PASTOR'S MESSAGE: Promoting a True Understanding of Freedom

On Independence Day, we remember the freedom that our nation enjoyed as it made a transition from being a colony to becoming a country. Some persons did not share in this freedom in 1776, but these principles caused our beloved country to realize that this state of affairs could not continue. We are grateful for those who are defending our freedom, including members of our armed services and humanitarian organizations. Please join me in saying a prayer for: their safety; for their family and friends who are anxious about their safety; for a swift and just resolution to all conflicts; and for an end to terrorism.

Religious liberty is one of the freedoms that we enjoy according to the First Amendment of the Constitution. An enduring constitutional debate is the definition of "separation of Church and State." It will not be settled in this annual column. However, I propose that it does not mean silencing the voice of people of faith in public discourse. People of faith have made invaluable contributions to our nation and world.

Consider the role of the Catholic Church in the U.S.A. Imagine if our parochial, social service, educational, health care, and charitable ministries disappeared tomorrow. Next to the government (federal, state, and local), the second largest institution that provides services to people in need are ministries of the Catholic Church. Consider the role of faith communities in the Civil Rights Movement throughout the 20th century which enabled citizens of African descent to vote, enjoy public accommodations like other citizens, etc.

Catholic Social Teaching is the means by which we promote the dignity of each person as the foundation for promoting the common good of society and the well-being of all. This includes vulnerable persons such as the unborn child, immigrants, workers, and those who are impoverished. These principles are derived from the Gospel; explained in papal, conciliar, and episcopal statements; and demonstrated by our works of mercy. The Second Vatican Council reiterated that part of our baptismal vocation is to transform and sanctify our communities by the practice of our Faith (Lumen Gentium #11 and following). Many of these principles are related to the Natural Moral Law, which applies to every person, whether or not they claim a religious affiliation. May God help us to contribute to the common good of our beloved country and the world.

THE EUCHARIST IN THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has authorized its Committee on Doctrine to write a DRAFT of a document on the Eucharist in the life of the Church. While some bishops have mentioned Catholic public officials, the impetus for this document is to help Catholics to understand the principles of faith.

If some polls are to be believed, significant numbers of Catholics in the USA do not know the teaching that has been handed down since the First Century. Some do not believe it even if they claim to know it.

The Eucharist is the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of the Lord Jesus Christ. In Catholic life, Holy Mass is central to the mission to proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, make disciples, and impact our communities for good.

As with any principle of the faith, what we believe in response to what God has revealed must be reflected in our behavior. Jesus teaches us to live with integrity. The USCCB draft document will mention that too. The statements by Archbishop Lori and the USCCB attest that there will be no statements about specific individuals or groups.

The love of God invites us to love authentically, promoting the good of the other for the sake of other. God defines what is good. There is a necessary connection of the celebration of the liturgy and how we conduct our lives. There is a connection of participating in the one eternal sacrifice of the Risen Lord with participating in works of mercy and fostering social justice. Catholic Social Teaching principles are based on the Gospel, not a political ideology.

I am sensitive to concerns that this document may contribute to further polarization. However, it does not have to be that way. It is not only the responsibility of the bishops to foster unity. It is the responsibility of every member of the Catholic Church despite media narratives and those Catholics who may have other motives.

I will have more to state about this matter after I return from my vacation. Archbishop Lori's statement, along with questions and answers about the drafting process of the USCCB document is inserted in this bulletin.

May the peace of Christ be with you always!

MARIAN ANTIPHON

The Angel of the Lord declared to Mary:
And she conceived of the Holy Spirit. Hail Mary...

Be it done unto me according to Thy word. Hail Mary...

And dwelt among us. Hail Mary...

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray. Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

PARISH OFFICE IS CLOSED ON JULY 5

Since Independence Day is on a Sunday this year, the Parish Office will be closed on Monday, July 5. Holy Mass will be celebrated at 8:30 AM.

REFLECTION ON THE SUNDAY GOSPEL READING

Read Mark 6:1-6a. The Lord Jesus Christ is the Great Prophet, the definitive revelation of God to humanity. Baptized into Christ, we are prophets in union with Him. Christ teaches that He is the Truth (cf. John 14:6). We are witnesses to the truth of His teaching and accept the way that He continues to safeguard it. We need to resist the temptation to subject the revelation of Christ to relativism. If we do that, then our prophetic witness will become a pathetic witness. Some people will be offended regardless of how charitable we convey the message. Nevertheless, we must persevere in proclaiming the truth in love. First, by the way that we live; second, by articulating why we live in this way.

Catechism of the Catholic Church #905: "Lay people also fulfill their prophetic mission by evangelization, 'that is, the proclamation of Christ by word and the testimony of life.' For lay people, 'this evangelization . . . acquires a specific property and peculiar efficacy because it is accomplished in the ordinary circumstances of the world.'"
