3RD SUNDAY in ordinary time

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor." - Lk: 4:18a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

Give us, O Lord, a steadfast heart, which no unworthy affection may drag downwards; give us an unconquered heart, which no tribulation can wear out; give us an upright heart, which no unworthy purpose may tempt aside.

Bestow upon us also, O Lord our God, understanding to know you, diligence to seek you, wisdom to find you, and a faithfulness that may finally embrace you; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

~ St. Thomas Aquinas

Celebrating the Saints This Week

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

People can quickly lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God’s unique presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God, and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God’s word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and journey down the wrong path, God’s timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God’s word and act upon it, that living word slowly changes us; over time, it has the power to soften and mold us, creating a joyful spirit within us. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God’s love. Gradually and gently, God leads us back where we belong. We discover the sacred character of life and the wonder of God’s power again. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means “beloved of God,” a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

Update from SS. Isidore and Maria Parish

As an act of charity to those among us who are more vulnerable to COVID-19, SS. Isidore and Maria Parish asks that face masks be worn in the main body of St. Paul Church beginning with weekend liturgies on Jan. 22, 2022.

We are making this request even in the absence of a civil requirement for parishioners to mask. Because the main body of the church and the South Wing are separate spaces, each with its own HVAC system, masking in the South Wing is optional.

Face masks are available at all entrances to St. Paul Church. Please ask any usher for assistance.

SECOND COLLECTION this weekend (Jan. 22 and 23): Catholic High Schools

If you would like to participate, please place your donation in a separate envelope marked “Catholic High Schools” and place it in the offertory kiosk.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

Cover quote:

pursuits, we forget that we are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history reveals our fickleness and infidelity also shows God’s constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there, bringing them back to holiness and assuring them of His presence. We have to allow God’s Word, God’s life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one’s soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue to fulfill words of promise that echoed long ago. God doesn’t forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize the depth of friendship God offers to us deep within, it has the power to turn sadness into joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God’s Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God’s fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God’s transcendence. It could be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God is — the God of our salvation history or the “gods” of human constructs. Relying on our designs and

St. Thomas Aquinas | Jan. 28

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274), is well-known by many for his theological work, “The Summa Theologiae.” Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity.

Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest, and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and, later, Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His most significant contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. His writings encompass the unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology. The patron saint of teachers, theologians, and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. However, his life and his impact on the whole Church remain alive today.

The Spin Cycle:

A Reflection from Father Mark

“The world is like a washing machine stuck on the spin cycle, relentlessly rotating, never quite getting where it needs to be. It forgets what it is supposed to do. It doesn’t work. It is broken. God, as Emmanuel, came into the brokenness of our world to help us fix it. The followers of Jesus, baptized in Christ and made in God’s image and likeness, have yet to learn that to be a servant, one must share.”

A thank you from ImmaCare Inc.

While the recent spread of COVID-19 prevented the parish ImmaCare ministry from providing dinners to the shelter in January, we do with to thank all who donated items for the January ImmaCare Outreach Program. A van filled with items was picked up and delivered to Immacare earlier this month to help provide nourishment five days each week to the homeless living on the street, in abandoned buildings or wherever shelter can be found. Donations from our parish supplement the sandwiches that are distributed each day. If you would like to donate the next collection date is February 3. If you have any questions, please contact Marisa Howard, 860.633.0408 or howarrs@cox.net Thank you for your support for this very important ministry.

You were made for more. . . What is your gift?

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Ezra and Nehemiah were the religious and political leaders of Judah in the mid-5th century BC. They grounded their leadership in Scripture (“the book of the law.”) What role does sacred Scripture have in guiding your life?

Second Reading:

Paul used the human body as an analogy for the “many parts” of the Christian community in Corinth that should unite as the “one body” of Christ. In what ways do you find this a challenging vision for community?

Gospel:

Today’s reading contains both the opening prologue to the Gospel of Luke and the initial reaction to Jesus’ return to his hometown of Nazareth. Luke is the only Evangelist to provide us with a prologue outlining his motivation to write his Gospel. What details do you find most interesting from Luke’s prologue?

This Day in History — Jan. 23, 2011

Jack LaLanne in 1961

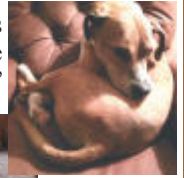

Francois Henri “Jack” LaLanne (Sept. 26, 1914 – Jan. 23, 2011) was an American fitness and nutrition guru and motivational speaker. He described himself as a “sugarholic” and “junk food junkie” until age 15. He “turned his life around” after listening to a public lecture about the benefits of good nutrition by health food pioneer Paul Bragg. Jack LaLanne came to believe that the country’s overall health depended on the health of its population and referred to physical culture and nutrition as “the salvation of America.”

He opened the first U.S. fitness club (1936), invented the jumping jack, designed the first leg extension machines and pulley machines using cables. His first dog on the show was named Happy, later replaced by Walter, which stood for “We All Love To Exercise Regularly.” The Jack LaLanne Show (1951-85) was the first television exercise program.

Fr. Mark and Jack would have been great friends. Both found their way to positive, healthier lifestyles. Both had their favorite canine companions too! We do help Father stay in shape!

Hey Harry, This is called the “Oliver Twist”

Hey Oliver, let’s try the “Harry Dip, Bend and Stretch”... great for lifting bones and treats!
