Together with Mary our Mother, our Community welcomes all to receive, live and share the Divine Mercy that comes from Jesus.

I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me. -2 Cor 12:9

God never ceases to proclaim His Word. His life-giving presence continues to sustain all things and keep them in being regardless of whether there is the faith to receive or perceive Him. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be so hard of heart and obstinate that we fail to see what God is trying to do. While God remains ever present, faith is necessary for His power to bear fruit. As we celebrate our country's independence, let us not forget the difference between liberties and freedom. While the liberties we have are most welcome treasures, only freedom from what blinds, deceives, and weighs us down can bring happiness. God is all about healing, transformation, and hope. In order for God to do what God does best, we have to invite Him in and see Him for who He is. Otherwise, God's will for humanity will be something at which we simply take offense, a common reaction when something challenges or unsettles us.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK:

FIRST READING: Today's reading is an excerpt from the prophetic call Ezekiel received while in exile in Babylon (Ez 1:1-3:27). The Lord commissioned Ezekiel to go and confront the "rebellious house" of Israel.
How do you imagine the Israelites received Ezekiel's message?

SECOND READING: Paul learned that the "thorn in his flesh" taught him to be humble and dependent upon God's grace alone.
Where do you see God's grace most present in your life?

GOSPEL: Jesus was "amazed" at the lack of faith His fellow Nazareans had in Him. Why do you think the villagers of Nazareth "took offense" at Jesus?

A PRAYER ON INDEPENDENCE DAY

Dear God,
As we celebrate today with fireworks and festivals, help us never to forget the reason for our joy. Help us remember that our rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness were signed into our heritage with the willing blood of American patriots. Most of all, help us remember that the rights of all people are more than words on a document, and that all people have rights because You have given us the dignity of human life. Grant freedom to all, and give us the strength to protect the rights of others.
Amen.

Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed the man who seeks refuge in Him.

Reflect on His Words"Do not be afraid; just have faith."*United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Vote to Write a Document on the Meaning of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church

Statement of Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops

June 21, 2021

"Last week, my brother bishops and I voted overwhelmingly to issue a teaching document on the beauty and power of the Eucharist. The doctrine committee of the bishops' conference will now begin drafting this document and, in the months ahead, the bishops will continue our prayer and discernment through a series of regional meetings and consultations. In November, the bishops will gather to discuss the document draft.

"The Eucharist is the heart of the Church and the heart of our lives as Catholics. In the Holy Eucharist, Jesus Christ himself draws near to each one of us personally and gathers us together as one family of God and one Body of Christ.

"As bishops, our desire is to deepen our people's awareness of this great mystery of faith, and to awaken their amazement at this divine gift, in which we have communion with the living God. That is our pastoral purpose in writing this document.

"I invite everyone in the Church to pray for the bishops as we continue our dialogues and reflections. I pray that this will be a time for all of us in the Church to reflect on our own faith and readiness to receive our Lord in the Holy Eucharist."

See next week's bulletin for Questions & Answers on the U.S. Bishops' Vote to Draft a Document on the Meaning of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church.

Girded with a faith, and the performance of good works, let us follow in Christ's path by the guidance of the Gospel; then we shall deserve to see Him "who has called us into His kingdom." If we wish to attain a dwelling place in His kingdom, we shall not reach it unless we hasten there by our good deeds. Just as there exists an evil fervor, a bitter spirit, which divides us from God and leads us to hell, so there is a good fervor which sets us apart from evil inclinations and leads us toward God and eternal life. No one should follow what he considers to be good for himself, but rather what seems good for another. Let them put Christ before all else; and may He lead us all to everlasting life. – from the Rule of Saint Benedict

MASS READINGSFIRST READING EZ 2:2-85

As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me: Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day. Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you. But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD! And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house— they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PS 123:1-2, 2, 3-4

R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for His mercy.

To You I lift up my eyes who are enthroned in heaven —
As the eyes of servants are on the hands of their masters. R.

As the eyes of a maid are on the hands of her mistress,
So are our eyes on the LORD, our God, till He have pity on us. R.

Have pity on us, O LORD, have pity on us, for we are more than sated with contempt;
our souls are more than sated with the mockery of the arrogant, with the contempt of the proud. R.

SECOND READING 2 COR 12:7-10

Brothers and sisters: That I, Paul, might not become too elated, because of the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan, to beat me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it might leave me, but He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me. Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

GOSPEL MK 6:1-6

Jesus departed from there and came to His native place, accompanied by His disciples. When the sabbath came He began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard Him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given Him? What mighty deeds are wrought by His hands! Is He not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not His sisters here with us?" And they took offense at Him.

Jesus said to them,

"A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." So He was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying His hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

Dear St. Joseph, foster father of our Lord Jesus Christ and most holy spouse of our Blessed Mother, we come before you to present our petitions and invoke your intercession.

Through the love which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and through the fatherly love which you gave to the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you through your intercession, power, and strength to assist us in our needs. O Guardian of the Holy Family and Patron of the Universal Church, defend us and all of the children of God from every contagion of error and corrupting influence of the enemy. O Most Mighty Protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggles from the power of darkness.

As once you protected the Child Jesus and Our Blessed Lady from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your prayers and example, we may be able to live devoutly in this life and enter eternal life in holiness.

Amen.
