"The Almighty has done great things for me
and holy is His Name.
He has mercy on those who fear Him in every generation.

Good mothers have a way of bringing their children hope. When we fall and hurt ourselves, our mothers can help us walk the path of healing. There is hope that we will get better and the trust that we have in mom's comforting assurance allows us to move forward. Mothers know instinctively what we need and what we are capable of doing. They can be one of our biggest cheerleaders in life, and even when facing despair, can point the way to a brighter tomorrow. Our Blessed Mother does precisely that for us today. As one closest to our Lord, she cheers us on with the hope of what life will be for all of us. Although given the unique distinction of being raised in both body and soul, she nonetheless points to our true eternal destiny. Achieving this inheritance overrides any disappointment and her intercession and example inspires us to pick ourselves up when we fall. Always a mother filled with grace and hope, she calls us to reaffirm our faith in God and in the gifts we have each been given as we persevere even in the midst of life's challenges and failures. ©LPI

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK:

FIRST READING:

Does Christ reside in you and your neighbor? If you keep in mind that God is present in the people you meet, how might this change the manner in which you treat/greet them?

SECOND READING:

Imagine you are a Christian in Paul's time and you're hearing about the resurrection of the dead for the first time. Would this idea move you to make any changes in your life?

GOSPEL:

What in Elizabeth's life helped her understand what had happened to Mary? How is the babe leaping in her womb like a "leap for all humankind"?

DID YOU KNOW? - CATHOLIC QUIZ

- 1) What is the Immaculate Conception?
 - 2) What is the Annunciation of the Lord?
 - 3) What is the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary?
 - 4) When does the Church celebrate the birthday of Mary?
 - 5) Which Marian prayer is recorded in the Gospel of Luke?
 - 6) What is a 'dogma'?
 - 7) How many Marian dogmas has the Church proclaimed, and what are they?
- 1) It is the day the Virgin Mary was conceived and was preserved from original sin in view of the merits of her Divine Son.
 - 2) The Annunciation of the Lord is when the angel Gabriel visited Mary to announce that she was chosen to be the mother of Jesus.
 - 3) The Assumption proclaims the reality that Mary was taken up body and soul into heaven. This was God's special gift to her in response to her total giving of self to God's plan and will.
 - 4) Although we can't know for certain, Catholics have celebrated the Virgin Mary's birthday on September 8, the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and exactly nine months after the feast of the Immaculate Conception on December 8.
 - 5) The Magnificat [Latin: magnifies], also called the Canticle of Mary, is recorded in the Gospel of Luke (1:46-55). It is the Virgin Mary's joyous prayer in response to her cousin Elizabeth's greeting (Luke 1: 41-45).
 - 6) Dogmas are those doctrines of the Church which have been defined by the Pope and the teaching authority of the Church. They are proposed for our belief and faithful Catholics are not free to dissent from them.
 - 7) There are four dogmas stating Mary's personal relationship with God and her role in human salvation. They are: Divine Motherhood (Mother of God) proclaimed by the Council of Ephesus in 431AD; Perpetual Virginity (Mary was, and is, Virgin before, in, and after Christ's birth) proclaimed by the Council of the Lateran in 649AD; the Immaculate Conception; and the Assumption.

O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.

FATHER CAPARAS' Q & A CORNER

Why does God appear to be a vengeful God in the Old Testament and a Loving Father in the New Testament ?

When we were kids, there were times when parents and those in authority over us, appeared mean and unkind – always telling us what we could and could not do. But as we became older, we realized that many of the things they told us were not just good advice, but formed us to be a more mature and responsible individual. Likewise, when God first revealed Himself to the people of Israel, He was perceived at times as a vengeful and demanding God. Although we believe that Sacred Scriptures were inspired by God, those who wrote the Bible were still nonetheless humans and people of their time. Their perception of each other, God, and the world, was tainted by sin, and God knew that it will take a while for them to “get it.” God respected their individuality and human conditions, while at the same time He communicated timeless truths to them and to future generations. With the coming of Jesus, the Son God, God Himself became visible and it was His mission not to abolish the Old Testament, but to “fulfill” (Mt. 5:17) what was revealed to the people of Israel in the Old Testament. In other words, Jesus came to clarify and reveal to us fully God’s plan, and to show us the loving face of our Heavenly Father (Jn. 14:8).

If you have any questions you would like Father Caparas to answer and place in the bulletin, feel free to email it to him at parishoffice@mary-mom.com.

WISDOM OF THE SAINTS:

Saint John Eudes - August 19

The air that we breathe, the bread that we eat, the heart which throbs in our bosoms, are not more necessary for man than that he may live as a human being, than is prayer for the Christian that he may live as a Christian.

Saint Bernard - August 20

In dangers, in doubts, in difficulties, think of Mary, call upon Mary. Let not her name depart from your lips, never suffer it to leave your heart. And that you may obtain the assistance of her prayer, neglect not to walk in her footsteps. With her for guide, you shall never go astray; while invoking her, you shall never lose heart; so long as she is in your mind, you are safe from deception; while she holds your hand, you cannot fall; under her protection you have nothing to fear; if she walks before you, you shall not grow weary; if she shows you favor, you shall reach the goal.

Saint Pius X - August 21

Truly we are passing through disastrous times, when we may well make our own the lamentation of the Prophet: “There is no truth, and there is no mercy, and there is no knowledge of God in the land” (Hosea 4:1). Yet in the midst of this tide of evil, the Virgin Most Merciful rises before our eyes like a rainbow, as the arbiter of peace between God and man.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

Dear St. Joseph, foster father of our Lord Jesus Christ and most holy spouse of our Blessed Mother, we come before you to present our petitions and invoke your intercession.

Through the love which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and through the fatherly love which you gave to the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you through your intercession, power, and strength to assist us in our needs.

O Guardian of the Holy Family and Patron of the Universal Church, defend us and all of the children of God from every contagion of error and corrupting influence of the enemy. O Most Mighty Protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggles from the power of darkness.

As once you protected the Child Jesus and Our Blessed Lady from deadly peril, so now protect God’s Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your prayers and example, we may be able to live devoutly in this life and enter eternal life in holiness. Amen.
