy of immeasurable proportions for the billions of Christians worldwide.

Thank you for your vital support for a Christian tradition and in protecting this very important culture and industry.

From the Pastor's Desk Divine Mercy Sunday

Today we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. On this day, one week after Easter, we are reminded why Jesus rose from the dead; and one of the reasons was to shower the world with divine mercy.

This is what the Church has to say in part about this great feast: "During the Church's millennium celebration in 2000, Pope John Paul II declared that the Second Sunday of Easter be known as "Divine Mercy Sunday." Prior to this celebration, the Pope also wrote a profound encyclical called "Rich in Mercy." This encyclical explained the doctrinal and scriptural foundations for our understanding of mercy. Our Holy Father looked to a holy woman of Poland, Sr. Faustina, for inspiration. He canonized Sr. Faustina at the same Mass in 2000, where he instituted the observance of Divine Mercy Sunday. He also clearly articulated the essential message that Jesus gave to Sr. Faustina and the message is, "That the graces of His mercy are greater than the stains of our sins."

It may seem unusual that Divine Mercy Sunday comes so soon after the season of Lent. After all, is not Lent the season to focus on repentance and mercy? Well, our Church believes that the timing is most appropriate because Jesus' message to Sr. Faustina reminds us that there is no limit to his mercy for those who truly believe, for those who humbly ask for forgiveness. His mercy is not limited by boundaries. It is not impacted by seasonal limitations. This was his message to Sr. Faustina, and this is his message to us.

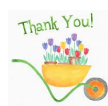

The "Holy Hour" for Divine Mercy will be celebrated today in our Church from 3 — 4 PM. Please let us all take some time today to devote ourselves to Divine Mercy — to receive it, and to radiate it to others.

Fr. Chester

During the Divine Mercy Holy Hour a plenary indulgence (can reduce or eliminate our time in purgatory or time for already deceased souls in purgatory) is granted to those who fulfill the following conditions:

Sacramental Confession—within 20 days before or after Eucharistic Communion—preferably on the day or day before or after

Prayer for the intention of our Holy Father — Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be

The collections for March 29th (Palm Sunday) were $7,216.00 for the regular collection and $2,018.00 for the Retirement Collection for Diocesan Clergy. The Good Friday collection was $1,502.00. Easter Sunday collection was $16,280.00.

The On-Line Giving for March 29th was $3,645.00 and Easter Sunday, April 5th was $6,760.35.
