Knight's In Action

On March 15, 2026, members of the St. Catherine of Siena Knights of Columbus Council marched in the Clinton St. Patrick's Day Parade. Sixteen knights marched in the parade, seven of whom were from the St. Catherine's council. A special thank you to Past Grand Knight Herman Martin for carrying our council's banner during the parade. A lot of people cheered for us and we were certainly recognized by those attending the parade!

Gifts from Bethlehem
Olivewood Handcrafted from the Holy Land
A Traditional Art and Livelihood for Holy Land Christians

The handicrafts trade evolved as a cultural tradition of Christians in the Holy Land for many centuries. This indigenous form of art has since become an industry of great importance to the local people of the Holy Land who rely on it for livelihood, and to Christian pilgrims from all around the world whose holy pilgrimage can be memorialized for a lifetime in cherished olive wood or mother of pearl souvenirs. The olive wood carving market is the major source of income in the Bethlehem area. More than 65 percent of the income of the community in Bethlehem comes from this work.

In recent years, however, the holy crafts trade has suffered many hardships due to social and economical pressures. Because of a sharp fall in tourism and also as a result of diminishing numbers of craftsmen who leave their traditional trade and emigrate due to the difficult conditions in their homeland, the Holy Land handicraft market is facing serious danger, and so is the Christian community in the Land. Sixty five years ago the Christians represented more than 28% of the total population in the Holy Land, today they are less than 1.5%. The loss of Christians in the land of Christianity's birth will represent a tragedy of immeasurable proportions for the billions of Christians worldwide.

Thank you for your vital support for a Christian tradition and in protecting this very important culture and industry.

From the Pastor's Desk World Day of Prayer for Vocations Sunday, April 26th

Next Sunday, April 26th, is World Day of Prayer for Vocations. On this day, the Church throughout the world, in a special way, encourages prayer for vocations. It also asks us to do the following:

- Make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life.
- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and deceased.
- Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.
- Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest, or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our Diocese to respond to God's call.

The Church reminds us that "God transforms whomever He chooses. You do not have to be perfect or sinless to be a priest, brother, or sister. If God calls, His grace is sufficient." "While we are all called to imitate Christ, some in the Church are called to more closely imitate Jesus the Good Shepherd. Priests and religious people give their whole lives to the Church. Those who are called to be shepherds must themselves learn to hear the voice of the Good Shepherd."

We are invited to join in this special day, and pray for holy, happy, and healthy priests, deacons, religious brothers, and sisters to shepherd and assist the Church of tomorrow.

Please pray that hearts will be touched and minds will be opened on this World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

Fr. Chester
