Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship: Election Guidance from the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops

The Catholic bishops of the United States are pleased to offer to the Catholic faithful Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, their teaching document on Catholics' political responsibility. This statement represents guidance for Catholics in exercising their rights and duties as participants in our democracy.

The statement and its supporting information come from the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). This information is designed to help each of us form our consciences, contribute to civil and respectful public dialogue, and shape political choices in the coming election in light of Catholic teaching. The statement lifts up our dual heritage as faithful Catholics and American citizens with rights and duties as participants in the civil order. Find out more on the USCCB website. <https://www.usccb.org/sjp/forming-consciences-faithful-citizenship>

Inspiration for the Week by Rev. Mark Suslenko

It is so easy to cast judgment upon the thoughts and behaviors of others. We have heard the phrase: practice what you preach. If we really believe in Jesus, we will put great effort and care into following his example and living his message. Humility is our goal. True humility begins when I see myself as one among many wounded, searching souls striving to find a place in life and discover who God is and how God acts. We are here today because we need to taste and feel the God who reveals himself fully in the Eucharist...the God who is our strength, hope, and salvation. We are not here because we are better or wiser than anyone else, for we are humble sinners in need of mercy.

"We are pilgrims because we have been called: called to love God and to love one another. Our pilgrimage on this earth is far from a pointless journey or aimless wandering; on the contrary, each day, by responding to God's call, we try to take every step needed to advance towards a new world where people can live in peace, justice and love. We are pilgrims of hope because we are pressing forward towards a better future, committed at every step to bringing it about. . ."

We welcome parishioners to add prayer intentions for family members free of charge in the bulletin for one (1) month. To do so, please contact the parish office at 860-633-9419 or contact@isidoreandmaria.org. We cannot publish the names of friends. Thank you for your understanding.

Mass Intention Policy Update

Due to our growing community and the limited number of Masses, we have updated our policy to the following:

- Masses will be booked no more than one (1) year in advance.
 - No more than two (2) Masses at a time can be booked.
- Thank you for understanding. We want all parishioners to have the opportunity to have a Mass Intention for their loved ones.

SS. Isidore and Maria Parish sincerely thanks the sponsors whose generosity makes our bulletin possible.

Our Sponsor Spotlight this week:
PUTNAM PLAZA SUPER LIQUORS

Centuries of God's devoted people have found this prayer on their lips: "Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone!"

The fundamental prayer has been laid as the cornerstone of many spiritual lives. Where did you learn how to pray, or did you? Maybe a wisdom figure in your life inspired and guided you by their life's genuine, holy simplicity. Their example may have led you to God and taught you how to pray. Or perhaps you discovered this art on your own after stumbling over yourself enough and finally realizing it was time to reach out to Someone greater than yourself. There is a timeless truth that we tend to forget and may have never learned: there is only one God, the Lord alone! As a result, we often worship other gods rather than the One true God. Everything in our lives gets distorted, and we find ourselves lost and off-center.

If we have yet to learn it, there is a life lesson at the top of all of the possible lessons to be learned. There is One True and Eternal God who alone has a solitary claim on us and must be loved with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength.

Until we learn this primary lesson, we risk getting distracted and sidetracked. We will also never really figure out what is at the heart of the relationships we share with the other human beings on this planet with whom we share life. That one primary lesson will teach us the second most valuable lesson: that we must love our neighbor as ourselves. You cannot have one without the other. The presence of God in each one of us's core souls requires that all of our relationships work together. This truth is at the heart of the Gospel.

If every human being, each in their own way, could stumble upon and genuinely embrace this truth, look how different life would be! Our priorities will immediately shift from "I and me" to "us and we," and we will develop a more inclusive vision for our brothers and sisters. Concerned not only about my well-being and happiness but also that of our brothers and sisters, humanity stands a chance at succeeding in the struggle with injustice, abuse, inequity, violence, war, entitlement, and privilege. It seems that getting to this point has been at the heart of the Gospel and the kingdom of God from the moment Jesus first started to preach. It's a wonder why, then, so many centuries later, we have still failed to achieve his vision. Maybe we just haven't learned our primary lessons yet.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

PODCAST: Pivotal Questions - Through the Eyes of Bartimaeus

Humans consider four pivotal questions about existence throughout their lives. Whether we realize it or not, we ask them and answer them through our actions. Through his actions, Bartimaeus - the blind man whose sight Jesus restores - clearly understood that the answers to those pivotal questions are found in the ability to remain laser-focused on the voice of Jesus as the source of all truth. Father Mark tackles this subject in his latest podcast, now available at <https://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts>.

Isidore and Maria Wellness Ministry and the Connecticut Chapter of the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) welcome all to a free, confidential, peer-led family support group for any adult with a loved one who has experienced symptoms of a mental health condition. Nov. 12: Parish Wellness Ministry Meeting

The Parish Wellness Ministry will meet on Tues., Nov. 12 at 6:30 p.m. in the education wing of St. Paul Church. Please note the new time! Any one interested in the health and wellness of our community is invited to attend. For more information, please contact Sue at wellness@isidoreandmaria.org.

November is traditionally the time of year when we remember those from our parish community who have been lost in the last 12 months and all souls who have departed this life. This time of prayer helps us remember that we are still connected with them and united to God who desires all of His children to be with Him in heaven. The Church teaches that those who have died are in need of our prayers as well.

Do You Have Historic Photos of our Churches and Rectories?

The two churches that form our parish - St. Paul and St. Augustine - have long histories in the town of Glastonbury. We are currently seeking your help in sourcing photos of our church buildings and rectories! If you have such photos that you can loan for a short period so we may scan them into our records, we would be most appreciative. We are particularly interested in photos of the St. Paul rectory from the time when it was a private residence. If you have photos to loan, please contact Carol Vassar, who can help facilitate this process. Many thanks in advance for your assistance.
