BABY SHOWER to benefit National Life Center, Woodbury, NJ

February 12 & 13 and February 19 & 20

Mothers are in need of basic items for their babies. They don't have a single blanket or any type of clothing for their child. The National Life Center personally takes large bags of your donations right to the hospital after a baby has been born. With your donations a mother will have diapers, undershirts, and sleepers, as well as other basic needs you supply. Beginning next weekend, there will be a pack-n-play at Our Lady of Lourdes Church and a container at Our Lady, Queen of Peace Church for donations. This baby shower is sponsored by Ct. Blessed Katharine Drexel #2327, Catholic Daughters of the Americas. Thank you for your generosity!

NEW SANCTUARY ITEMS AVAILABLE FOR DEDICATION

This Christmas, as I'm sure you noticed, we introduced a new addition to the sanctuaries of both of our churches - - an antependium.

An antependium is a frontal decorative piece that is used to "dress" the altar for the Mass. It is meant to emphasize the dignity and reverence owed to Christ at the Mass—especially in the Eucharist. We are grateful that several families from our parish have already come forward to purchase and dedicate the antependium, at both Our Lady of Lourdes and Queen of Peace churches.

However, there are other matching pieces that can be made and dedicated to someone's memory.

- Altar Antependium (Queen of Peace & Our Lady of Lourdes) - Dedicated
- Laced Altar Cloth (Queen of Peace) - Dedicated
- Laced Altar Cloth (Our Lady of Lourdes) - Dedicated
- Tabernacle Altar Cloth (Our Lady of Lourdes) - Dedicated
- Lectern/Ambo Frontal Piece (Queen of Peace) $750.00
- Lectern/Ambo Frontal Piece (Our Lady of Lourdes) - Dedicated
- First Communion Kneeler Coverlet $600.00— 1/2 available for dedication $300.00

If you are interested in donating any of these items for the parish and dedicating it to honor in memorial to a loved one, please contact Fr. Caparas at the parish office at (856) 881-0909.

Reflect on His Words

“Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.”

The Tuesday Afternoon Bible Study will resume on Tuesday January 18 at 1pm in Our Lady’s Hall, Pitman. This program will center on major and minor prophets of the Old Testament. In addition to your own Bible, this text will be used: Reddit, Paul L. (2008). Introduction to the Prophets. The price is $30.00 (but don’t stay away if you don’t have money. We have funds!). Parish supply of books should be in late next week. Call first.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Why does Isaiah use intimate marital imagery when explaining the relationship between God and people? Does love between human beings help you understand how much God loves people?

Second Reading:

Why do you think people are given talents like Van Gogh’s and Bach’s or spiritual gifts like the ones mentioned in the reading? Are they gifts for themselves alone or for sharing with others? Are they to be hidden away or used regularly? Should everyone have the same talents? Are you using whatever talents God gave you?

Gospel:

To Mary’s, “they have no wine,” Jesus’ response was, “what concern is it to you or me?” Instead of backing off, Mary tells the servers to “do whatever He tells you.” Mary trusted that He would somehow solve the problem. If this trust rates a 10, where would you put your trust when you “don’t back off,” but go to God with your concerns? liturgy.slu.edu

Father Caparas’ Quotable Quotes

“Life with God is not immunity from difficulties, but peace within difficulties.”

~ C.S. Lewis

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

FATHER CAPARAS' Q & A

If someone has done something warranting an automatic excommunication (like having an abortion), how can they come back into communion with the Church?

Assuming that the person who committed in participated in a grave or mortal act have met three conditions necessary for an automatic excommunication, namely: 1) It has to be identified as an act that can result in an excommunication (for example, abortion), 2) the person has to know that it is a grave and excommunicable offense, and 3) the person must willingly and freely choose to commit the act, despite the knowledge of the seriousness of the act, that individual may approach a priest, as they would as if going to Confession. The priest then will assign a penance proportional to seriousness of the act, and as the priest offers the Prayer of Absolution over the penitent, he would also add a special prayer lifting the bond of excommunication. Pope Francis recently granted a general permission to all the priests to be able to lift the bond of excommunication to those who committed or participated in an abortive act. Formerly, before a priest can lift this bond of excommunication and offer absolution, he needed to receive a special and "secretive" permission (to protect the identity of the penitent) from his local bishop. To the best of my knowledge, this general permission from the Holy Father continues to be extended to all the priests of the Catholic Church.

GIFTS FOR EVERYBODY

- A Reflection by Eleonore Stump

The Second Reading is about gifts of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is itself a gift of the Lord's; and when the Holy Spirit fills a person, then the Spirit brings with it other gifts as well.

Some of these gifts are given only to some people. The gifts mentioned in the Second Reading are special gifts of this sort. But there are other gifts of the Holy Spirit that are not like this. They are given to everyone who lives in grace, and they are always present in every one of God's people.

You already have all that is most precious to you.

The list of these gifts can be found in Isaiah 11:2-3. Traditionally, the Church has identified seven gifts of the Holy Spirit in this list. Four of them are gifts for the mind: wisdom, understanding, counsel, and knowledge. And three of them are gifts for the heart or will: piety, fortitude, and fear of the Lord.

These ordinary gifts are like the roots of a great tree in the soul of a person. They nourish the soul, and they result in a person's flourishing, in his bearing fruit for the Lord.

Because the gifts are in each of God's people always, so are the fruits of the Holy Spirit that arise from gifts. Traditionally, the Church has taken there to be twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit, a list developed from a slightly shorter list in Galatians 5:22-23.

The list of the fruits of the Holy Spirit begins with these five: love, joy, peace, patience, and long-suffering.

A person who has the Holy Spirit dwelling in him has intimately united with Him his beloved Lord. And that is why love is the first fruit of the Holy Spirit. Joy follows, because of the presence of the beloved. And peace comes next. If you are your beloved's and He is yours (Song of Songs 2:16), then you can be at peace. You already have all that is most precious to you. And that is why you can have patience and long-suffering too. The hard things of the world are easier to endure if your love loves you and is with you.

So some people have the gift of prophecy, and others don't. But no one of the Lord's people lacks love, joy, and peace. That is why the Lord says about His people, "by their fruits you will know them. (Mt 7:20)
