VIDEO SERIES: No Way to Live - Homelessness in Central Connecticut

Dear Parishioners:

I recently learned of a fantastic short video series about the homelessness crisis in central Connecticut entitled No Way to Live, from Bristol-based Productions for Change. I was moved by the many unanswered questions raised during the series.

No Way to Live highlights the voices of the unhoused alongside volunteers, non-profit agencies, religious organizations, and governmental entities trying to battle this age-old crisis. It also provides a starting point for understanding the gravity of the homelessness crisis around us.

I invite you to watch the series (<http://isidoreandmaria.org/nowaytolive>) with open, Christian hearts so that our parish community can better comprehend the massive issue in our backyards and begin formulating ways we can do our part to alleviate it.

After viewing the series, I welcome your feedback as our parish moves ahead on our journey to live the social justice values we learned from Jesus. Please email me at father@isidoreandmaria.org, or call the parish office at 860-633-9419.

In Christ,
Father Mark

Inspiration for the Week

by Rev. Mark Suslenko

God never ceases to proclaim his Word.

His life-giving presence continues to sustain all things and keep them in being regardless of whether there is the faith to receive or perceive him. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be so hard of heart and obstinate that we fail to see what God is trying to do. While God remains ever present, faith is necessary for God's power to bear fruit. Having recently celebrated our country's independence, let us not forget the difference between liberties and freedom. While our liberties are most welcome treasures, only freedom from what blinds, deceives, and weighs us down can bring happiness. God is all about healing, transformation, and hope. For God to do what God does best, we must invite him in and see him for who he is. Otherwise, God's will for humanity will be something at which we simply take offense, a common reaction when something challenges or unsettles us.

A Message from Father Mark: Family Survey Summer 2024

To further connect with our younger parishioners, I am asking parents to assist their children in completing a brief survey. I want to hear from them, in their own words, what's on their minds. The survey is CONFIDENTIAL. I am the only person who will see their responses. To take the survey, please visit <http://isidoreandmaria.org/familysurvey2024>. Thank you in advance for helping your child complete this survey.

July Prayer Intention from The Holy Father

Each month, the Holy Father asks for our prayers for a specific intention, and you are invited to answer the Holy Father's request. Join people worldwide in praying for the July intention:

For the pastoral care of the sick

We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

JULY

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, their work has a magical artfulness and skill that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through everyday things and ordinary people.

Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life. Some may question what's so special about it. A sunset is a sunset, and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, think again. When pondering God's relationship with his people and God's actions in our lives, we must go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run-of-the-mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child, and there wasn't anything unusual to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinariness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors, and did everyday human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but challenges us to look differently at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope-filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us, either.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

Local children – including parishioners – helping others

Five Buttonball Elementary School students - including three SS. Isidore and Maria parishioners - recently took it upon themselves to collect food items from across classrooms at Buttonball for the Glastonbury Food Bank. The rising fourth graders - Reese Wisnowski, parishioner Kate McDonald, parishioner Keira Margarido, parishioner Katherine Kach, and Hazel McCarthy are pictured above with their teacher Patrick Scully, following their community outreach efforts. They are also shown in the lower photo recently delivering what they collected to the town food bank. When asked why they initiated this undertaking, the girls stated it's important to think of those less fortunate and to help those in need. It is a blessing to witness our youngest parishioners living the Good News.

Retreat. Rest. Rediscover Sometimes, you need a break from the secular world to become closer to Jesus. Consider embarking upon a Catholic retreat. Whether it's for a half-day, full-day, weekend, or longer, there are several local Catholic retreat centers, each with a full schedule of ongoing day and overnight retreats for individuals and groups. For a list of local retreats coming up soon, please visit <http://isidoreandmaria.org/retreats>.

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

The Lord encourages Ezekiel to be courageous in his role as a prophet, regardless of the response of the Israelites.

Can you think of a time when you had to be courageous in facing uncertainty?

Second Reading:

Paul learned a "thorn in his flesh" that was given to him to teach him that God's grace alone should be sufficient for his ministry.

What are some obstacles in your life you have had to overcome?

Gospel:

We hear how the villagers of Nazareth were "offended" by Jesus and lacked faith in him.

How do you support family or friends who have been hurt by others?

This Day in History — July 9, 1932

King Camp Gillette (January 5, 1855 – July 9, 1932) was an American businessman who invented a best-selling safety razor. Gillette's innovation was the thin, inexpensive, disposable blade of stamped steel. Gillette is often erroneously credited with inventing the so-called razor and blades business model in which razors are sold cheaply to increase the market for blades. However, Gillette Safety Razor Company adopted the business model from its competitors.

Safety razors were developed in the mid-19th century, but Gillette improved these earlier safety-razor designs and introduced the high-profit-margin stamped razor blade made from a carbon steel sheet. Gillette's razor retailed for a substantial $5 (equivalent to $170.00 in 2024) – half the average working man's weekly pay – yet sold by the millions.

So... which one of us could use a shave???
