"It is easy to love the people far away. It is not always easy to love those close to us. It is easier to give a cup of rice to relieve hunger than to relieve the loneliness and pain of someone unloved in our own home. Bring love into your home for this is where our love for each other must start."
~Saint Teresa of Calcutta

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

Did you ever find yourself wishing that God would step in and fix all that is wrong with the world? After all, how much longer can all of this go on? There is so much inequity in life. Our world's political, economic, and environmental systems do not always serve people's best interests. We read stories about injustice, disregard for human life, greed, heartache, and people being hurt and deprived daily. People are still starving, and there is often little regard for human life. This is not the way God intended it to be. Realizing that we have caused most of these problems ourselves, we look to God for an answer and a way out of the difficulties we have created. Taking responsibility for our actions is not something that comes easily. We fail to see that God has already sent the answer in the person of Jesus Christ. God did fix our problem! Mary had to set her needs aside for the Son of Justice to come into the world. We need to do the same. It is only by believing in, listening to, and acting upon what God has spoken that true peace will ever come to be, and God's fix be made known.

2021 Christmas Season Mass Schedule

The 2021 Mass Schedule for Christmas is now available on the parish website. <https://isidoreandmaria.org/christmas-mass-schedule/>

Live streaming is available for many Masses, with a post-Mass opportunity to receive communion following the Dec. 24, 5 p.m. Mass (approximately 6 p.m.).

All Masses take place at St. Paul Church. Reservations are not required. Seating is on a first-come, first-seated basis.

“And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled.” — Lk 1:43-45

Excerpt from the Lectionary for Mass 03261, 1998, 1970 CCC

St. Augustine tells us that a “Christian is a mind through which Christ thinks, a heart through which Christ loves, a voice through which Christ speaks and a hand through which Christ helps.” As we look around and out at the world, we do not have to search too far before we come face to face with inequity and injustice. There is so much unfairness, prejudice, anger, hatred, violence, and want. The stories of human heartache, people being hurt, deprived of life’s necessities, loneliness, and sickness are far too commonplace. For many of the world’s ills, the vices of greed, lust, pride, gluttony, and jealousy are clearly among the more significant root causes. Why doesn’t God step in and fix this mess? After all, God created this world, and one would hope that he would step up and take some measure of responsibility for it! Once we sit with this thinking for a while, we can begin to realize just how flawed it is. God did take responsibility, and God did fix the problem! God sent us Jesus Christ as the divine solution to the world’s ills. It is not God who has shirked responsibility; we have. We are the ones who continually fail to set our personal needs, wants, and securities aside so that One more powerful than us can use us.

Mary had to set her needs aside for the Son of God to come into the world. Mary simply listened and believed.

Having opened herself to being an instrument of the Divine, God could use her as his mind, heart, voice, and hand. She became God’s vessel so that God’s greatness could reach the ends of the earth and peace could come upon the world. God’s fix for the world’s difficulties is you and me. We are the ones who confess that Jesus Christ came into the world as the Son of God, the Prince of Peace, and herald of justice. All we have to do is believe, as did Mary, that what has been spoken to us by the Lord will be fulfilled. Then, we can step aside and be the Christians we claim to be. What a difference it would make if every person who professed to be Christian truly understood that their only vocation is to be God’s instrument. What a beautiful, equitable, and just world it would be.

PODCAST: You are not Alone

“It’s commonplace when presented with a challenge to conclude that it is impossible to overcome. Yet if we find the deeper truth, we realize that God gives us faith to put the pieces of life together like a perfect puzzle.”

Rejoice in the Presence of God:

Pausing to rejoice may seem a bit of a challenge to some. We all grapple with life at times. These struggles can be so overwhelming and intense that they rob us of joy and a sense of peaceful wellbeing. Personal, corporate, familial, ecclesial, and social conflicts are all too plentiful. We are constantly bumping elbows with our weaknesses and sinfulness as well as those of the world. Our sad, painful cries reveal our incompleteness. But, if we listen carefully, we can hear within our discomfort God's call to peace, to move beyond and heal the sadness and journey to a better place.

Celebrating the Saints this week

St. Peter Canisius Feast Day Dec. 21

Born in Holland, St. Peter Canisius (May 8, 1521 – December 21, 1597) was a preacher, teacher, and writer throughout his whole life. At the age of 19, he received a master's degree from the university at Cologne. Soon afterward, St. Peter met Peter Faber, the first disciple of Ignatius of Loyola, who influenced him so much that he eventually joined the Society of Jesus.

St. Peter Canisius founded colleges and seminaries, served as a missionary, cared for the sick or imprisoned, and wrote close to eight volumes of letters — many about St. Cyril of Alexandria and St. Leo the Great.

A man blessed with many talents, St. Peter Canisius is a beautiful example of a man who developed his talents to further God's work here on earth.

This Day in History — Dec. 22, 1882

First Christmas Tree With Electric Lights

Edward Hibberd Johnson (Jan. 4, 1846 – Sept. 9, 1917) was an inventor and business associate of American inventor Thomas Alva Edison. He was involved in many of Edison's projects, and was a partner in an early organization which evolved into General Electric. When Johnson was Vice President of the Edison Electric Light Company, a predecessor of Con Edison, he created the first known electrically illuminated Christmas tree at his home in New York City in 1882. Edward H. Johnson became the Father of Electric Christmas Tree Lights. In the early 1900s, you could rent Christmas tree lights for the season for $12 - That's equivalent to over $300 in today's money.
