World
Marriage
Day

Feb. 9, 2025

This year's theme is:
"Marriage:
Source of Hope,
Spring of Renewal.
Pursue a Lasting Love!"

Almighty and eternal God,
You blessed the union of married couples
so that they might reflect the union of Christ with his Church:
look with kindness on them.
Renew their marriage covenant,
increase your love in them,
and strengthen their bond of peace
so that, with their children, they may always rejoice in the gift of your blessing.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

A Guide on Wintry Weather and Daily Mass

Does wintry weather have you wondering whether to journey out to attend daily Mass? Here's an easy way to decide: check the school closings on TV or online. If the Glastonbury Schools are cancelled (or even delayed), daily Mass is cancelled, too! Remember, your safety is paramount when traveling to and from Mass.

February is Black History Month, an annually observed commemorative month originating in the United States, where it is also known as African-American History Month.

Nurturing Seedlings Program Seeks Facilitators!

Plans are underway to establish the Nurturing Seedlings Program at our parish. The first step is to assemble the ministry facilitator team. The only requirements to serve as a facilitator are a love of our faith and a desire to share that with our younger families. If you have children, they should be older than 5 years of age.

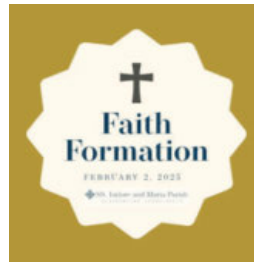

Facilitators must attend a one-day training session (9:30 a.m. - 2 p.m.). There are three dates to choose from:

- Thurs., Feb. 13: Pastoral Center, Bloomfield
- Sat., Mar. 8: Saint Rita/Donnelly Parish Center, Hamden

If interested, please contact Donna Berger donna@isidoreandmaria.org for training registration information. Once the team is fully assembled and trained, the program details will be shared with the parish community.

Inspiration for the Week by Rev. Mark Suslenko

When we encounter or even ponder God's magnificence, power, and awesomeness, we easily begin to feel our smallness and perceived insignificance. After all, who can compete with eternal greatness, seraphim, or the ability to catch great numbers of fish? Unfortunately, we think that God's presence somehow overrides us, reduces our importance, and only seeks to judge our inadequacies and doubts. Things change a bit when we realize that what we may have seen as overwhelming and frightening is only unconditional, unmerited love. Love has tremendous majesty and power. Our fear dissipates when we listen to this power and stop seeing it as threatening or dooming, and Divine friendship takes root. Remaining close to what we once preferred at a distance, we can journey to places we never thought possible and do things we never thought we could do. Strengthened by Divine friendship and encouraged by its life-giving power, we can say, "Here I am, send me!" when God asks, "whom shall I send?" Sin and fear no longer concern the one who remains close to God in a bond of trust.

Most of us were taught that God would love us if and when we change. In fact, God loves you so that you can change. What empowers change, what makes you desirous of change is the experience of love. It is that inherent experience of love that becomes the engine of change. ~ Richard Rohr

"Depart from me, O Lord, for I am a sinful man." These words, uttered by Simon Peter, can be found on our lips. What real significance do I have in the big picture of God's Divine plan?

Even though we try our best to hide it, we all suffer from a lack of faith. We get tired and confused and often lack any sincere desire to put anything into our relationship with God. It's easier to reap whatever benefits the world offers and call it a day. Floating along on the superficial currents of life doesn't require much effort and gets us through the day. Confronting our infidelity, apathy, weakness of spirit, and doubt in God's providence, how can we even remotely be considered worthy vessels of God's presence or credible voices for his message?

This is an irony of faith. God doesn't seek the perfect vessels. He likes the broken ones. There is something to be said about living honestly and sincerely and wrestling with sin, imperfection, and weakness rather than skipping through the peripheries of life with pretension, arrogance, and mendacity. If we believe ourselves to be our own "god" and serve only ourselves, we close the door to ever being used by the real and only True God. But, if we at least acknowledge that there is One greater than ourselves, then God can enter even in our most profound poverty and lowliness.

Lessons are best learned from those who suffer. Only someone lonely and lost can attest to the beauty of the Divine and human friendship. Only those who have lost their way know what happens when they are found. Only those afraid understand what it is to be calmed by God. The Gospel is messy because life is messy. There are no black-and-white solutions to problems and challenges that are hazy and gray. When our hesitancy to encounter God gets replaced by friendship with God, we become more aware of our dignity and the fact that we are loved just as we are. We cannot be afraid to share our struggles, reservations, fears, and sinfulness with others. Our genuineness and sincerity will speak of the God who blesses us in our weakness.

~ Rev. Mark Suslenko

PODCAST:
The Gift of Light

We live in a world where there is no shortage of despair, hurt, pain, loneliness, and brokenness. It's a complicated and confusing world where so many struggle to find their way through its darkness. Yet through our baptism, we are called to be light to those in the dark and help them wherever and whenever they come into our lives. According to Father Mark, our Christian light is a gift to be given to others! Listen to his latest podcast for more: <https://isidoreandmaria.org/podcasts>.

News from the Pews: Flying with Purpose

When Hartford Hospital's LIFE STAR flies overhead, more than a few people are known to bow their heads, do the sign of the cross, and say a prayer for the patients and staff aboard this moving air ambulance.

One of those staff is SS. Isidore and Maria parishioner Patricia "Trisha" Margarido, a respiratory therapist by training and experience, who serves as co-director for the LIFE STAR program.

Ministry Highlight: Altar Care

Have you ever wondered who keeps the altar areas of our churches looking so clean and beautiful? That's the work of our Altar Care ministry. This group of volunteers is tasked with reflecting the sanctity of the sacraments by presenting a clean and beautifully decorated altar. They dust the altar and areas in the main body of the Church and clean door windows, brass door plates, door handles, candle chimneys, and brass holders. They also replace holy water in fountains, refill the large holy water font, and care for all linens used on the altar and tabernacle. The ministry requires just one or two hours of volunteer time every six weeks. Volunteers can work in teams of two or three, and it's a great opportunity for families! To learn more about the Altar Care Ministry, contact Carla Rice at 860-808-4115 or by email at cjrice@cox.net.

This Day in History — Feb. 14

Valentine's Day, also called Saint Valentine's Day or the Feast of Saint Valentine, is celebrated annually on February 14. It originated as a Christian feast day honoring one or two early Christian martyrs named Saint Valentine. Through later folk traditions, it has become a significant cultural, religious, and commercial celebration of romance and love in many regions of the world.

Oliver, we are best buds, like brothers! Let's celebrate Valentine's Day but we can't eat chocolate, remember? Our Dad will pass up the chocolate too and have... yep, a salad!! I bet he shows us lots of love with bunches of doggie treats!

Happy Valentine's Day to all our friends! Who passes up sweets for a salad anyway??
