Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Last of all, and the servant of all." - Mark 9:35

THIS WEEKEND

Sept. 21/22: HOPES Collection

The HOPES (Help Our Parish Educators & Students) Collection annual collection takes place in our parish on the weekend of Sept. 21 and 22. This fundraiser supports Catholic elementary schools in the Archdiocese of Hartford. The most vital resource in every Catholic school is its dedicated teachers. Their profession is avocation. This collection provides new revenue sources to offer teachers a just wage, ensuring quality education, enthusiasm, and stability. We ask you to join us in supporting our children by supporting their teachers. HOPES means brighter futures for all our children by enabling us to keep tuition affordable for families. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Sept. 24: Faith Formation Parent-Only Meeting

All Grade Level Parent Meeting Tues., Sept. 24, 6:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. in the main body of St. Paul Church. At least one parent from each registered Faith Formation family needs to attend. Please check the email from Donna Berger for more information. Questions? Contact the Faith Formation office at 860-633-9419.

Sept. 29: Welcome Home!

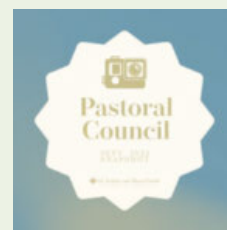

Do you have friends or relatives who stepped away from their Catholic faith for whatever reason?

Please consider inviting these folks to come with you to a special Welcome Home event on Sun., Sept. 29, at 12:30 p.m. at St. Paul Church. It's an hour-long presentation of faith stories involving amazing encounters with God. A reception will follow.

Flyers and personalizable invitations are now available at the church entrances. Registration is requested, though all are welcome. To register, visit <http://isidoreandmaria.org/welcomehome>. Questions? Reach out at welcomehome@isidoreandmaria.org.

"The heart of our Divine Master has no more amiable law than that of sweetness, humility, charity. Often place your confidence in Divine Providence and be assured that sooner heaven and earth shall pass away than that the Lord neglect to protect you." ~ Saint Padre Pio

Inspiration for the Week by Rev. Mark Suslenko

What does it mean to be God's servant? It means being willing to call the world back to its childlike innocence, showing that joy-filled playfulness has a place in life. The servant of God serves to foster the Kingdom of God. God's kingdom is not a sterile, unhappy, strict, rigid reality. It is quite the opposite. It is a kingdom devoid of jealousy and selfish ambition where peace, gentleness, mercy, and good works abound. To be a servant of this kingdom means that selfish ambition must be set aside so that others can be first and justice can be pursued at all costs. The prayer of this kind of servant is focused on something other than self-advancement or need. Instead, the servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern to be used by God. In this way, we who are servants can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led by God. We can then lay the kingdom's cornerstones: faith, hope, and love. It is upon these that God's firm dwelling is built. Accepting this call may place us last in the world's eyes but first in God's.

Deacon Steve Weaver to retire

On Sept. 26, Deacon Steve Weaver reaches senior status with the Archdiocese of Hartford and will be retiring from SS. Isidore and Maria Parish. Read more about his remarkable ministry to others and his future plans at <http://isidoreandmaria.org/deaconsteve>.

DONATE TO THE ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Through the generosity of the SS. Isidore and Maria Parish community, 72% of our financial target has been met. All are encouraged to consider a gift that is appropriate for them; let's work together to exceed our parish goal. Donation packets are at the doors of the church, or you may make your donation online at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal/>. Thank you for your consideration.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

Oct. 1: Solemn Celebration of Evening Prayer with Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

Join us on Tues., Oct. 1 at 6:30 p.m. at St. Paul Church for the next Solemn Celebration of Evening Prayer and Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This service is an hour of traditional prayer and music. It includes the recitation of The Liturgy of the Hours and the Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. It is a wonderful opportunity to focus on Jesus Christ and his presence in the Eucharist.

PLEASE NOTE: Tuesday night Rosary will not be held on Oct. 1 at St. Augustine Church so the parishioners may attend this special evening of prayer.

Pray for peace in the Holy Land

There is something about being first.

Great satisfaction is achieved whether it be first in line, first to be picked for the team, or the first one to finish their work. Our egos love being first. It somehow sets us apart from everyone else, gives us a sense of pride, and positions us to feel better than others. When we are first, we can glory in our efforts, skills, and achievements. Isn't that what matters? After all, we are taught from a very young age to be proficient, stay on top, be the best at what we do, and win the praise and esteem of others. This is the stuff that makes us successful and provides us with a comfortable, satisfying life.

Jesus wants none of it. All the details we anguish over mean little to the kingdom of God. Do you want to be first? Then, be a servant and welcome a child. All of this is the opposite of our often-vehement pursuits. If we are serious about following Jesus and living the Gospel, then we must put the needs of others before our own. If we continue to listen only to the world's noise, we will continue to believe the illusions we inherit. Those illusions come in many forms, but all have things in common: me before you, being on top and not the bottom, us versus them, personal security over universal harmony, and peace. When are we going to learn that constantly striving to be the best and first is an empty pursuit in our struggle for happiness? While satisfying our ego with this momentary boost of esteem may feel good for a moment, is it what we really desire?

If we can break from the world's noise and create a space of sacred silence in our lives, we can begin to listen and see that we are being called in another direction. What we desire is not the bolstering of our egos but the innocence we lost somewhere along the way. Life is good when we can be playful, joyful, and even somewhat carefree. We want our relationships to work, a place to call home and live peaceful lives with our sisters and brothers. Only a servant can do this. The servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. Rather than worrying about being first and coming out on top, we can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led to do good works. Stop worrying about being first and put greater energy into feeling joy.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

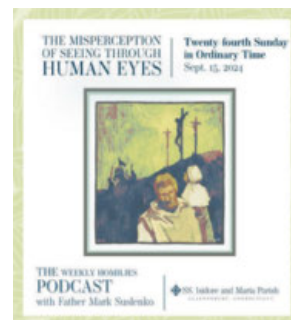

Another successful Fall Festival - thanks to you!

More than 600 people gathered at the Elks Club in South Glastonbury on Sun., Sept. 15, to celebrate the season at the 2024 Glastonbury Roman Catholic Parishes Fall Festival.

It was a fun-filled, faith-filled day made possible by the parish Fall Festival planning committee, chaired by Damien Walsh and Erin Sullivan. Kudos to all our partners for their support: Blue Chip Creamery for bringing around their ice cream truck, Made U Look Promotions for donating fall decorations and balloons, Scott's Orchards for providing seasonal decorations, the Glastonbury Knights of Columbus for shucking 400 clams, and Officer Sergey Sharov of the Glastonbury Police Department for demonstrating the latest public safety technology in his cruiser. We also thank those who generously donated dessert items, gift cards, and raffle prizes. Additional thanks go to the parish staff at SS. Isidore and Maria Parish and St. Dunstan's Parish, with a particular note of gratitude to Father Mark Suslenko and Father Kevin Donavan for their leadership and support of the Fall Festival.

PODCAST: The Misperception of Seeing Through Human Eyes

If we look at the world through human eyes alone, it becomes challenging to make sense of war, hunger, poverty, and suffering. According to Father Mark, though, applying a lens of faith gives us a new perspective. Listen to his latest podcast at <https://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts>.

Walking with Purpose: Registration Now Underway

The women's Bible study, Walking with Purpose (WWP), returns for its fifth season with St. Dunstan and SS. Isidore and Maria Parishes. The cost of the program is $45 per person.

Keep Holy the Sabbath

This Day in History - Sept. 22, 2024

September 22 is the 265th day of the year in the Gregorian calendar; 100 days remain until the end of the year. It is frequently the day of the autumnal equinox in the Northern Hemisphere.

An equinox is the instant in time when the plane of Earth's equator passes through the geometric center of the Sun's disk. It occurs twice each year, around March 20 and September 23. At this moment, the center of the visible Sun is directly above the equator.

Autumn, also known as Fall, is one of the four temperate seasons. Outside the tropics, autumn marks the transition from summer to winter. In September, the duration of daylight becomes noticeably shorter with cooler temperatures. Day length decreases as the season progresses until the Winter Solstice in December.

Harry, this is the season when squirrels scurry about looking for acorns to store up for winter! Maybe we can help!
